

Fishin' Fun

By WALTON IZAAK

The big question nowadays isn't, what's new? Or what do you think about the war? But, where is there any fishing?

Fishing prospects for this weekend are tough. Our suggestion would be to stay close to home and give the UPPER LAKE and its tributaries a good workout. There should really be some good fishing in and around Rocky Point. Gus Johnson tells me that some nice fish are being caught in HARRISMAN CREEK, just below the lodge on jigger wobblers. I predict that bait fishing with cluster eggs will be good.

Last weekend the KLAMATH RIVER was the best that it has been in months. Most of the fish taken were caught on 1/0 and 2/0 bucktail flies.

EAST LAKE has been very spotty. The road is in about the same condition as last week with chains a necessary piece of equipment. The fish taken have, with few exceptions, been caught on worms. A small double spinner backed with a worm seems to coax out the larger ones.

PAULINA LAKE shows little signs of improving. Some nice size fish have been taken on ford fenders 2-tone with worms.

ODELL LAKE has fallen off. A few fish are being caught with trollers and some late p. m. fishing with flies.

Incidentally, after about 6 p. m. the fishing seems to get better at EAST LAKE.

FISH LAKE hasn't responded very well this week. The fish caught are small and bait the only sure fire system.

The small streams and creeks in the vicinity are all high and fishing is away off. Anyone attempting to fish any of the streams or creeks in this vicinity should rely solely on single eggs or worms, with the possible exception of the Klamath river.

Don't forget to take a boy fishing. We have shown evidence through pictures and the printed word the good that can be done, besides being an outing for the boy.

Cooperate with the local drive to help prevent forest fires by starting right now to be careful. Remember 90 per cent of the fires started are through carelessness and are man-made. The problem then is really in our hands.

We who use the forest for our recreation and pleasure can in a big way help by being watchful and careful.

Feller Drops Ballgame to Browns, 9-6

By United Press

The St. Louis Browns defeated Bobby Feller for the first time since 1938 with a 9-6 victory over the Cleveland Indians in the only game played Friday in the major leagues.

Only other games scheduled—Detroit at Chicago in the American league and Boston at Philadelphia in the National—were rained out.

Feller had won five straight before he met the Browns who handed him his worst beating of the season. Feller was belted for seven runs and eight hits, including three doubles and a triple in 3-1-3 innings. He walked four and fanned one.

Vernon Kennedy went the route for the Browns, gave up eight hits and scored his second victory of the season against three defeats.

The loss trimmed the Indians' lead to two games over the idle Yankees.

Complete Mat Card Bared

Promoter Mack Lillard Saturday announced the balance of his card for next Tuesday's armory wrestling show.

Supporting the Chick-Johnson main event will be dangerous Dan McShain, mauler of sports who last week dropped his Pacific coast junior heavyweight championship, and Gil Knudsen, Norwegian grappler, in the middle event.

For the opener, Lillard has lined up two new faces and terrors. Vic Hill, 210-pound Tacoma wrestler, will clash with Jim "Dutch" Heffner, a rough Texan from the region of Dallas.

Pelicans Open State Play

Locals Face Bend On Elks Grounds

Sanders Believes Title Hopes Will Depend On Hurling; Davis May Start

A 15-man Pelican baseball squad, anxious to test its potential 1941 diamond strength, inaugurates the season's Oregon State league slate on one of three fronts when it engages the Bend Elks at Bend Sunday afternoon. Toledo meets Eugene at the latter city while Albany takes on Medford in other Sabbath day openers.

Manager Red Sanders reported following Friday's practice session that he was well satisfied with his boys and believed that with some good pitching the Pelicans would be among the contenders for the title.

Sanders disclosed Saturday morning that he would probably start Orin Davis, the big right-hander signed Thursday, against the Elks. Davis is a former Western International league performer, reportedly having hurled for Salem and Vancouver.

Sanders stated that his newest moundman has had plenty of work this year and is ready for immediate action.

Warren Wahner, peppery little receiver signed recently, will draw the backstop assignment if Davis goes to the hillcock. Lawrence Granger will be seen behind the plate if Carlstrom goes to the mound. Possibly both of the Pelican catchers will get a workout during the course of the afternoon.

With two left-handed hitting first basemen in Paul Crapo and Anthol Riney available for duty at the initial sack, Manager Sanders was still uncertain Saturday which one he would start Sunday. Both are good hitters, but Carl Read, regular Pelican rightfielder, will get the first base job, Sanders intimated, if Bill Hatch or any other southpaw opens on the mound for the Bend contingent.

