

DAY OF PRAYER PORTRAYS ALL NATIONS HERE

The committee in charge of the All Day of Prayer to be held at the Presbyterian church, Sixth and Pine streets, from 10 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. on February 28, announces that all sectional program chairmen have completed their arrangements and everything is in readiness.

In contrast to previous prayer days an international hue will be added. Vocalists and readers will be dressed in authentic costumes typical of the nation they represent. Brief dramatized reports of the various countries will be given during the morning sessions. At 2 p. m. a half hour dramatization of "United Christian Service," by the ladies of the Christian church, under the direction of Mrs. H. L. Wickersham, will be presented. Those remaining for the entire day's program are advised to bring their own luncheon. The ladies of the Presbyterian church are furnishing gratis, tea and coffee in the church dining hall. The public is not only cordially invited but urged to attend these services of meetings which mark the commencement of Lent season.

SOLONS EYE SHORT PAYLESS SESSION

At the house will vote for the measure is another question. The workmen's compensation law amendments will be submitted to the senate next week by its industries committee, which has been holding daily meetings for almost six weeks, trying to whip them into shape. The defeat of the truck bill shortened the length of the session by two or three days and, if the legislature continues in its killing mood, it will shorten it still more. Legislation to restrict the sale of fortified wine to liquor stores will be considered by the house next week. Measures to increase old age pensions probably will receive little consideration, most members being reluctant to go against Governor Sprague's advice against levying new taxes. The problem of reapportioning the legislature, which as yet has received no consideration, will amount to little. The senate will vote Monday on a bill to give Klamath county a senator of its own and, as far as legislative leaders are concerned, that's all the reapportioning to be considered.

Police Watching For Car Thief

State police were asked to be on the lookout for a young Mexican about 5 feet 7 inches tall Saturday following the recovery of a stolen car in Yreka Friday.

The vehicle, belonging to Florence Head, Chiloquin, was taken from Klamath county. According to a city police report it was believed the Mexican was unaccompanied at the time of the theft. The car was not damaged when it was found in the California city.

Deadline Set For Sending Nazi Criticism Radiograms

NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (AP)—Americans who plan to message criticism to Amerasia, Berlin—at the German government's expense—have only until Saturday night (EST) to do it. However, a Nazi announcer said Thursday night it was hoped that the offer to accept collect messages could be renewed later "as soon as we have answered those which come in under the closing offer."

For six days, the flood of collect messages—many of them downright insulting—has cost the German government approximately $11,000 a day. Berlin set a limit of 25 words a message, and the cost of each has ranged from $2.18 to $3.23.

J. B. Rostrom, traffic manager for the Radio Corporation of America, said a "good proportion" of the messages had been rejected at this end of the line because of a law against transmission of obscene or profane matter.

But the Germans enjoyed some of them. "My, it was fun to read what Americans had to say," the Nazi announcer exclaimed last night. "In fact, we got such a kick out of laughing over the cables received that we put our money together and had Fritz, the office boy, bring us another round of foaming Munich Hofbrau beer from the corner tavern."

Two hundred Southern Pacific railroad bowlers and their wives poured into Klamath Falls Saturday morning from up and down the Pacific coast to compete in the annual S. P. club pin tournament here Saturday and Sunday.

A parade composed of the Eagles drum corps and others greeted the maple marksmen at 11 o'clock. A round of entertainment has been scheduled for the weekend.

The bowlers come from as far south as Los Angeles and north from Portland and Eugene. Eighteen teams and approximately 175 individuals will roll for trophies donated by the two local alleys and Klamath merchants as well as cash prizes put up by the club.

Frank Peyton, president of the Klamath S. P. club, and Harvey Teal, secretary, are in charge of local arrangements.

NYA Supervisor Visits Klamath

E. Britt Neddy, state supervisor of NYA school work projects, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls from Wednesday until Saturday. Britt, with Earl I. Rice, district NYA supervisor, made an inspection of the NYA school projects in Lake and Klamath counties.

Results of his investigation showed, according to Rice, that "the quality of the student work programs and interest of the workers on projects is in most cases above the state average."

MOTHER, FOUR CHILDREN DIE IN OLD HOUSE

to build a fire in the kitchen stove at about 5:30 o'clock. A half-hour later he discovered that the attic, reached only by a ladder and trapdoor, was aflame. He tried to reach his family but was beaten back, burned by the flames. Apparently they were trapped before they could try the sole other possible exit, a small window.

Flames licked through the tarpaper and shake covering in a matter of minutes. Mrs. E. M. Thompson and the other two children, sleeping downstairs fled from the house and nothing was saved. O. A. Vogue and A. A. Johnson, neighbors, heard screams for help from the survivors but found the house a glowing funeral pyre.

The house was a two-story rustic building beside the Redwood highway. A neighbor told Hull that the house "just seemed to explode." Other neighbors and the survivors blamed the explosion on the thick tarpaper covering on the insides of the walls. The two families came into the Cave Junction district recently from Gold Beach on the Oregon coast. The men were engaged in mining operations, neighbors said. Frank Thompson was away from the home at the time of the fire and was thought to be at work in a mine somewhere in the region.

Visitors Barred From Two Towns In Flood Area

debris, they said, have made most streets impassable. The normally dry Los Angeles river spread half a mile over its banks at Canoga Park, forcing the evacuation of 10 families.

Refugees Twenty storm refugees were being housed temporarily in the Canoga park community church. Several families also were evacuated from Topanga canyon, north of Santa Monica, after a big crack appeared in the canyon wall, presaging a possible landslide.

In the Los Angeles business section, streets ran gutter-to-gutter much of the time, and many stores protected their entrances with sandbags and packing crates.

Marooned Several families isolated in Tujunga canyon, north of Glendale, reported by telephone that they had plenty of supplies. Sheriff's officers waded through floodwaters to carry food to other marooned families in the Newhall area.

Two persons were believed to have drowned—an 18-year-old youth who sought to rescue a woman from a flood stream and apparently was washed down a storm drain, and an elderly man whose body was seen floating down a flooded street. Two boys were carried three miles in one flood stream before they escaped, and a woman and a boy were carried more than a mile.

Lightning, a rare occurrence here, flashed for the second successive day, striking two houses, several power poles and a radio station, starting several fires but doing little damage.

WIEDER DIES
SALEM, Feb. 22 (AP)—E. L. Wieder, 80, former grand commander of the Grand Commandery of Oregon, Knights Templars, died last night after an extended illness. He had operated a laundry for 20 years.

More than 58 million cans of shrimp are put up annually, according to census reports on annual output of seafood canneries.

There is no doubt that the house will pass the bill and send it to the senate with little discussion, since it adopted the committee's report last week by a 42-18 vote.

to "resist the German invasion by non-cooperation and propaganda, but not by force." Soon after the German officers arrived squads of students marched in the streets singing nationalistic songs and shouting protests against the German "invasion."

The Germans watched the demonstrations from their hotel windows without comment. They arrived in ill-fitting civilian clothes, with shiny black military boots showing from under their long raincoats. I saw the same men four days ago in German general staff uniforms in the Athenee Palace hotel at Bucharest, Rumania.

Belief that a German invasion of Bulgaria is imminent was based, it was said, on reports that bridging of the Danube river is "now in progress," that heavy restrictions have been imposed on all rail traffic and that Bulgarian houses have been requisitioned as billets for German officers.
