Curry's

ONLY a very small percentage of the women in the world can make personal visits to the Helena Rubinstein Water Lily Cleansing Cream in New York City. So, to make one of the most important treatments available to everybody, the Rubinstein Salon has put out the Beautifit Masque. And you can give yourself a luxurious salon Masque treatment at home. To use it, you fit over your face a specially treated pale pink silk jersey, designed to the basic muscle structure of the face. This is the Beautifit Masque. It must be dipped into the special tightening Beautifit Lotion before it is fitted over the face and throat. An adjustable nose piece is provided for eye lines.

Wear it while you take a bath, read or work around the house.

All the time you'll feel the exhilarating "lift" effect... double chin, flabby throat, relaxed facial muscles all respond to the treatment.

It Works Wonders

When you untie the masque, you'll notice that the look of weariness has gone from your face. Your complexion is smoother. And repeated treatments once or twice a week, will iron out expression lines from nose to mouth, around your eyes and on your forehead.

The Beautifit Masque and Lotion are $5.00. And an extra large Lotion refill is $2.50.

But for the full treatment... With Herbal Cleansing Cream, to cleanse and stimulate your skin, and Eau Verte, to stimulate it more. The Beautifit Masque and Lotion, and Twin Night Cream No. 2. You should get the complete treatment set, which is $10.00.

Helena Rubinstein products are available at Curry's For Drugs.

Garcelon's

WEDNESDAY when I was in Garcelon's I found Pat Livingston getting ready to put up a banner that read: "England Delivers the Goods". Which, she told me, meant that the store has just received another big shipment of Spode.

Garcelon's has about a dozen different patterns of Spode. And the nice thing about getting it here is that you can pay for it while you use it.

She's fixing up a beautiful window. Showing all the different patterns of Spode set for a table, with harmonizing silverware and glassware.

Beauty Shop

SOME of my friends have gotten the idea that the only permanent Medical-Dental Beauty Shop gives is the Creme Oil machineless wave. Well, it isn't. Ruby Engel told me the other day that she still has a special price on Mondays for the wonderful Oil of Redwood permanent. It's usually $5.00, but on Mondays it's only $3.50.

The Creme Oil machineless wave, which reconditions the hair while it waves, is $5.00 all the time.

The shop's phone number is 3448. It's located in back of the barber shop on the main floor.

Spring Dance Slated At Reames Saturday

One of the gayest affairs of the week will be the spring dance to be given by members of Reames Golf and Country club at the clubhouse this coming Saturday night. Herb Cochran's orchestra will play and supper will be served at midnight. Dancing will start at 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerber are chairman of the dance, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Medford and Mr. and Mrs. J. Royal Shaw.

Hudson seal is dyed muskrat fur.

Saturday is the first day of the half price sale on Helena Rubinstein's Water Lily Cleansing Cream. The cool, light textured cream that is made for Summer use. During the sale you get the regular $2.00 size for $1.00. I'll write more about it next week.

It's April

WHAT a country! But it keeps you from getting bored with the weather. And then you can always find something interesting to talk about concerning the weather in the Klamath country. In many places, people weather-talk because there isn't anything else to say.

Wednesday morning I bought a new pair of shoes. They were so cute I wore them out of the store into the beautiful sunshine. But April Fool! By noon the rain was coming down in great splashes, so I opened up the package containing my old pumps and changed shoes. Then in the afternoon when I came downtown again, I kept my old shoes on. And I was sorry!

Thursday morning dawned bright and warm. But did I trust the weather? No. I wore my old shoes. April Fool again.

It's getting near the end of April, however.

East Side Appliances

ONE nice thing about going to a new store. Or one that has put in completely new departments. Is that all the merchandise is the newest and latest in style.

You'll find that's true at East Side Appliances which added furniture, rugs, bedding and such things about six weeks ago. Everything is the most modern available. There's no stock left over from last year or two years ago, because the store didn't carry home furnishings at that time.