Three outfielders Second base will be capably handled by Ernie Bishop, ex-Pioneer league keystone performer, while Arland "Babe" Schwab, former Portland Beaver infielder, will be stationed at third base. The ex-Whitman college baseball star, Don Jones, will open at shortstop. Jack Lloyd and Earl Brooks, infielders who played for the Klamath Red Sox and the Dorris Lumberjacks the past several seasons, are competent reserves for three inner defense positions, second, third or short.

Only three men, Paul Bernado, Marshall Eyston and Carl Read, are listed as outfielders on the Pelican traveling squad for Sunday's game. However, other members of the local team such as Carlstrom, Wahner, Riney and Lloyd have had experience in the outer gardens and can be shifted to outfield positions if necessary. Bernado, a former Klamath Red Sox infielder, is slated for the left field position. Another Klamathite, Eyston, who once held an outfield spot with last year's state league champions, Albany, will open in centerfield. Read, the ex-San Diego Padre baseballist, is scheduled to start in rightfield.

The Bend Elks loom as a strong club, and if the locals score a victory Sunday they will have gotten away to a flying start in their bid for a first division berth. Reports from the Deschutes country indicate that the Elks have recently signed some new players to strengthen their team.

Newest recruit appears to be Joe Volk, former Washington high school of Portland player, who is an outfielder. Jack Gordon, brother of Joe Gordon of New York Yankee fame, is the Bend third baseman.

Battery for the Elks will be either Southpaw Bill Hatch or Lyle Turpin, once Klamath Red Sox hurler, on the mound and Merle Nehl behind the plate, according to Manager Clyde Stokoe.

The Pelican baseball club will leave for Bend by automobile from Molitor's cafe at 8 a. m. Sunday. Game time is set for 2 p. m.

NIBC Bowlers Near End Of Meet; Knapp In Singles Lead

PORTLAND, Ore., May 10 (AP)—Bowlers neared the end of 10 days and nights of pin-pummeling in the Northwestern International and Women's Western Bowling congresses today.

The annual tournaments finish tomorrow and bowlers were pouring into town for the heavy-lift day of the meets.

Marks for them to shoot at grew higher. Stanley Knapp, Oakland, Calif., jumped into the lead in the men's open division

How Not To Ride in a Hurdle Race

Frank H. Powers Jr., up on Rhadamanthus, and leading in the national Hunt cup race at Berwyn, Pa., up to this point at the fourteenth jump, finds himself looking the other way and on the way down. His mount stumbled coming up to the jump and Powers was jolted out of the saddle.

Tigers Drop Deeper Into WIL Cellar

By The Associated Press

The cellar-dwelling Tacoma Tigers were deeper in the hole today in the Western International Baseball league after a 15-hit assault last night on their home field by the leading Spokane Indians.

Spokane pounded three Tacoma pitchers for a 10 to 1 victory, with tight of the runs being scored in the first four innings off Paul "We Want Elmer" Smith, Tacoma hurler.

At Yakima, the second-place Pippins edged-out Salem, 3 to 2, in a pitchers' duel. Salem held a 2 to 1 lead up until the last of the eighth inning when Bill Johnson of Yakima, cracked out a double with the bases loaded to score the tying and winning run.

In Vancouver, B. C., Red Adams allowed Wenatchee 11 hits but they were so well placed the Chiefs took a 9 to 3 defeat. Adams also provided plenty of hitting power for Vancouver, getting two doubles and a single.

Last night's results, left Salem and Wenatchee tied for third place in the league.

Pelican Net Team Downs Medford, 7-0

Coach Al Sinclair's Pelican tennis team Friday afternoon achieved what the squad's followers had believed was impossible when they walloped the Medford five, 7-0, on the local courts.

In their last meeting in the valley, the Tigers plastered KUHS, 6-1.

Results: Stride and Swanson (K) defeated Cooley and Pope (M) 7-0, 6-4, 6-2. Love and Brothers (K) defeated Smith and Clemans (M) 6-4, 6-1. Swanson (K) defeated Pope (M) 4-6, 6-1, 6-0. Stride (K) defeated Cooley (M), 6-2, 6-2. Love (K) defeated Smith (M) 3-6, 6-1, 7-5. Brothers (K) defeated Clemans (M) 6-4, 6-2, 6-1. Hamm (K) defeated Jones (M) 5-7, 6-4, 9-7.

Mrs. Lawler New Women's Pin Leader

Mrs. Esther Lawler, 1940-41 president of the women's Ladybug bowling league, is the new president of the Klamath Falls Women's Bowling association, it was announced Saturday.

