

BEAVER BUILDUP
The Oregon State college publicity staff, which compares less than somewhat with George Godfrey's Oregon propagandists, has this morning come through with a full-sized review of spring athletics at Corvallis.

A compromising summation tacked to the varsity track outline says: "On the track the Orangemen will compare favorably with any other squad in the northern division conference. Their chance to win in dual meet competition depends principally upon the ability of men in the field events to improve their mediocre early season showings."

Coach Grant Swan rates as "good" prospects in the 440, 880, mile, two-mile, hurdles, and broad jump. Javelin, shotput and disc are "poor," and the balance fair.

It appears Swan is only fairly strong in only the middle distance and distance events, with Captain Don Vaillancourt, Graff and Nelson towering in the mile.

The freshman roster shows locally known names in Harry Muskrat, ex-Chiloquin quarter-miler, Francis Verling, once of Lakeview, and Dick Finch, the ace Medford hurdler of last year.

The frosh prospects are better than in several seasons. Swan looks for fine results in seasons to come.

Beaver hopes rise a little in the 1941 edition of last year's championship baseball squad. Gone are six members of the 1940 powerhouse but instead the Orange claims the strongest pitching staff in the conference.

Elliott and show won six loop games a year ago; Farthing, a soph transfer, is expected to win several; and Olmstead may show.

Even with the loss of heavy-hitting John Leovich to the Philadelphia A's this squad will probably outlast that of last year. Fielding is listed as "doubtful."

EX-OREGON GRIDDER DIES IN EUGENE

EUGENE, April 8 (AP)—Ira C. Woodie, 35, former University of Oregon football player and La Grande high school coach, died Saturday.

He was coach at La Grande until two years ago when he resigned because of his health. Survivors include the widow and daughter.

Ex-Grocery Boy Meets Joe For Bomber's Title Tonight

Tony Musto No. 16 in Bum Parade

"Junior Battle of Bums" In Washington Another Feature of U. S. Ring Card

By HAROLD CLAASSEN ST. LOUIS, April 8 (AP)—Everything else having failed, a former grocery boy has been drafted to oppose heavyweight Champion Joe Louis tonight.

Tony Musto, a Chicago Italian as short and stubby as a crow haircut, is championship target No. 16 in the parade of fistic talent that has included fat men, skinny men, clowns and even an orthodox pugilist or two in Louis' stop-a-month tour of the country.

Musto, who graduated from delivery boy to steel puddler before turning fighter will be one of the few persons among the 20,000 expected to jam the arena who thinks he will subdue Louis.

Few bets are available that the scrap will go beyond five rounds—and that curfew is forecast with Musto on his back.

Despite the anticipated outcome, Mike Jacobs, New York promoter and shepherd of the Louis interests, thumbed through $30,000 in advance sales and predicted the total receipts would be $55,000.

The only thing that distinguishes this stop on the Louis tour is that the champion encounters a foe who fights naturally from a crouch.

Except for Tony Galento and Al McCoy, who adopted the underslung style for a night, Louis has tangled only with upright young men. Arturo Godoy, the South American dancer, and rugged Red Burman unsuccessfully offered techniques approximating that of Musto.

And Musto has had both of these on the floor in his 39 previous bouts.

Another disadvantage which isn't expected to disturb Louis in the least is the challenger's short stature. Standing upright, Musto measures 5 feet, 7 inches, which is six inches less than Louis. Folded into his fighting

Salem Police Chief Blames Astoria for Tournery Riot

SALEM, April 8 (UP)—Police Chief Frank Minto Monday night blamed Astoria high school students with inciting a riot directed at their own basketball team following the state tournament here.

Minto made the charges in a report presented the city council at its request. The report also accused the Astoria students of throwing dead fish and drinking.

"We are informed by witnesses that the ones most troublesome and who seemed to be looking for fights were the Astoria group," the report said.

Minto also said witnesses told him "players (Astoria) were promised and given beer at their banquet in order to keep them from running around the streets. Another report based on eye-witnesses indicates that members of the mob causing the most trouble were high school members from the Astoria high school and graduates therefrom, many of whom had shown signs of liquor."

The report also said that no evidence had been gathered to prove that Coach Wally Palmberg of Astoria had been kicked during the trouble, which occurred at a local restaurant after the tournament.

McShain Favored Over Pete

Dapper Coast Champion, Belcastro in Top Shape For Return Encounter

Dangerous, devilish Danny McShain, dapper darling of Hollywood but terror of Pacific Coast wrestling rings, today was listed a slight favorite over Pete Belcastro for their all-out battle tonight at the armory.

The clash, which is only coincidental to tonight's St. Louis chapter in the J. Louis bum-of-the-month campaign and this evening's Washington clambake between and among Buddy Baer and lovable Tony Galento, will probably be the bloodiest, wildest bout in recent Klamath Falls raffle history — if last week's engagement can be taken as a criterion.

