

Nile Participates In Week's Activities

Regular Meeting Here Followed By Official Visit of Supreme Queen at Ashland

Covers for twenty-five were laid at the no-hostess luncheon of the Klamath Falls Nile club held Tuesday afternoon, March the fourth, at the Elk hotel. Bridge was in play later with Mrs. Lawrence Bertram, Mrs. R. D. Eller, Mrs. DeLos Mills and Mrs. Miller E. Cooper presiding as hostesses.

Exceptionally lovely were the decorations of the luncheon table, centered by bowls of daffodils, blue iris and Talisman roses, surrounded by huckleberry sprays.

The awards at the close of the afternoon's play went to Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold for high, Mrs. J. H. Carter, consolation and the guest prize to Mrs. Robert Thompson.

Hostesses announced for the April meeting of the Nile club are Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. Loyal B. Hopkins and Mrs. M. W. Rice.

A number of the Klamath Falls members of Daughters of the Nile attended the ceremonial at Ashland on Wednesday, March the fifth, when Mrs. Cora M. Evans of Terre Haute, Indiana, the supreme queen of Daughters of the Nile, paid her official visit to Zulema temple.

A twelve o'clock luncheon at the Ashland Masonic temple was followed by the ceremonial starting at two o'clock.

Those attending from here were Mrs. Gus Anderson, Mrs. Ed Ostendorf, Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger, Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mrs. T. J. Evans, Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, Mrs. Olive Spiker, Mrs. A. B. Epperson, Mrs. D. A. Kenyon, Mrs. Loyal B. Hopkins, Mrs. M. W. Rice, and from Chilqua were Mrs. Ivan O'Donoghue, Mrs. Guy Stalger and Mrs. Arthur Blockinger.

A regular election of Zulema temple officers was held Saturday afternoon, March the eighth, at the Ashland Masonic temple.

AID PROJECTS TO NEEDY PLANNED BY FRIENDSHIP CLUB

The Friendship club met in the Community hall on Garden avenue Friday afternoon, February the twenty-eighth, for dessert at half past one o'clock. Reports on aid for some needy people in the community were given at the business meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Eugene H. Love, Mrs. Charles M. Reynolds and Mrs. Z. W. Dixon.

Those receiving awards for bridge were Mrs. Thomas Hart, high; Mrs. Leon Crapo, second high, and in pinocle Mrs. Lee Kennedy, high and Mrs. Lila Morin, second high. Mrs. Glen Hewitt received the guest prize.

Guests were Mrs. J. H. Dunham, Mrs. W. A. Bishop, Mrs. C. O. Dryden, Mrs. C. W. Stanley, Mrs. Walter Fuller, Mrs. Clarence Crowson, Mrs. Morin, Mrs. Ralph Weiss, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. Hewitt, Mrs. Frank Hamm, Mrs. Crapo, Mrs. Kenney, Mrs. Butts, Mrs. Markham, Mrs. A. Fernandez and Mrs. Hart.

TOASTMISTRESS CLUB PLANS DINNER MEETING

The historic background of Ireland, the characteristics of the English and Irish people, her neutrality in the present war, her submarine bases and other points are to be presented by the Toastmistress' club Monday evening, March the tenth, at Mrs. Nord's tearoom.

The dinner discussion at the table will be presided over by Mrs. Paul Buck. "Food and a Balanced Diet" is the subject for discussion. Members will be required to give a selection in prose or verse, first giving comments leading up to their quotation. The toastmistress for the evening will be Mrs. Hiram F. Murdock who will present the speakers.

President of the club, Mrs. Walter Brown, will preside.

PRE-SCHOOL STUDY GROUP MEET TUESDAY

The pre-school child study group will meet Tuesday afternoon, March the eleventh, at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hans Norland, 1834 LeRoy street. Mrs. Fred Nichol will be the assisting hostess.

Topic for discussion will be "The Story Telling Parent," led by Mrs. Paul Angstead. Miss Marycarol Jones, child welfare consultant, will be one of the afternoon's speakers discussing child welfare work. All members are asked to attend promptly.

Monday, March 10
Toastmistress club at Mrs. Nord's tearoom for dinner followed by program.