Mrs. Lawler succeeds Mrs. Bernice Britt.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Vera Chase, vice president, and Mrs. Edith Bray, sergeant-at-arms. Mrs. Leda Gardner and Mrs. Fern Sullivan held the offices last year.

Atherton Ruling Hits Klamathites

Kenneth Wilson Ineligible at OSC; Bill Rush Out at Oregon, Corvallis

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10 (UP)—Edwin N. Atherton, Pacific Coast conference athletic commissioner, Friday night declared 23 freshmen students at Stanford, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington and Washington State ineligible for athletic competition on grounds they were recruited and subsidized by their universities in violation of conference regulations.

Hardest hit by the decree were Stanford and University of Oregon. They each will lose eight freshmen. One of Stanford's heaviest losses will be Bill Joslyn, co-captain of Lowell high school's championship San Francisco football team of two years ago.

Oregon State loses three, University of Washington two, and Washington State four.

Atherton listed the schools, their ineligibilities and offenses as follows:

University of Oregon — Ingward (Inky) Boe, football, Milwaukee, Ore.; Laurence Casper, football, Blaine, Wash.; Bartholomew Gianelli, football, Everett, Wash.; William Gissberg, basketball — baseball, Everett, Wash.; Laurence Olson, football — baseball, San Francisco; Robert Sheridan, basketball — baseball, Portland, Ore.; William Rush, football, Klamath Falls, Ore.

The first six are enrolled at Oregon, Cummins at Washington, Rush at Oregon State; all recruited by Oregon alumni, including free surgery and hospitalization for Boe; John Warren, Oregon freshman coach, involved in cases of Gianelli, Gissberg, Cummins, Olson and Rush.

Oregon State—William Rush, football, Klamath Falls, Ore.; Kenneth Wilson, football, Klamath Falls; Ingward Boe, Milwaukee, Ore.; Laurence Casper, football, Blaine, Wash.; Bartholomew Gianelli, football, Everett, Wash.; William Gissberg, basketball — baseball, San Francisco; Robert Sheridan, basketball — baseball, Portland, Ore.; William Rush, football, Klamath Falls, Ore.

The veteran National leaguer and home run slugger came back today to the Los Angeles club, the team from which he graduated into the big time 11 years ago.

WALLY BERGER BACK TO COAST LEAGUE

LOS ANGELES, May 10 (AP)—Time and the Pacific Coast league have caught up with Wally Berger.

The general opinion seemed to be that the veteran, Ken Overlin was the winner of last night's 15-rounder in Madison Square garden, but the pay-off was on Soose.

NEW YORK, May 10 (AP)—Tongues still were wagging today along Broadway over the decision which overnight has made Billy Soose, the Farrell, Pa., college boy, mid-dleweight champion of the world in the sovereign states of New York, California, Virginia and some sections of the District of Columbia.

Soose, five for Overlin and one even.

Also, your quarterback must be a good all-around passer — long ones, short ones, spot passes, laterals.

After chalking out the offensive phases of the T formation, Jim endeavored to show the defense against it, but he said, "Don't expect me to give you any foolproof method of stopping it. We did about as well as anybody last year trying to stop it, but we fell down when some of our men failed in their execution."

He later transferred to Oregon normal and then to Pacific university at Forest Grove. At the latter school he played varsity basketball, making the trip to Kansas City with the Badgers for the 1940 inter-collegiate tournament. He was first string catcher for the Badgers during 1940.

Playing semi-pro ball with Gaston, Ore., last season, Wahner took part in the state semi-pro tournament at Silverton and Portland and was chosen one of the two all-state catchers selected at the close of the tournament.

Wahner was given a trial with the Portland Beavers near the close of the 1940 season and this spring worked out for a number of weeks with the Salem Senators of the Western International league.

State Prep Athletes Meet In District Competition

By The Associated Press

Oregon high school track athletes near the climax of their season today in seven district meets that will determine qualifiers for the annual state meet at the University of Oregon next weekend. A flock of high jumpers and a pair of the fastest youths in Oregon commanded most of the attention. In eastern Oregon Wally Still of Milton-Freewater, state 100-yard dash champion, tried for new district one records at La Grande.

A lad who runs three miles to school each day, Raymond Johnson, Medford, was the other fleet youngster. He sought a new 440-yard record in the district three meet at Medford.

In the east division of district two at Bend last night, Bend's Lava Bears broke three marks. Dave Coleman pole vaulted 11 feet 5 inches, Bob Anderson raced the quarter-mile in 53.4 seconds and Layton Ballard jogged the mile in 4:54.6 minutes. Bend scored 75 points, Redmond 44 and Prineville 5.
