Ask for It Now

NOW that the state highway engineers have revealed a definite plan for South Sixth street improvement, local people should spare no effort to induce the highway commission to authorize early construction on this heavily-traveled and hazardous artery.

Engineer R. H. Baldock has stated he will present the plan for a three-lane highway on South Sixth to the highway commission May 22. That is the time to make an appearance on behalf of immediate authorization from the highway board.

There is ample argument to justify the request. South Sixth has been a serious problem for years, and the volume of traffic there is unequaled on any similar artery in the state. State highway authorities long ago recognized the need for action there, and there can be little excuse for further delay.

The state highway engineer while here explained that South Sixth property holders will be expected to build the sidewalks in the space to be provided on the state highway right-of-way. Lack of sidewalks is one of the most hazardous factors on South Sixth street. Residential property owners, downtown business property owners, and others throughout this area have constructed sidewalks as development came their way. Certainly sidewalk construction cannot be justifiably delayed on South Sixth and the public, which is putting up the money for the three-lane highway, has a right to expect South Sixth property owners to do their part with sidewalk construction.

The immediate objectives on South Sixth should be to get the highway department busy on the highway construction and to get in those sidewalks. Traffic congestion and accident hazards will then be greatly relieved and the community can look with satisfaction on the solution of its most notorious traffic problem.

Pelican Baseball

THERE is still a lot of potential interest in hardball out in the bush league territory, and a strong local team in a strong league should go far in developing it.

Klamath appears to have such a team in the Pelicans, who are entered in the Oregon State league for the first time this year. Klamath's teams have played in Northern California and Southern Oregon leagues in past years, but never before in the state league, which offers a competitive situation which should arouse home town spirit. We're looking forward to an interesting baseball season hereabouts.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLOTT

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Hitler seems to be letting out the clutch for one of his familiar all-out propaganda rides on the Roosevelt government. The German short wave radio broadcasts have suddenly manifested tactics suspiciously similar to the type of campaigns they used against European adversaries. These show an intimate, catalogued knowledge of American political doings and are obviously the result of a methodical Nazi preparation as shrewdly devised as their military campaigns.

Some of the broadcasts are appealingly contrived in American slang with the poison slyly covered with good humor. Mr. Roosevelt is called "FDR," and American political figures frequently by their first names. References are even made to their wives and families. The whole thing hits the line of anti-Semitism (naming Jewish officials), encouraging rebellion against the tax bill, promising farmers European markets, slugging "FDR" and family.

MOVIE FILMS

FBI has simultaneously picked up information that Nazi films have been smuggled into this country from South America. One is designed to demonstrate the invincibility of the Nazi army. It is called "Victory in the West." Another is anti-Semitic. One copy of the military film was picked up somewhere abroad by the army and shown privately to our military officers months ago.

KEEPING WATCH

The government is somewhat disturbed by these and similar manifestations (circulation of pamphlets, scurrilous buttons, etc.) but for the present is just listening and reading. Even Hitler could not find an answer to short wave foreign broadcasts short of decreeing murder for his listeners. Of course there is no intention here of meeting the situation that way. The federal communications commission is making records of all the broadcasts. A special defense unit has been quietly created in the justice department to note overall Nazi propaganda. The post office department is burning all it can detect going through the mails, mainly importations from abroad printed in German and English. The domestic stuff is circulated mostly in hotel envelopes, or without identification.

HESS AFFAIR

One thing to keep in mind in reading these sizzling Hess developments is that neither London nor Berlin can be expected to tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth. They are at war. Even the parachuting Nazi politician himself occupies with the British the same relative position as Charlie McCarthy occupies with Mr. Bergen. He is in their lap.

Therefore, it may not be important that all sides here and in Europe deny a version which logically fitted the known facts. It is that Hitler dispatched his trustworthiest intimate with a serious peace proposal, under an arrangement whereby Hitler was to denounce Hess as hallucinated if no satisfactory answer came within 48 hours. The peace plan could have been roughly the same as carried in this column under date of May 6 with the prediction that it would shortly emanate from Nazi sources. That plan was based on German domination of Europe under a decentralized system providing nominal self-government for the Balkans, the Scandinavian countries as a group, with the British Isles, Canada and Australia to remain as is.