Farewell Party Given

Chandlers Honored Before Leaving for Westside, Oregon

LANGELL VALLEY — On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Rebecca House and Mrs. Ethel Sullivan entertained the Langell Valley Women's club at the parish when a business meeting and social afternoon was enjoyed by the following guests:

Mrs. Bessie Campbell, Mrs. Grace Revell, Mrs. Florence Botkins, Mrs. Mary Dearborn, Mrs. Effie Gilman, Mrs. Lela Murray, Mrs. Lucille Campbell, Mrs. Katie Peppie, Mrs. Nettie Davis, Mrs. Edna Hood, Mrs. Madge Monroe, Mrs. Theresa Tears, Mrs. Grace Dearborn, Mrs. Virginia Thomas and Mrs. Cora Leavitt.

The club voted to send a plant to Mrs. Lottie Main who has been ill for several months. A dance was planned for March the sixth but has been postponed until April. The next meeting of the club will be on March the twenty-seventh.

Mrs. Kennedy and Miss Catherine Peterson of Pendleton met with the women of St. Barnabas church at the parish hall on Sunday afternoon. Talks were given on the general church convention held recently in Kansas City. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Grace Revell, Mrs. Mary Dearborn, Mrs. Madge Monroe, Mrs. Betty Peppie, Mrs. Virginia Thomas, Miss Hazel Morrison and the honored guests.

Sunday evening Mrs. Kennedy and Miss Peterson met with the YPE and showed interesting pictures of the convention at the church vacation school at Cove. Miss Lottie Belle McDonald served refreshments to the young people following the meeting.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Dee Chandler were given a farewell party by the Bridge club, the affair being an eight o'clock dinner followed by bridge. During the dinner hour the Chandlers were presented with a waffle iron and sandwich toaster.

Those enjoying the affair besides the honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Owen Peppie, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Teare, Mr. and Mrs. Al Gale, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peppie, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt and Mrs. Mary Dearborn. Mrs. Leavitt and Mr. Gale won the prizes for high score and Betty Peppie received the traveling prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler left March the fourth for their new home at Westside near Lakeview. Those attending the dinner also sent a convalescent card to Mrs. Frank Dearborn who is confined to her home with a fractured leg.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR ROSEBURG VISITOR

A stork shower was given at the home of Mrs. H. A. Lindemood, Weyerhaeuser townsite, in honor of Mrs. Grace Bunell Ausland of Roseburg, Oregon, Friday evening, March the seventh. Soon after the guests arrived she was presented with a lovely bassinet from her mother which was filled with many gifts.

Refreshments were served by Miss Elizabeth Bunnell and Miss Ethel Lindemood. Guests present were: Mrs. Louie Benson, Mrs. Laura E. Chamberlain, Mrs. C. A. Bunnell, Miss Lou Bunnell, Mrs. L. E. Judd, Mrs. J. C. Orr, Mrs. Jim O'Neill, Mrs. A. H. Rogers, Mrs. Tom W. Owens, Mrs. C. H. Mueller, Mrs. Alec McLean, Mrs. J. L. Richey, Mrs. Ben Trippett, Mrs. Fred Abbey, Miss Gloria Bunnell, Mrs. E. V. Zell, Mrs. John Peters, Mrs. Fred Ohlemeyer, Miss Elizabeth Bunnell, Miss Ethel Lindemood and Mrs. H. A. Lindemood, hostess.

Group four of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church will meet on Thursday afternoon, March the thirteenth, at the home of Mrs. F. H. Cofer on High street.

LAMPROPULOS CHILDREN

This attractive group of four are children of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Lampropulos of Klamath Falls, well known residents of this city. They are, upper row, Cleopatra, 13; Christopher, 12; Athena, 8, and Constance, 5.

—Comart studio.

Members Plan Convention

Pinocle Parties To Be Given on Saturday, Tuesday

The Eagles auxiliary held a meeting Thursday evening at the Eagles hall with all officers and a drill team of fourteen present to confer the full initiatory ceremony on seven candidates.

It was reported by the convention committee that Dolly Machado and Stella Persell journeyed to Bend Sunday to make reservations at campgrounds for the coming convention to be held there on June 26, 27 and 28. Inasmuch as the Eagles have no auxiliary in that city, the Klamath Falls auxiliary was asked to act as hostess group but will still be entitled to compete. Mrs. Machado was appointed convention chairman and Mrs. Persell, convention secretary. The committee will include all past madam presidents.

"Silent sisters" were identified at this meeting and many beautiful gifts were received by the members. New silent sister names were exchanged and these will be revealed at the first meeting in March, 1942. Mrs. Viola Guest was honored with a miscellaneous shower.

