CIO PICKETS ABSENT FROM KALPINE MILL

ations at the plan, offered to recognize the CIO until "legal means proved otherwise." Negotiations have since been in progress, a meeting being held as late as Monday night. Another conference is scheduled for Wednesday or Thursday, according to CIO officials.

In still another labor sector a conference was scheduled to be held Tuesday evening between representatives of the Electrical Workers union (AFL) and employers in an attempt to settle a week-old strike of about 20 electricians. The union is asking for a signed contract calling for a wage increase for both electricians and helpers.

Still pending before the National Labor Relations board are unfair labor practice charges filed by both unions upon the company's refusal to recognize either union and a petition for election filed by Kalpine.

The Peterson-Johnson agreement, a supplement to an existing AFL contract, calls for 67½ cents base pay in addition to the one-week vacation with pay for all mill and woods workers, according to Joe Boyd, AFL organizer. This, stated Boyd, is the highest base pay in the basin.

Signed Sunday, the agreement also calls for a reduction in rental for company houses and bunkhouse, free wood, free lights, and clean sheets once each week in the bunkhouse for single men, Boyd said.

A contract between the AFL, Local 2520, and the mill has been in force since 1939, the organizer said.

EASTERN FOREST FIRES IN CHECK

ings at Marshfield, Mass., causing a loss of $1,500,000 may have been due to a "saving" of $300, observers there said. The town for 20 years had appropriated that amount annually to burn over marsh grass where this year's fire started, but eliminated the item the past two years.

In New Jersey alone, 84,000 acres of woodland was blackened by 85 separate blazes at a loss of more than $1,000,000.

Nearly 100 blazes were reported in New York and Pennsylvania.

To the south, 12,000 acres in Maryland still smoldered, and small new blazes sprang up throughout the state. Virginia and West Virginia experienced scores of major fires.

A third of West Virginia's more than 150 conflagrations were being fought by 3000 men, and State Forester Dan B. Griffin predicted the worst was yet to come.

Treasury Plan For Tax Boost Hits Incomes

the normal tax on incomes at 4.4 per cent (4 per cent basic rate plus a 10 per cent defense levy applied to that tax) and add an 11 per cent surtax on the first $2000 of taxable income.

(The ways and means committee is considering a number of alternative tax methods).

No surtaxes now are levied on less than $4000 of taxable income. Taxable income is that remaining after reductions for self and dependents and for such things as losses, church contributions and the like.

To the present corporation income tax of 24 per cent, a draft of treasury proposals showed a six per cent surtax would be added. Excess profits taxes, it was said, would become stiffer.

The surtaxes on individual incomes would run as high as 75 per cent on income above $5,000,000, the same as at present, and would be increased most in the lower and middle brackets.

A summary of the income tax plan, prepared by the department's division of tax research, showed that a childless married couple with earned income of $2500 would pay $72 on 1941 income as opposed to $11 under existing rates.

The summary indicated that the 10 per cent exemption now allowed on earned income up to $14,000 would continue to apply for purposes of the normal—or basic—tax but not to the surtaxes.

Big Force of U. S. Soldiers Landed In Philippines

MANILA, April 22 (AP) — Movement to the Philippines of United States army forces — principally coast artillery, air corps and infantry detachments —was heavily increased today with the arrival of the transport Republic from Fort Mason, Calif.

The transport, making its first call at Manila in nine years, landed more than 2000 soldiers. Among them were 1400 coast artillerymen to be stationed at Fort Mills on Corregidor island, most distant outpost under the American flag.

The troops, from every state in the Union, represented the largest single American force ever landed in the islands. Also aboard the transport were almost 8000 tons of army cargo, including war equipment.

On its return trip the Republic is scheduled to carry a capacity passenger load, mostly the wives and children of army officers and men on Philippine duty. In addition, it will take aboard ore, hemp and other materials important to the United States defense program.

Matsuoka Points To Peace Indication

TOKYO, April 22 (AP)—Japan's "three achievements within six months" should convince the United States that her intentions are strictly peaceful, Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka told newspapermen today on his return from conversations in Berlin, Rome and Moscow.

He listed these achievements as the three-power pact among Germany, Italy and Japan, Japanese recognition of the Nanking regime as the "basic government" of China, and the recently signed soviet-Japanese neutrality pact.

