

K. F. STUDENTS AT UNIVERSITY WIN POSITIONS

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, April 28 — Three University of Oregon students from Klamath county have been elected officers of university organizations. They are Margaret De Bolt, Morry Stein and Len Surles, all of Klamath Falls.

Surles has been elected house manager of Sigma Chi fraternity at the university. He is a graduate of Bend high school and is a major majoring in physical education. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Surles.

Stein has been elected president of Pi Beta Phi sorority at the university. She is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and is a junior majoring in business administration. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Stein.

Miss De Bolt has been elected president of Pi Beta Phi sorority at the university. She is a graduate of Klamath Union high school and is a junior majoring in science. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank De Bolt.

Lester Thayer and Al Samples, both of Klamath Falls, have been appointed house deputies for their living organizations to try to keep the sophomore whistler-growing spree "open and above board" at the University of Oregon.

For 19 days preceding the annual sophomore Whiskerino dance, sophomore men tuck away their shaving mugs and razors to start the competitive whisker growth. The whiskers will be judged at the dance for the most luxuriant crop. House deputies will report any sophomore man who shaves before the Whiskerino and necessary disciplinary measures will be taken.

Thayer, a graduate of Klamath Union high school, is a sophomore majoring in business administration. He is the son of Mrs. Edna Hastings and is affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Samples, a graduate of Henley high school, is a sophomore majoring in physical education. He is the son of C. C. Samples.

Lilliam Davis, Klamath Falls, was among the students at the University of Oregon to write articles for the March issue of the Junior Historical Journal.

The students wrote the articles as part of regular class work under C. V. Boyer, dean of the college of arts and letters, F. G. Black, assistant professor of English, and C. A. Fee and R. V. Mills, instructors of English.

The fourteen articles comprise practically the entire current "transportation" issue of

40 at 8 to Plan Meet at Redding

Paul Bunyan, Volture No. 222 of the 40 at 8 will hold its regular monthly meeting at the American Legion hall on Wednesday, April 30, at 8 p. m. Plans are being made to hold a "wreck" with Shasta Volture No. 1203 at Redding, on May 31, in connection with a drum and bugle corps contest to be held there. Quite a few Legionnaires and 40 at 8ers are planning on attending from here, and it is understood that Klamath's champion corps will compete again this year.

All Voyageurs are urged to be present at Wednesday's meeting.

WILSON TO HEAD LAKEVIEW ROTARY

LAKEVIEW—At a meeting of the recently elected board of directors A. B. Wilson, local manager of the California Public Service company, was elected to serve as president of the Lakeview Rotary club for the coming year. Dave DeArmond, local sawmill owner, was elected to serve as vice president. Rev. J. M. B. Gill was unanimously re-elected to serve as secretary and Walter Dykeman will serve as treasurer.

Other members of the board of directors who will serve for the coming year are Phil Schulte, Will Vernon, Fred Reynolds and Judge Arthur D. Hay. Outgoing officers were Gordon Smith, president, Fred Reynolds, vice president; Rev. J. M. B. Gill, secretary; A. B. Wilson, treasurer; and Clifton Howard, Dr. W. P. Chisholm, A. J. Ousley and C. F. Snider, directors.

Klamath Officer to Take Part in Survey

EVANSTON, Ill., April 28—Two policemen-students of the Northwestern University Traffic Institute will begin a two-week survey Monday of the traffic control and accident prevention methods used by the Des Plaines, Ill., and Park Ridge, Ill., police departments.

The men are Sergeant J. J. Mawhinney of Ardmore, Pa., and Patrolman Thomas P. Judge of Klamath Falls, Ore. Sergeant Mawhinney is attending the Traffic Institute on a fellowship granted by the James S. Kemper Foundation for Traffic Police Training, Chicago.

This field work is designed to give the Institute students an opportunity to see in practice the methods and theories taught to them in the classroom and to test their ability to make sound recommendations for program improvement.

The Journal. Selections by Sam Simpson and Joaquin Miller, Oregon writers, are also included.

Bees Foil Work On Tank Car

PORTLAND, April 28 (AP)—A tank car from Salem pulled onto a siding and railroad yard workmen began filling it with water.

Almost immediately they fled. For faster than water poured into the car, pugnacious bees swarmed out.

Work came to a standstill in the yards until a bee fancier was called to take them—all 10 pounds of them—away.

WHAT NO CORPSE? HARRISBURG, Pa., April 28 (AP)—Mrs. Laura Cooper is in good health but she won't be for long if undertakers don't stop knocking at her door and asking for her "dead" body.

It's all very nerve-racking, she says, even though obviously the work of a practical joker. The first time a hearse arrived was bad enough. The second time was worse, but the pay-off came when a florist delivered a huge wreath tagged "from husband."

Chemult

CHEMULT—Ralph Hask was a Bend visitor Tuesday, April 22.

The former Al's Grocery store has been bought by J. W. Damon. The store is now open for business.

Lorraine Richardson, former waitress for Joe Bellevance, has returned to Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Taylor of Salinas, Calif., are visiting his relatives at the Porter hotel.

Mary Thompson, president of the Gilchrist 4-H club, was chosen as a delegate for the demonstration given in Klamath Falls Thursday. Beverly Damschen was her teammate.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zumbrun of Fort Klamath were Chemult visitors Thursday.

Dr. Fogelquist, Winton Livingstone, Frankie Anderson and Joy Jackson went to Fort Klamath and Klamath Falls Tuesday.

Tommy Riley was a Bend visitor Thursday and Friday.

Joe Bellevance has purchased an ice cream cabinet. It was installed Saturday by the Eugene Farmer's Creamery.

In order to save the pilot's eyes from glare, soft fluorescent lighting is used to illuminate the instrument panel of army planes. Luminous paint is applied to instrument dials, and the invisible fluorescent light causes the paint to glow.

THE SPIRIT OF 76

by JOHN CLINTON

I like to remember my dad. He was a pink-faced chap with curly white hair, and the neatest, except on Saturday afternoons!

Saturday was our grassing day, and he'd disappear under our old 1911 Ford with a can of gas and a little wood paddle to fill the grease cups. Then for an hour or two the air was filled with snatches of hymns, eastwards and westwards. We had a swell time. But oh boy! You should have seen him when he emerged!

My dad would have liked Stop-Wear Lubrication that today you can get at any Union Oil station. Particularly since dad liked things he could see or hear or feel. And it happens you can do all 3 when Union Minute Men give you a car a Stop-Wear Lubrication.

You can see the difference in the way the old bus shoves when the boys bring it back—glass bright, tires and running boards dressed, interior cleaned out neat as a pin. And you can feel the difference in the way it rides, shifts and steers.

And finally, you can hear the difference. Not a squeak, rattle or noise. The whole thing's about as satisfactory as anything I've ever tried.

Well, as I say, I think dad would have liked Stop-Wear Lubrication, even if it would have prevented him from having himself a lot of fun Saturday afternoons. And, finally—if you've never tried Stop-Wear Lubrication, you're missing something. Drive in to or telephone your nearest station, and see what I mean.