The drum corps announced a pinocle party for Saturday evening at eight o'clock at the KC hall and a pinocle party will be sponsored by the auxiliary Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the Eagles hall to which the public is invited.

The Hazbins of the auxiliary met at the home of Ursel Bratton Friday evening when four tables of pinocle were in play, high score being held by Fannie Thompson and second by Maudie Larson. Lena Aubrey received the guest prize.

The next meeting of this club will be held at the home of Florence O'Brien at Algoma Friday, March the fourteenth, when members are asked to meet at the FOE hall at half past eleven o'clock where transportation will be provided.

STATE HEAD PAYS VISIT TO AUXILIARY

The Veterans of Foreign War auxiliary held a special meeting Saturday evening, March the first, in the club rooms of the city library. President Laura Bacon introduced the state department president, Arilla Adkinson of Eugene. A large attendance greeted the visitor, and Mrs. Adkinson gave an interesting talk on auxiliary work in this state.

Lunch was served after the meeting, tables decorated with candles and flowers in the auxiliary colors, blue and gold. Decorations were arranged by Mable Brochtrup and Ella Mullins. Corsages were presented to the state president, the Mrs. Bacon, president of Pelican auxiliary to Chaplain Martha Barron, and Conductress Naomi Kurtz who is also state color bearer.

Members of the TNT Bridge club will be entertained Wednesday evening of this coming week by Mrs. Henri Conradi.

Anniversary Dinner Given

Covers for Seventy Laid at Affair Held By Women of Moose

The Women of the Moose held their annual birthday dinner Tuesday evening, February the twenty-fifth, in the KC hall when covers were laid for seventy members and guests. Arrangements of sweet peas and pussywillows gave an attractive springlike touch to the tables.

After the dinner hour a business session was called by Senior Regent Mabel Ward, and Mrs. Madeline Watters and Mrs. Elva Pollard were initiated into the order in an open initiation. Lodge adjourned until the next meeting on March the eleventh at seven o'clock to be followed by a public pinocle party at eight o'clock.

The Graduate Regents met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mildred Wilkinson. Pinocle was in play following the dessert hour with high score held by Mrs. LaVera McBride and second by Mrs. Blanche Dixon.

Women of the Moose sponsored the final pinocle party in a series of four last Friday afternoon when award for high went to Mrs. Emma O'Neill, second high to Mrs. McKim and guest prize to Mrs. Annette Hall. Mrs. Fannie Thompson received the grand prize for the series.

Members of the Alumni association of the Women of the Moose and Loyal Order of Moose met for a breakfast last Sunday morning at nine o'clock in the KC hall.

POTLUCK DINNER PLANNED BY STUDY CLUB FOR FAMILIES

The Independent Study club met Thursday, March the sixth, at the home of Mrs. Katherine Evans on Laurel street, Riverview addition, when a one o'clock potluck luncheon was served to Mrs. Ipha Brown, Mrs. Estella Smith, Mrs. Kate Crowson, Miss Nona Hall, Mrs. Nettie Good, Mrs. H. S. Stone, Mrs. Lizzie Little, Mrs. Louise Borton, Mrs. Ila Dillon, a guest, and the hostess.

Following the luncheon hour and business meeting a housewarming shower was given in honor of Mrs. Evans. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Little, 2444 Orchard Way, Thursday, March the twentieth, when a towel shower will be given for Mrs. Pearl Marin on her birthday.

Members made plans to entertain their husbands and friends at a potluck dinner and entertainment at six o'clock Saturday evening, March the eighth, in the Community hall on Garden avenue.

FRIDAY BRIDGE CLUB MEETS FOR LUNCHEON

The Friday Bridge club met at the Luca cafe for a no-hostess luncheon at one o'clock Friday afternoon with bridge enjoyed later in the pine paneled room of the Elks temple.

High score went to Mrs. Carlson, low to Mrs. Sanborn. Guests of the club were Billie Smith and Rose Lathrup, and members present included: Elsie Wenzel, Jessie Hardburger, Elinor Lewis, Louise Carlson, Edith Williams, Elvira Henry, Fern Sanborn and Edna Hastings.

GADBOIS-COLVIG

At half past three o'clock Saturday afternoon, March the first, in the Presbyterian church Miss Wanda Ruth Colvig and Mr. Robert Edmund Gadbois were married by the Rev. A. Theodore Smith. The single ring ceremony was used. Witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Angus, Mr. and Mrs. Gadbois will reside at Weyerhaeuser Camp No. 1 where the groom is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cofer of Homedale spent several days last week visiting in Portland with their son, Eldon, and also at Vancouver, Washington with their daughter, Gertrude, and her family. They were accompanied north by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Cofer.