East Side Appliances carries Fashion Flow furniture. Which is famous all over the country even if it is made in Portland. It is beautifully made, with massive construction and flowing lines. The kind that is very, very popular now.

For Modern Homes

You'll find dining room suites for the small home at this store, too. Most dining rooms are so small that they can't accommodate the big tables and wide buffets of most sets. I saw dining room, suites at East Side Appliances that are just the thing for the smaller homes of today. Both modern and period designs. Larger ones, too, of course.

And if you're looking for a davenport-bed, and don't like what you've seen, don't forget that East Side Appliances carries the famous Davenola. Which looks just like a big, massive davenport and makes up into a big bed.

And now I hear that sales of beach clothes and play togs so far this year have greatly exceeded sales by this time last year. That's for the whole United States.

Gossamer-thin jersey is expected to be very popular for afternoon dresses this coming Summer. It takes shirring beautifully and drapes in a most flattering way.

OREGON VIEWS EXTRA SESSION OVER DEFENSE

SALEM, April 24 (P)—There is a strong possibility that the Oregon legislature will hold a special session within the next year to consider defense legislation, Speaker of the House Robert S. Farrell Jr., said today after returning from a vacation trip to Washington, D. C.

"If the country gets much closer to war," Farrell said, "Oregon probably would have to adopt defense legislation in order to cooperate with the federal government. Several congressional leaders said they believed a special session of the Oregon legislature, as well as legislatures of other states, would be necessary."

The next regular session will be in January, 1943.

Farrell said the 18-member industrial development committee, authorized by the recent legislature, might have a report ready within the next year. The committee will study methods of attracting new industries to Oregon, and will attempt to learn whether Oregon taxes have influenced some industries in going to Washington state.

"If the committee has a good program that would result in new industries locating in Oregon," Farrell said, "the logical thing to do would be to hold a special session to adopt the committee's recommendations. Then we could start as soon as possible on our campaign to get new industries."

President of the Senate Dean H. Walker and Farrell were busy today working on interim committees, including the industrial development committee. Personnel of these committees will be announced in a few days.

STATE DEPUTY OF KC TO VISIT HERE

State Deputy T. A. Windishar of the Oregon jurisdiction of the Knights of Columbus, will make an official visit to Klamath Falls Sunday, May 27, announced Otto J. Smith, state treasurer of the K.C. The occasion will be that of a jointly sponsored program for conferring the major degree of the order, in which the councils of Bend, Medford, Lakeview and Klamath Falls are participating. Accompanying Windishar on this trip will be Special Agent A. L. Elvin, representing the insurance division of the Supreme Office Knights of Columbus.

Britons Grumble at Recent Setbacks in Balkan Area

By HARRY L. PERCY
United Press Correspondent

LONDON, Thursday, April 24 (UP)—Newspapers and the people of Britain generally today were grumbling at British setbacks in the Balkans and Greece. Increasingly vigorous demands were being made for a clear explanation from the government.

King George VI and Prime Minister Winston S. Churchill had a long conference in Buckingham palace yesterday as the capital heard reports the British expeditionary force in Greece might try to escape to Crete and other islands of the Aegean sea.

The position of the government, however, did not appear to be one of imminent peril since Churchill indicated in commons Tuesday he would make a statement about the situation as soon as it had been clarified by more complete reports from the men in charge.

With opposition definitely developing in parliament it was believed the prime minister would hold his own, at least for a time, against attacks by such veteran campaigners as David Lloyd George, liberal; former War Minister Leslie Hore Belisha, liberal national; Emmanuel Shinwell, laborite, and the Earl of Winton, conservative.

All these statesmen were believed whetting their knives for the prime minister but it was not believed their opposition would assume dangerous proportions for at least a month, unless new disasters hit the nation.

As for the people generally they were beginning to realize the forces of the empire probably will be compelled to quit Greece sooner than expected because of the collapse of the Greek northern army.

