

Klamath Maid Tells May Wedding Plans

Eleanor Donofrio To Become Bride of Leonard Loetterle in Ceremony May the Thirty-First

A number of interesting announcements were made by Klamath Falls maids during the past week, among them that of Miss Eleanor Donofrio who told friends of her approaching marriage to Mr. Leonard Loetterle of this city on Saturday, May the thirty-first in Portland.

The ceremony will be read in an eight o'clock evening service at the Columbia-Edgewater Country club with a reception to follow.

Miss Donofrio has asked her sister to be her maid-of-honor, and another sister, Gloria, and Miss Alyce Schneider, will be bridesmaids.

Best man will be Mr. John W. Danforth of Klamath Falls.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Donofrio of Portland and has been active in various organizations during her residence here. She has taught at Mills school for several years, served as secretary and treasurer of the Klamath Falls Grade School Teachers association, president of the Brownie Leaders association of the Girl Scouts, and an active member of Beta Sigma Phi sorority. Following her graduation from Franklin high school, Portland, Miss Donofrio studied at Southern Oregon College of Education.

Mr. Loetterle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Loetterle of Deshler, Nebraska. He has made his home here for the past year and is affiliated with General Motors. The young couple will make their home in this city.

SENIORS HONORED AT BANQUET

Two hundred and thirty-five graduating seniors of Klamath Union high school were honored at a banquet given by their mothers under the sponsorship of the Parents and Patrons club Wednesday evening, May 14, in the high school cafeteria.

The tables were beautifully decorated with numerous bowls of tulips. Large baskets of iris and lilacs were used about the room.

A program was given by the seniors and the class will read. The banquet closed with all seniors singing, "Klamath Memories."

Mrs. C. L. Sparks was general chairman. Mrs. Helen Mueller, assisted by Mrs. C. H. Foster, had charge of the kitchen and purchasing the food. Mrs. Harry Van had charge of the decorating and securing of flowers. Mrs. James Smith was in charge of the tables and serving. Miss Virginia West, senior class sponsor, took care of the program and reservations. Clifford Rowe's El Rodeo class made the attractive place cards, each having the seniors' photographs in cap and gown.

Fifty mothers of seniors worked on the banquet, which is the second to be given for a class of seniors.

SHOWER GIVEN AT CRAPO HOME
Complimenting Mrs. Robert G. Smith a shower was given Friday evening, May the ninth, by Mrs. J. L. Crapo. Bridge and pinocle were enjoyed during the evening and high scores were presented to Mrs. C. L. Kaler, Miss Audrey Edwards and Mrs. Raymond Brown.

The gifts were arranged under an attractively decorated parasol. The guests were Mrs. R. A. Brackman, Mrs. Joseph Lemen, Mrs. Barton Walts, Mrs. Raymond Brown, Mrs. C. L. Kaler, Mrs. W. E. Dodge, Mrs. C. W. Stanley, Miss Audrey Edwards, Miss Betty Bell, Miss Jessie Johnson, Miss Marion Stanley, the guest of honor and the hostess.

Mrs. M'Cullough to Address Group

Pasadena Flower Authority To Be Guest of Klamath Falls Organization May Twenty-Seventh

Flower lovers over the basin are invited to hear Mrs. Charles McCullough of Altadena, California, authority on flower arrangement and horticulture, during her visit here Tuesday, May the twenty-seventh. The meeting is sponsored by the garden study group of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club and will be held in the small library club rooms.

A paper sack and thermos luncheon is scheduled for half past twelve o'clock in library club rooms. Two o'clock Mrs. McCullough will speak and also make arrangements. Those wishing are asked to bring flowers and make arrangements which will be analyzed by Mrs. McCullough.

The visitor is a director of the Pasadena Flower show and has conducted classes in flower arrangement for some time. Her appearance at the state convention of Oregon Federation of Garden clubs in Grants Pass this week was the highlight of the session. Those who had the good fortune to hear her are exceptionally eager for her appearance here. With Mr. McCullough, she continued from Grants Pass to visit in Albany for a short time before returning south.

Those who wish to hear Mrs. McCullough may make reservations at the flower show here Saturday afternoon and evening. All women of the basin, interested in this subject, may attend.

BOOK REVIEW ON PROGRAM AT CLUB MEETING

Members of the Toastmistress club received instructions on how to conduct a book review at their Monday evening meeting held at Mrs. Nord's tea room.

With Mrs. Paul Buck presiding as toastmistress, an instructive review was held on "Gone With the Wind" by Margaret Mitchell, which most of the members had read.

Discussion during the dinner hour on "Should Tipping Be Abolished" was led by Mrs. Katherine Chidester, dinner chairman.

The club's next meeting will be held on May the twenty-sixth when a book review will be conducted and further plans will be discussed for the Shakespearean drama to be presented here in July by the club of which Mrs. Walter Brown is president.
