The movement through here will be part of the second biggest military migration in American history and the largest the far west has ever seen. It involves the 3rd and 41st divisions and special troops of the ninth army corps. While one column is moving through here, another will be moving down the Pacific highway.

It will involve a total of 35,000 men.

highways today, the 41st moving over Highway 7 and the 3d and 9th corps over the west route on highway 99.

The 41st will bivouac at Bend, Ore., tonight; the west column at Roseburg. As the 41st began departing from Vancouver, Wash., barracks this morning, the second serial of the division motorized unit was leaving Fort Lewis.

Similarly 3d division and 9th corps trucks began pulling out of the fort as their lead vehicles, which left yesterday, moved from the bivouac area at the Fallien fairgrounds. The trucks will continue to leave Fort Lewis until Friday, by which time 22,000 soldiers will be on the road south. Remainder of the fort's soldiers will go to the maneuvers on the Hunter Liggett reservation by train.

Only three minor accidents marred yesterday's travel, start of the largest military movement in the far west's history.

Within 15 minutes after pulling into bivouac, soldiers were erecting a city of pup tents. A gigantic refueling job followed, four trucks being filled at a time. By the time the troops have completed their round trip more than 6,000,000 gallons of gas will have been used.

6 P. M. Closing To Be In Force For Merchants

Closing of downtown stores at 6 p. m. next Saturday will be maintained despite the fact the manager of a Main street store has notified other business men he will not abide by the agreement for early closing signed two weeks ago.

Decision to maintain the 6 p. m. closing was reached at a meeting of the Klamath Retail Trade bureau Tuesday noon, when the matter was thoroughly discussed. The bureau a few weeks ago obtained signatures of all downtown merchants on a petition agreeing to close their doors at 6 p. m. on Saturdays to give their employes a fuller weekend.

It was stated at the meeting that the manager who now plans to keep his store open until late in the evening was one of those signing the agreement. He was quoted as having received orders from a superior in a distant city to keep the later hours in spite of the local understanding.

At the Tuesday noon meeting, a letter from the Buckaroo Days committee was read asking the Retail Trade bureau for financial support in putting on the three-day July celebration. The group unanimously voted against any campaign by the bureau to raise money from Klamath Falls merchants, but indicated that individually they would be willing to cooperate with the Buckaroo Days committee if they were asked to do so by the rodeo group.

PLANNERS SEEK LAND FOR NEW CEMETERY HERE

Members of the city planning commission looked over various pieces of property in the vicinity Tuesday afternoon with the view of purchasing land for a new cemetery. At a recent meeting of the commission need of a new cemetery was voiced when members were advised the present area was not adequate.

The parking problem came up for discussion again and J. A. Souther and Nick Long, members of the merchants' committee, suggested that vacant lots in the business district be investigated with the idea of utilizing these during shopping hours. It was also suggested that a survey be made among store and business house employes in order to learn whether or not employes were using space for all-day parking.

The idea of an aerial map for use by both the city and county was brought before the commission. Cost of such a map would be in the neighborhood of $500, however it is thought it would be of considerable value in the laying out of sub-divisions and keeping streets and roads in proper order.

The sub-division recently opened up by Cal Peyton and named, Summers park, was given approval by the commission.

THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You No. 29 of a Series

It's always the SORE thumb that sticks out...

Odd, isn't it—the way everybody notices the sore thumb?

It's the same way with the retailing of beer. Everybody knows about the one undesirable place...everybody seems to forget about the thousands of worthwhile retailers who operate clean, decent, law-abiding establishments.

To protect the good name of beer, we of the beer industry want the few... but noticeable... "black sheep" retailers eliminated.

That's not all. Such retailers endanger an industry that brings important economic benefits to the community. Right here in Oregon beer provides employment for 13,238 persons, supports an annual payroll of $11,541,550 and contributed $617,020.86 last year in state taxes.

This state, too, has an important stake in the beer industry's purchases—for materials, equipment, and services—from more than 100 other industries.

You can help us protect these benefits in two ways—by (1) patronizing only the law-abiding places where beer is sold and (2) by reporting any irregularities you may observe to the duly constituted authorities.