And the news came as a shock, followed by noticeable anger. The traditional man-in-the-street was demanding to know why allied plans again had failed particularly in view of Churchill's announcement at the start of the Balkan campaign the government had "complete confidence" in the plans of the general staff.

It was admitted, too, that dissatisfaction was spreading throughout the empire. Especially in Australia the position of Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies' government was reported gravely endangered on the grounds Australian home authorities were not consulted before Australian forces were sent from Africa to Greece.

STOP FOREST FIRES WEEK PLANS MADE

"Stop Forest Fires Week" will start in Klamath county May 5, it was announced Thursday by Angus Newton, commander of the American Legion post. He stated that Walter Wiesendanger will again be chairman of the committee in charge of this campaign.

Newton said he plans to attend a meeting Monday in Portland, called by Governor Sprague for the purpose of discussion of national defense as it affects forests and forest fire protection.

The Klamath post, which started the Stop Forest Fires campaign, has watched the movement to grow into national recognition among American Legionnaires, Newton pointed out.

"Klamath is justly proud of having been the starting point for this program," said Newton. "It has been growing every year. This year, more than ever, there is a need for public concern over the forest fire menace. The forests are a national defense resource and it follows that their

SENIORS TO DANCE ON FRIDAY NIGHT

On Friday, April 25 the students and faculty of the Interstate Business college are sponsoring a dance for the seniors of the Klamath county high schools and surrounding communities at the ball room of the Willard hotel. All the seniors and former students of Interstate Business college have been mailed invitations which they will be required to show at the door. An invitation will admit a senior and a friend.

The management of the college believes that this dance will give the seniors of the Klamath basin an opportunity to become acquainted, and at the same time afford them an evening of pleasant entertainment. The dance will become an annual affair if the seniors this year show sufficient interest. It is to be a "hey! hey! dance" with calico dresses and cords or overalls the rule, and the most appropriately dressed girl will be crowned the "Calico Queen" by Mayor Houston. Emil Buzaid's five-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

If any senior in the basin or former student of the college, did not receive an invitation, he may call at the college for one.

KLAMATH PARALYSIS CONTRIBUTION SENT

A check for $804, exactly one-half the returns of the President's Birthday ball, and March of Dimes campaign on February 1, was mailed to the National Foundation for the Prevention of Infantile Paralysis on Tuesday of this week by Samuel P. Miller, dance chairman.

Miller stated the gross take of the dance and March of Dimes was $1887.58, expenses totaled $279.57, and the net proceeds came to $1608.01.

Champion Named In Crochet Test

PORTLAND, Ore., April 24 (UP)—Relentless drive and a technique polished by 30 years of practice carried Mrs. Peter Barta to victory in Portland's first major league crocheting contest Saturday.

She won the title of "Lady Nimble-Fingers," and a $25 prize, by crocheting a total of 81 scallops in the allotted time to 75 by Barbara Bracanovich, her nearest rival.

A field of 109 women and one male, Albert Schuchbach, competed. Not one of the women in the contest uttered a sound but Schuchbach put his feet on a chair and chatted freely, he finished far down in the field, with 52 scallops.

LEGION WORKS FOR ARMY ENLISTMENT

An "all-out" campaign in cooperation with Oregon's "To the Colors" committee for the purpose of promoting enlistments for the regular army in Oregon was announced here today by Angus W. Newton, commander of the Klamath Falls American Legion post No. 8. The local recruiting program is to be a part of the state-wide campaign put on by various civic organizations to assist the army recruiting service.

Legion organizations throughout the state of Oregon are participating in the campaign. Newton said, with the burden of the effort resting upon the various national defense committees. Principal phase of American Legion activity will be to report the names of all prospective eligible applicants for enlistment in the regular army to personnel of the regular recruiting service.

The movement has strong backing from department headquarters of the Legion in Portland, with a recent communication.
