

Score Lead Still Held By Townsend

By The Associated Press
A 31-point scoring spurge in two games against Idaho last weekend kept Vic Townsend, Oregon guard, well ahead of the pack in the northern division Coast conference basketball scoring race. He has tallied 136 points in 12 games, 40 of them on free throws, the most successful free thrower of any player in the conference.

Paul Lindeman, Washington State college center, was good for 22 points in two games against Washington, to retain second place with 108 points.

Ron Harris, Idaho forward, moved up to third place from sixth place last week. He has tallied an even 100 points. Ray Turner, Idaho forward and center, has had the most personal fouls called on him, 32.

Oregon Sports Notes

By FRED HAMPSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Short takes from sports pages of Oregon:

The abundance of good sprinters in Pacific coast collegiate tracks seems near its end. Ken Battaglia quit the Stanford team. Clyde Jeffrey graduated. USC has Mickey Anderson back, but nothing much is in prospect in the north. Kjell Qvale, the ski fellow, will try the under-18 in the short distances at Washington. Bob Smith, a three-time Washington prep champ, is coming up. Pat Haley, the Canadian speedster, may withdraw from Washington State to join the army.

Friel Bitter
Over around Camas, Wash., where he comes from, the folks hear that Jimmy Newquist will be one of Oregon's first four backfieldmen next autumn. They get it from a source they hope is reliable that Coach Tex Oliver will give Newquist Buck Berry's billet, teaming with Rollin, Mechem and Dyer.

Washington State's Basketball Coach Jack Friel is still bitter about elimination of the tip-off. "Makes a dam' horseshoe out of the game," he grouches. "Why there are times when you've got a kid completely tagged in there who is hitting them—and you can't get him out."

Fred Zimmerman comments on John Leovich's abandonment of OSC football in favor of American league baseball as follows in the Salem Capital Journal: "Professional baseball is a demanding taskmaster. The younger the athlete the greater the demand for his services. Time is a two-edged sword. . . . While he gains experience and becomes more valuable to his owner as he engages in competition, Old Father Time is snapping at his heels. A degree is handy, although four years of college are not necessary to make a good operator of a filling station. Leovich may rue the day he left Oregon State before he earned his sheepskin. But right now the $4000 bonus probably looms larger than all the letters he might append after his name."

Skiff Puzzle
Northwest baseball writers wonder whether Seattle's new manager, Bill Skiff, will preserve the fruitful "percentage tactics" of the late Jack Lelivelt. Lelivelt schemed and plotted for the one run, rather than for bunches of runs. Skiff is said to like the one-run-at-a-time style.

Lippy Leo Cautions Brooklyns

By GAYLE TALBOT
HAVANA, Feb. 19 (AP)—After only three days of training in this tropical hotspot, the Brooklyn Dodgers already are so far along in their conditioning that Manager Leo Durocher is cautioning his athletes to take it easy.

"I'm having trouble getting through their heads that this is a new kind of climate," complained Leo, his blistered nose glistening in the noonday sun. "They're about to wear themselves out in the first week. We're further along right now than we were after three weeks in Clearwater last winter."

It is extremely important to the Dodger boss that he flag his boys down and make them respect the Cuban sun, for they have a record-breaking schedule of nearly 50 exhibition games starting in the face. Durocher, however, snorts at the suggestion that his battlers might leave their fight in the dressing room.

"Nuts," he said. "We're playing a lot of games, sure. But we're carrying a lot of players too, and by the time the season opens none of them will have seen any more action than he has in previous springs. I'll spread them thin after we get out toward Texas, maybe three or four innings a game, and I'll guarantee you we'll be ready on opening day."

Challdon Set For Big 'Cap

By ROBERT MYERS
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 19 (AP)—Challdon may still be the big horse in the ranks pointing for the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap, but he'll have to prove it in a distance race against a real field of rivals.

However—
The Maryland invader served notice in a betless race at Santa Anita park yesterday that he can still run without falling apart, as some of the doubting railbirds had whispered he might.

He also gave evidence that he can be rated an apparently sound contender in the golden gallop March 1, despite the interruptions in the past few weeks at critical stages of his conditioning program.

Landis Okays Vitt Claim

CHICAGO, Feb. 19 (AP)—The salary claim of Oscar Vitt against the Cleveland Baseball club, which dismissed him after the 1940 season, has been approved by Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis. It was announced today by that official's secretary, Leslie O'Connor.

Vitt, now manager of the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league, was paid $15,000 for the 1940 season, marked by a player rebellion against him and climaxed by his being replaced in late October by Roger Peckinpaugh.

Vitt immediately brought claim against Cleveland for a sum he contended due him under a bonus clause. It was believed to have been about $3000.

Sport Briefs

By EDDIE BRIETZ
NEW YORK, Feb. 19—The national indoor track and field championships Saturday night will have to struggle along without Freddy Wolcott, Rice's champion hurdler. . . . Freddy broke three records in eight days on his last trip east and upped his expense demands accordingly. . . . Gloria Callen, good-looking national backstroke swim champ, who is a dead ringer for Ingrid Bergman, the screen star, was hauled by the photographers' ball the other night. . . . Collier's has sent Kyle Crichton one of its writing aces, to Alabama to do a piece that will take the edge off its recent football "expose" by Bill Huie which nearly blew the lid off everything. . . . One of the Tulsa U.S. grid scouts next fall will be Mrs. Henry Franka, wife of the new head coach.
