

Airport, Judge Bills Signed

SALEM, March 5 (AP)—Governor Charles A. Sprague signed bills Tuesday to authorize cities and counties to acquire emergency airports, and to provide that candidates for circuit judge shall have lived in their districts a year before filing their candidacies. It'll soon be time for you to decide where you're going on your vacation beside broke.

Cop Retrieves Flying Money

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 5 (AP)—A negro woman told a patrolman W. W. Rucks that a gust of March wind had whisked a $10 bill from her hand and carried it to the top of a three-story building. Skeptical but conscientious, Officer Rucks climbed to the roof, found the money and returned it. Watch the Classified Page!

Air Raid Shelter Study Enlightens

LONDON, March 5 (AP)—Lord Horder, chairman of a committee studying health conditions in air raid shelters, said Tuesday that shelters have been found in the provinces, from which children have not emerged in a month. There is one, he told the Empire society, in which aged and infirm persons have remained for four months.

Here's One for Rube Goldberg

FALMOUTH, Mass., March 5 (AP)—It's an ill wind etc., etc. While Fred Howard was busy shoveling snow in front of his photographic studio, a defective oil heater started a blaze in the roof timbers. The heat cracked the glass in a big skylight, the snow fell in, and put the fire out. Looking for Bargains? Turn to the Classified page.
