

PROGRAM FOR GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES SET

Christian men and women will bow their heads in sorrow on Good Friday and in observance of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ, services to be held in various churches of the city throughout the day. Last of the Holy week services planned by the Klamath Falls Ministerial association will be held in the Pelican theatre beginning at 9:55 a. m., and closing at 12:55 p. m. The public is urged to attend.

Mayor John H. Houston has asked in proclamation that these hours be observed by business houses in the city.

Attendance at the passion week services, has been excellent, according to local ministers. The Good Friday program, to be presided over by Adjutant Norman C. Bowyer, with Prof. Lorraine Dossett as song leader and Mrs. Dossett as pianist, will be as follows:

First period, 9:55 to 10:20—Hymn, "There is a Green Hill Far Away," audience; prayer and announcements by presiding officer; special musical number by the First Baptist church; message, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do," Rev. Cecil C. Brown, First Baptist church.

Second period, 10:22 to 10:47—Hymn, "The Way of the Cross Leads Home," audience; vocal duet, "O Sacred Heart Now Wounded," Mrs. Kenton Knight, Mrs. C. E. McClellan; message, "Today shalt thou be with me in paradise," Rev. Hugh Bronson, Altamont Presbyterian church.

Third period, 10:49 to 11:14—Hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," audience; vocal duet by Mrs. Gladys Gunderson and Mrs. Daniel Anderson; message, "Woman, behold thy son! Son, behold thy mother!" Rev. Daniel Anderson, Klamath Temple.

Fourth period, 11:16 to 11:41—Hymn, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus," audience; vocal duet, "Alone," Mrs. C. S. Robertson and Mrs. John Selby; message, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" Rev. Arthur C. Bates, First Christian church.

Fifth period, 11:43 to 12:08—Hymn, "Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken," audience; vocal solo, "Open the Gates to the Temple," Muriel Garich; message, "I thirst," Rev. Eugene V. Haynes, Congregational Community church.

Sixth period, 12:10 to 12:33—Hymn, "Alas, and Did My Savior Bleed," audience; vocal solo, "Come Soothing Death," Wendell B. Smith; message, "It is finished!" Rev. Victor Phillips, First Methodist church.

Seventh period, 12:35 to 12:55—Hymn, "Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross," audience; vocal solo, "Were You There," Mrs. M. W. Moore; message, "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit," Rev. J. Clarence Orr, Immanuel Baptist church; closing prayer, Rev. Victor Phillips.

The Klamath Falls Ministerial association expresses appreciation to Mrs. Rose Poole for the use of the Pelican theatre, to The News and Herald and the local radio station for their cooperation in advertising the meetings, and to Prof. and Mrs. Dossett for their part in the musical programs, as well as to all who assisted in any way to make the meetings successful.

Final noonday passion week services were held Thursday with the Rev. A. Theodore Smith, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, speaking on the subject, "The Upper Room."

The Leonids, meteoric showers, are seen in November, and appear to come from the constellation Leo.

Lovely for Lenses

This is Mary Anne Baird of Long Beach, Calif., and the reason for the picture, if one be needed, is that she'll be one of 200 lovelies parading charms in an annual beach beauty contest for amateur photographers.

Dairy

DAIRY—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kolb returned to their home in Potosi, Calif., Sunday evening after spending several days here with relatives. They reported a foot of snow had fallen Wednesday night closing all logging operations for several days.

Theodore Flackus and E. B. Schmoer were business visitors at the Andrew Johnson home in Pine Flat Saturday. Mrs. Howard Boorman and family of the Keno district visited at the home of her brother, Joe Horsley and family and other relatives of this vicinity last week.

Dale Brown was a business visitor in the Roseburg vicinity the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Sid Hall of Klamath Falls spent Sunday evening at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Schmoer.