The balding Pete has been pumping gas at his Weed emporium with unreasonable fury all week long and should be in tip-top shape, while McShain has been in tip-top shape all week long.

Last Tuesday's thriller, as Klamath fans will remember, ended for Dapper Dan despite Yukon Jake Jackson's full dress efforts to help the tottering Roman. Tex Hager, the man in white, had his hands full with the Bulldog before Pete, blood pouring down his chin, was led away.

Supporting the main act will be a new-face appearance of Gus Johnson, the St. Paul scientist, and Danny Savich who once was an all-American. Danny, according to advance dope, is a cleanie until it stops paying. He'll probably find it stops paying tonight.

The opening performance pits the Bulldog against Tiger Tsakoff — also known as Steve Neno, a Russian. The Cossack hasn't been seen locally for some time but Jackson, the Chiloquin chopper, re-appeared here some two weeks ago.

First gong time is 8:30.

Hardballers, Softballers, Begin Activity

A second front to Klamath baseball activity will open Wednesday night with the inaugural meeting of all interested in softball scheduled for 7:30 in the city council chambers.

Lynn Roycroft, president of the Klamath Softball association, urged all players, managers, and sponsors to attend.

Meanwhile Earl Brooks of the Klamath Pelicans, newly-formed hardball team, announced that a practice session has been called for 5:15 Wednesday at Recreation park. Another practice will be held Friday at the same time.

pose, the Italian scratches his nose on the champion's belt.

WASHINGTON, April 8 (UP)—A "junior battle of the bums"—a 10-rounder between Tony Galento and Buddy Bear—takes place tonight in Uline stadium and the news last night, as it always is when Mr. G. is involved, is weird.

Knowing that the public always expects the unusual from Tony on the eve of battle, the Galento press attaches announced that the great man from Orange, N. J., probably won't arrive until tomorrow because they don't want him to commit a social faux pas, such as refusing a flagon of suds.

The betting favors Galento at odds of 6 to 5.

Both men predict they will win by a knockout. Galento expects to weigh around 240 pounds and Baer around 245.

HONOLULU, April 8 (AP)—University of Oregon, leading all the way, knocked over the University of Hawaii, 52 to 42, before a crowd of 5000 basketball fans here last night.

The barnstorming Oregonians, who led 25 to 20 at the half, brought a laugh from the crowd when they pulled off their sweat-shirts and displayed fiery-red sunburned backs and arms from swimming under a hot sun.

The Hawaii team was assisted in the first half by Angelo (Hank) Luisetti and Swede Anderson, mainland stars who made the trip with the Oregon squad.

Pepper Martin Eyed As Most Popular on Coast

By The Associated Press Tab fiery Pepper Martin to become one of the most popular baseball managers in Pacific Coast league history.

The "Wild Horse of the Osage," now pilot at Sacramento, a farm club of the St. Louis Cardinal system, has the warm approval of Sacramento fans who saw him in action last weekend as the Solons started their 1941 campaign in impressive style.

The 36-year-old playing manager went to bat against the Hollywood Stars Sunday with two men on in the sixth, and responded with a neat double that brought a rousing cheer from 7000 throats. He was deliberately walked the next time he came up.

Sacramento won three straight from Hollywood to emerge from the brief inaugural series unscathed atop the loop at 1,000 per cent.

Pepper is right in there with the boys all the way, arguing every decision and directing every play, and the fans love it.

Tonight the Solons entertain Portland, the 1940 cellar club that broke even with Los Angeles in an abbreviated two-game opening series, while San Francisco goes to Oakland for another floodlight affair. ## California's Pauline Betz Is Seen A Worthy Successor to Queen Alice

Los Angeles Girl Has All the Shots, "Can't Miss" Nationals

By HARRY GRAYSON NEA Service Sports Editor Eleanor Tennant, the famous coach, is just one of many fine judges who say Pauline May Betz can't miss winning the national women's singles tennis championship when the firing gets under way at Forest Hills, Aug. 29.

They see in Miss Betz, a nice looking girl of 21, a worthy successor to Alice Marble, who turned professional.

Miss Betz patterned her game after that of the spectacular, hard-hitting Miss Marble. The girls are warm friends. They correspond, and Miss Marble hopes to take her fellow Californian in hand before the tournament.

Dorothy May Bundy, whom Miss Betz defeated, 6-1, 10-12, 6-2, to acquire the indoor crown at Brookline, believes her west coast neighbor will scale the heights outdoors. Both attend Rollins college in Florida. They were in the party that toured South America.

"Pauline has the strokes, fight, physique and endurance," repeats Miss Bundy. "She could play all day."

CALIFORNIA MISS HAS AN IMAGINATIVE GAME What Miss Tennant, who brought out Miss Marble and other stars likes best about Miss Betz is that the Los Angeles miss has an imaginative game which will keep women's tennis on the high plane to which Queen Alice returned it.