"LET GEORGE DO IT"

SWISS WATCH REPAIR SPECIALIST

A COMPLETE LINE OF JEWELRY

GEO. METZ

837 Main

Watchmaker and Jeweler

NEWS OF THE THEATRES

Errol Flynn, long popular for his roles in adventure films, turns Hawkshaw in "Footsteps in the Dark," a sleuthing comedy which opens Sunday at the Pelican.

Lee Bowman, Jane Frazee and Alan Curtis appearing with Bud Abbott, Lou Costello and the Andrews sisters in the hilarious military musical "Buck Privates," opening Sunday at the Esquire.

Add to Hollywood's "Cinderella" stories that of 17-year-old Kathryn Grayson who was discovered by Louis B. Mayer while singing at a party and who now makes her film debut in a featured role opposite Mickey Rooney in "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary," at the Pine Tree Sunday.

Thimble Club To Meet Tuesday

The Thimble club, Neighbors of Woodcraft, will meet Tuesday afternoon, March the eleventh, at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bertha Hewitt, 2225 Darrow avenue. Mrs. Meredith Ezell will be assisting hostess. Pinocle will be in play following the business meeting.

Twenty members of the Suburban League auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. E. L. Sanborn on Monday, March the third, for a one o'clock potluck luncheon. President Billie Smith presided over discussion of plans for an "old fashioned" dance March the fifteenth.

KATHERINE'S Beauty Salon

Are You Ready for EASTER?

"Our Permanent Our Pride"

SPECIAL 2 for 1

123 N. 8th St.

Phone 4633

Katherine Isenack • Margie Mills

—BACK OF PENNEY'S—

EASTER TIME IS LOVELINESS TIME

For Those Dearest To You Your Own Portrait Is The Most Cherished Of Gifts....

Our Newly Decorated Camera Room Is Designed For Accent On Charm

COMART STUDIO

Truly Fine Photography

712 Main Street

Telephone 5613

GROUP PLANNING SKIT FESTIVAL

A meeting of the general committee organizing Klamath county's first Skit and Folk festival was held Friday evening at the county agent's office in the federal building with Mayor John H. Houston, general chairman, presiding.

The festival, to be county-wide, is in line with a general trend throughout the nation at this time for festivals that call attention to folklore and folk dancing and a number are being held in Oregon this spring, according to the committee.

Sixty-six skits are being prepared in various communities at the present time, with elimination programs to be held by March 28 for community judging.

The final festival will be held in Klamath Falls, Friday evening, April 4, at Klamath Union high school and will consist of 12 skits and folk dances chosen from throughout the county by the process of elimination, which means that the outstanding of all the presentations will compose this final program, members of the committee stated.

Those on the committee in addition to Mayor Houston are Winnifred Gillen, Harold Ashley, business manager; Harry Boyd of YGA, Allene Hough representing the church groups, Mrs. C. A. Henderson in charge of music and folk groups, Joe Hicks, representing the service clubs, Mrs. L. L. Palmerton and Mrs. John Kennedy, representing the Camp Fire Girls, Mrs. A. R. Dickson representing the extension groups, Mrs. Earl Mack, the 4-H clubs, Mrs. H. A. Dressie, the Girl Scouts and Isabelle Brixner representing the school groups.

A complete list of the various community programs will be announced at a later date.

To Spokane — Patricia Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Olds of 446 Riverside, will attend the annual College day sponsored by the American Association of University Women at Spokane this weekend. Miss Gallagher is going as student representative from Whitman college to this meeting held for the purpose of familiarizing high school girls and their mothers with the colleges of the northwest. Dean Maurine Clow and Miss Peggy Woodward, Walla Walla, will also attend.

Hostesses At Knitting Party

Miss Joyce Cox and Miss Naomi Clement acted as hostesses at a knitting club party at the home of Miss Clement when those entertained included Mrs. Ezell, the instructor, Miss Patricia Benoist, Miss Dorothy Harsey, Miss Donna Morehouse, Miss Joyceclyn Roberts, Miss Hazel Kerr, Miss Annette Skipworth, Miss Wanda Childers, Miss Patricia Kerfoot, Miss Geneva Arnett, Miss Pauline Arnett, Mrs. Clement, Mrs. Shaffer and the hostesses.