However, in answer to a question whether Japan contemplated a non-aggression pact with the United States he replied: "I do not know."

PROTEST

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—The Italian radio said today Iraq had sent a "very strong protest" to Britain over the landing of British troops in Basra, which, the radio said, "violated the sovereignty of the state and its neutrality." The broadcast was heard by NBC.

BOWEL WORMS
The signs are misleading.
Nobody is sure to escape.
Worms can make real trouble.
Anybody, anywhere, can "catch" roundworms! So watch out for these signs in your child or yourself: uneasy stomach, nose-picking, loss of weight, itchy seat, nervousness. Get Jayne's Vermifuge if you even suspect roundworms. It expels stubborn worms, yet acts very gently. If there are no worms, it works just as a mild laxative. SOUTHERN MINERS RETURN TO MEET on Mr. Roosevelt's call for an end to the soft coal stoppage.

"It is imperative that there be no shortage now, or at any other time, of coal for defense production purposes," the president said in urging that:

1. The miners and operators already in agreement resume coal production under terms of that agreement.

2. The operators and miners who have not reached an agreement, enter into wage negotiations and at the same time reopen the mines, the agreement ultimately reached to be made retroactive to the date of resuming work.

The Michigan labor mediation board invoked a 30-day cooling-off period last night in a dispute between the CIO United Automobile Workers and General Motors corporation. The union last Friday had filed a five-day notice of intention to strike, claiming unsatisfactory progress in concluding a new union-company contract. The CIO-UAW demands union shop recognition, wage increases and other concessions.

today that he thought it "not unlikely" that the Germans had occupied Samothrake island near the Turkish-controlled Dardanelles, gateway to the Black sea.

Samothrake is a Greekisland lying about 50 miles northwest of the Dardanelles.

The island, which figured frequently in ancient history, is 18½ miles long and 8½ miles wide, with a total area of 68 square miles and a population of about 4000.

impassable to such heavy vehicles—charged light British tanks and crushed them like eggshells," he wrote.

Planes Few

De Luce reported that the British RAF strength in Greece numbered no more than 150 planes when the invasion started.

Defense Positions

British middle east headquarters reported tersely that British troops falling back from the Mt. Olympus sector in eastern Greece "have now occupied defensive positions south of Lamia."

This may mean that the British are preparing to make a "last ditch" stand near the Thermopylae gap where 300 Spartans under King Leonidas held off an invasion army led by Persian King Xerxes in 480 B.C.

The new defense line was apparently being established in the rugged Lokris mountains, below the flat plain of Thessaly Lamia lies south of the Othrys mountains, where it was believed that the allies had previously decided to make a stand.

In Rome the fascist newspaper Il Tevere published an "unconfirmed report" attributed to Lisbon newspaper circles that the Greek army surrendered last night.

Italian dispatches had previously asserted that 12 Greek divisions—about 150,000 men—were hopelessly trapped by axis forces in the Ioannina sector.

Authoritative sources in London acknowledged that British expeditionary troops had been withdrawing "through" Lamia, but it was not specified whether it was a further land retirement or a debarkation by sea

A British spokesman declined to say where the troops had gone from Lamia.

Hitler's high command, noting "special successes" in violent dive-bombing assaults on ships in Greek waters, declared the vessels "were being held ready for the departure of the British expeditionary corps fleeing from the Greek mainland."

The German high command said six loaded ships totalling 31,000 tons were sunk and several others heavily damaged.

WINANT SPEAKS FOR ACTIVE BRITISH AID

LONDON, April 22 (AP)—The United States ambassador to London, John G. Winant, told the American chamber of commerce today that "we are not concerned with words—we are determined to help (Britain) by action to insure total victory over totalitarian aggression."

He said that between Americans and "the free and unconquerable people of this island" there existed "a bond of common sympathy and understanding, of common purpose and devotion which will live on long after nazi tyranny has been broken and destroyed."

Winant declared that American business men and manufacturers residing in Britain could do much to "hasten the day of complete victory over nazi tyranny" by sharing their knowledge of production methods with British industry.

Machines and tools to make them, he said, are vital needs.

"This war has already demonstrated the man-for-man superiority of the soldier of freedom over the soldier of oppression wherever there has not been an overwhelming inferiority of mechanized equipment," he added.

