

Officers Installed At Annual Meeting

Neighbors of Woodcraft Honor Grand Officers
At Luncheon, Banquet Given Friday

Neighbors of Woodcraft held their annual meeting Friday, April the twenty-fifth, when a four-course noon luncheon was served at the KC hall, prepared by Mrs. Stella Dryden, Mrs. Mamie Stenness, Mrs. Ellen Ely and Mrs. Stella Persell. Tables were decorated in red, white and green, the color of the order. Covers were laid for nineteen and during luncheon a round-table discussion was held.

A six o'clock banquet was held in the Lutheran church on Crescent avenue with ninety-four present. Rev. L. K. Johnson gave the invocation and Mr. C. O. Dryden acted as toastmaster. Talks on the good of the order were given by Grand Guardian Neighbor Minnie Hiner of Portland and Mrs. Stella Persell, guardian neighbor of Klamath Falls.

The banquet was followed by adjournment to the Legion hall for a program that opened with the seating of the officers and guards. A welcome was presented to the visitors by Mrs. Persell, after which the meeting was turned over to Senior Guardian Stella Dryden. The juveniles were seated after flag ceremonies and singing of "God Bless America." Catherine Kruger played the march for the juveniles floral drill when they were escorted the grand guardian neighbor, Minnie Hiner, to her chair. Patsy Ruth Miller sang the juvenile welcome song.

The program included a skit, "The King with the Terrible Temper," presented by the juveniles; a piano solo by Catherine Kruger; a recitation, Patsy Ruth Miller; a reading, Marguerite Grove; a skit, "Shanty Town," by the juveniles; two musical numbers by Thomas Hancock; a piano solo, Vera Louise Barnhart.

The installation ceremony began with the welcome song by Mrs. Elizabeth Sanders, accompanied by Mildred Smith, during which flowers were presented by officers, and the officers and guards. The flag drill was given and the group sang "The Star Spangled Banner." Mrs. Stella Dryden was presented with a gift by the juveniles and their mothers.

The officers installed included Guardian Neighbor Stella Persell, Past Guardian Neighbor Effie Redkey, Advisor Sylvia Brannon; Magician Ruth Daw, Clerk Dicky Weed, Banker Ida Mochter, Attendant Gladys Nelson, Inner Sentinel Ellen Ely, Outer Sentinel Mildred Largent, Captain of Guards Mildred Smith, Flag-bearer Mary Blackstone, Managers C. O. Dryden, Hilbert B. Largent and Eva Richardson. Correspondent and Senior Guardian Neighbor Stella Dryden, Physicians Sarah Smith and J. M. Cronin.

The grand guardian neighbor was presented with a gift from Ewauna circle by Mrs. Persell and officers. Meredith Ezell was escorted to the camp fire and presented with a past guardian jewel and bouquet of red carnations by Dicky Weed. Stella Persell was escorted to the camp fire and presented with a floral bouquet by Ellen Ely.

Talks on the good of the order were presented by Mrs. Hiner, Elma Stenness, grand representative of Ashland, and Mrs. Kerr of Tulelake, past district guardian neighbor.

In observance of the forty-fourth birthday of Woodcraft, a large decorated cake was presented to the group and Mrs. Hiner was given the honor of blowing out the candles. Cake and coffee were served with Pearl Boye and Mamie Stenness presiding at the coffee table.

Those on the committee that arranged the affair were Stella Dryden, chairman, Mamie Stenness, Pearl Boye, Stella Persell and Ellen Ely.

SHOWER GIVEN BRIDE-ELECT WEDNESDAY

A pre-nuptial party and miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Mildred Wheeling and Mr. Olin Brooks at the home of Miss Lois Nott, Wednesday evening, April the thirtieth. After an evening of games, the bride-to-be opened the many lovely gifts which were received. Following this refreshments were served to the guests by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ray Nott and Mrs. Frank Snyder.

Those honoring the young couple were Miss Frances Jeffrey, Miss Catherine Mayhew, Miss Marguerite Brown, Mrs. L. K. Johnson, Miss Jean Crow, Miss Myrtle Russell, Miss Doris Yantis, Miss Roberta Alexander, Miss Pauline Alexander, Miss Lillian Baker, Miss Annabeth Paschal, Mrs. Frank Snyder, Mrs. Ray Nott, Mrs. Wallace Wheeling, Mr. Bill Hurn, Mr. Jim Gwin, Mr. Warren Dean Henry, and the hostess, Miss Lois Nott.

MALIN — Miss Marguerite Tappen, Malin, became the bride Friday afternoon, April the twenty-fifth, of Mr. Kenneth Wisner, also of Malin at an informal ceremony at St. Luke's Lutheran church in Reno. The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dalton, Merrill. They will make their home on the W. C. Dalton ranch on the state line where the groom is employed.