With this, Hess could have carried the threat that Britain

WHEAT NERVOUS AS SMALL GAIN MADE

CHICAGO, May 16 (AP)—Wheat prices were up a cent a bushel at one stage today but the market became nervous later due to a let-up in milling demand, optimistic crop reports and some uncertainty about the farm program. Quotations at one time were fractionally below the previous close but the market managed to finish with small net gains. Some brokers attributed the president's remarks at his press conference as indicating he will approve the 85 per cent of parity crop loan bill, upon which the recent sharp price rise has been based at a large extent, but there was no certainty about this.

Wheat closed unchanged to 1c higher compared with yesterday, May $1.00-99c, July 98c-1c, corn 1-1c up.

News Notes and Comment

By June Michelson

Commercial club members voted Thursday to buy a $15 bronze plaque upon which the name of the outstanding commercial student will be engraved each year. The outstanding student is to be chosen by the commercial instructors.

The group, which has over 100 members and is the largest club in school, also plans a skating party to be held at Poole's Roller-drome, Thursday night, May 22. The get-together will be a farewell party for the senior members.

Pauline Alexander is president of the club; Ruth Pinkston, advisor.

Andy Soule was elected chairman of the Traditions committee for next year after a rather informal initiation held Thursday night at the home of Frances Foster.

Eugene Love is the new vice chairman and Hazel Halferty the secretary-treasurer.

The history of the committee and suggestions for activities next year were included in the serious initiation. For the fun section, initiates munched on "Opal," a purty little gold fish, ate raw eggs and oysters and got as sick as possible under the circumstances.

Other new members include Jane Worthington, Marjorie Reynolds, Betty Jane Hallett, Audrey Reed, Keith McGilvray, Kenny Smith and Maurice O'Callaghan.

Mrs. Rachel Good is faculty advisor for the group.

At the last Girls' league meeting of the year, newly-elected officers were introduced. They are Dode Ellington, president; Phyllis Emigh, vice president; Johanne Siemens, secretary-treasurer, and Marjorie Botens, athletic manager. Gifts were presented to Principal L. B. Emery, Mrs. Alice Howard, G. L. advisor, Miss G. Karen Nielsen and Miss Ruth Pinkston. Janice Bubb, retiring president, received a pen from the league.

Virginia West sang two Spanish numbers, "Estrellita" and "La Paloma," accompanied by Mrs. Beulah Mushen. Janice Bubb read Dorothy Parker's "The Waltz."

Final examinations will begin Monday morning. The schedule has been announced as follows: Monday—9 to 10 o'clock; second period; 1 to 2 o'clock; third period; Tuesday—9 to 10; fourth period; 1 to 2; fifth period; Wednesday—9 to 10; sixth period; 1 to 2; first period.

A call for girls who want to be twirlers next year has been issued by Mr. Stanfield, director. Classes for those wishing to learn to twirl will be held this summer.

Word has just been received here that Helen Cox will be awarded a four-year honor scholarship to Pacific university. This is a $600 scholarship and is unusual as most scholarships are for one or two-year periods.

Caps and gowns were distributed to seniors Thursday morning in home room. The garments are to be worn at baccalaureate and commencement only.

H. O. Palmer's freshman home room had a party Thursday. The group consumed three cases of pop, several cakes, and three or four Dixie cups apiece. They probably won't feel up to another party for several days at least.

The following announcement appeared in the noon bulletin Thursday: "As the country schools will close this week, it will be necessary for all pupils riding part way on the country buses to make arrangements to meet the high school buses yourselves. Be sure to arrange with the driver of your bus, so that you will not be missed. High school bus drivers will probably not be able to go beyond their regular runs to pick up pupils next week. Remember that there are special bus schedules during the final examinations."

COLD FEET

ALBUQUERQUE, (AP)—A Pueblo Indian seeking aid in filling out his questionnaire told the draft board he once had frozen his feet.

"Very badly?" asked the interviewer.

"No, just a little."

"Do you think you should be placed in Class 1A?"

"No," was the reply. "I've got two artificial feet."
