

SOCIETY

--- By LOIS STEWART

Active on the public relations committee making plans for the inter-club banquet are the three members pictured below. Left to right, Josephine Penrod, Coral Sabo and Gwendolyn Wright. They have completed plans for the Wednesday night meeting with Mrs. McClellan, their chairman. Mrs. Penrod, Mrs. Sabo and Mrs. Wright have long been associated with the local organization.

Business and Professional Women's Club Heads

Hostess group at the inter-club banquet this year, planned for Wednesday evening, March the fifth, is the Business and Professional Women's club. Extreme left, Sylvia McClellan serves as chairman and toastmistress of the banquet to be held in the Willard hotel. Mrs. McClellan is also chairman of public relations committee. Center, Flo Ann Eaton, president of the Klamath Falls club, one of the largest in the state. Right, Dena Backes, program chairman for the year.

All pictures Kennell-Ellis