If we had applied 10 years ago resolutely the policy of aiding the victim of aggression to defend himself we should not now be at war at all.—Sir Norman Angell, Nobel Peace Prize winner of 1933.

Mrs. G. Logan Black, regent of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, gave an inspiring talk to the new citizens who listened intently as they did during greetings extended by Mrs. William Larson of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary; Mrs. Herman Lofdahl of the Disabled American War Veterans auxiliary; Mrs. S. F. Kounie, American Legion auxiliary; Angus Newton, commander of the local post, American Legion.

Mrs. Harry Ackley of the DAR chapter distributed small American flags to the group and said briefly:

"Probably in all history there has never been a time when this flag means as much as it does today."

The theme of virtually all addresses was the caution to cherish their hard-earned citizenship, to take root in American soil, and to be prepared to defend the freedom of this, one of the last free countries on the face of the earth.

Following are names of those granted their citizenship papers: David Adolph Schatz, Germany; Martin Winther, Germany; Thomas Hefner, Germany; Marie Hutchison, Britain; Harold Ditmar Hornseth, Norway; Floyd Arlo Stewart, Canada; Daniel Martin Murphy, Ireland; James Ferguson Leggett, Scotland; Harry Earl Ewing, Canada; Elizabeth Abbott Gray, Canada; Gust Demetrakos, Greece; Berneice Nettilee Knapp, Canada; Andrew George Gray, Ceylon; Margaret Williams, Canada; David Reinoldson, Sweden; Roger Charles Porret, Switzerland; Eugene Werner, Sweden; Con Fitzgerald, Ireland; Galva Janette Ledingham, Canada; Harry Remington Huddart, England; John Dwight Larson Jr., Canada; Marie Julia Kilgore, France; Leah Bean, England; Daniel David McAuliffe, Ireland; Ethel Bleak, England; Dena Dalmer Backus, Canada; Jenny Constance Gerrue, Sweden; Ivar John Hult, Sweden; Oscar Pedersen, Norway; Mary Wayne Wells, Canada; John Fink, Russia; Ruby Annette White, Canada; Theodor Hendricksen, Norway; George Raymond Beimler, Canada; Delphine Viola Morino, Canada; Gerda Birgit Persson, Sweden; Michael Joseph Murphy, Ireland; Laurence Lindsay Smith, Canada; Olga Malvina Backstrom, Sweden; Angela Baralis Galetti, Italy; Mary Emma Pierson, Canada; Maria Bianchini, Italy; Haakon Jacobsen, Norway. of Salum, informed sources reported today.

The new movement began, these sources declared, after a nazi detachment which has been in the Salum area for some days repulsed a British thrust.

British Repulsed

The high command communique said that not only was the British thrust on Salum repulsed but also an attempted landing at the port of Bardia just within Libya northwest of Salum — both with "heavy losses for the enemy in the number of prisoners taken."

"Renewed attempts of enemy tanks to break through from Tobruk were frustrated," the daily communique said.

CAIRO, Egypt, April 22 (AP)—Italian forces have turned and are giving battle to British imperial forces at Dessie, in Ethiopia 175 miles northeast of Addis Ababa, the British reported today.

Despite the Italian stand, British middle east headquarters said the south African column advancing on the Ethiopian capital from this sector yesterday occupied an important position covering the approach to Dessie after inflicting serious losses on the fascists.

The advance of another northern column on this east African front was reported hampered by extensive road demolitions.

In southern Ethiopia it was announced that 17 Italian officers and 549 men had been taken prisoner and that "operations are proceeding satisfactorily."

On the north African front the British headquarters said briefly that, "Our patrols again have been active" in the Salum sector, just across the Egyptian border from Libya, and at Tobruk, 80 miles west of the frontier.

Elegant Eighties

RECORDING A SOLO IN THE "ELEGANT EIGHTIES" Scientific American, 1880

In the "Elegant Eighties" mechanized music was in its infancy. But "dining out" was at its peak — with every menu and wine list a masterpiece.

It was to please the discriminating taste of those "diners-out" that the first Italian Swiss Colony wines were produced in California's sunny Sonoma Valley. And for sixty years since, the Colony's founders and their sons after them, have upheld that original standard of excellence.

Today, this 60-year tradition finds expression in the fine body, bouquet, and flavor of COLONY SPECIAL WINES. Truly superb wines at a popular price. Wines you can serve with pride, but without extravagance.
