

Spring Flower Show Success of Saturday

Largest Floral Exhibit Brings Many to Fremont School Auditorium as Club Year Closes

Blossoms were near perfection, arrangements were interesting and full of personality, as the annual spring flower show in the auditorium of Fremont school last Saturday was presented by the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club. It was, incidentally, the largest flower show given here, and one hundred and two entrants exhibited, one bringing as high as fifteen specimen entries and arrangements.

Much credit goes to Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, flower show chairman, and members of the various committees. Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver was tea chairman. Pouring were Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook, Mrs. R. R. Proebstel, Mrs. C. C. Kelley, and Mrs. F. W. Hamilton, past and present presidents of the Library club and garden study groups.

Honors went to Klamath county chapter, American Association of University Women when the arrangement made by Mrs. Harold Teale was given the title, "best in the show," by judges who found it difficult to name an outstanding arrangement in a score or more of top-notch entries.

Mrs. Teale chose bronze-purple iris which she arranged in a Japanese bowl of blending color with a figure which carried identical tones in the glaze. The arrangement was particularly lovely in the afternoon sunlight.

Following are the awards: Arrangements over eighteen inches in height: First, Miss Beverly Ricker; second, Mrs. Walter Zetzman; third, Mrs. A. H. Newton; honorable mention, Mrs. L. E. Kaup.

Basket of spring flowers over ten inches and under eighteen inches: First, Mrs. Bert Thomas; second, Mrs. L. E. Kaup; third, Mrs. W. D. Miller; honorable mention, Mrs. L. K. Phelps.

May Party Event of Week

Mrs. Whytal, Mrs. McPherrin Share Honors as Hostesses

One of the largest of late spring affairs was the tea given Saturday afternoon of this week from two o'clock until five o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. H. McPherrin in St. Francis park with Mrs. C. R. Whytal as co-hostess.

Greeting the guests with Mrs. McPherrin and Mrs. Whytal were four matrons who assisted about the rooms and also presided at the tea table, Mrs. Carl Kujac, Mrs. P. D. Schroeder, Mrs. A. P. Heup, and Mrs. Carl Schubert.

The tea table was beautifully arranged with a low bowl of pink and lavender sweet peas with tall pink candles in silver candlesticks completing the appointments. More than one hundred maids and matrons called during tea hours.

This affair is expected to be of unusual interest due to the fact that the Britt home, built in 1852 by the father of Miss Britt, is one of the showplaces of southern Oregon. The house has never been modernized and on display will be old furniture and glassware that will be well worth viewing, as well as the original camera and lenses used by Mr. Britt who owned the first photograph gallery in Jacksonville.

Members and friends of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, are invited to attend a silver tea to be held at the historic Britt home in Jacksonville on Sunday afternoon, May the twenty-fifth, between two and five o'clock when Miss Amelia Britt will be hostess.

Annual Pep Pepper Banquet Is Event

Jean Wiesendanger Receives Outstanding Award at Wednesday Evening Party in Willard

"Pep" and "Americanism" were the combination themes of the most attractive and best attended banquet ever given by the Pep Peppers of Klamath Union high school. Parents of the girls were honored guests at the dinner held Wednesday evening, May the twenty-first, at the Willard hotel.

The large banquet room was beautiful in the patriotic colors. High red letters spelled the words "Pep Peppers" the length of the white cloths. Place cards, red peppers mounted on white cards, were designed and made by Miss Merjle Elliott. Miniature red pepper candles were given to each senior girl.

Colorful gourds, collegiate pennants, and huge baskets of red tulips and calla lilies were used for the centerpiece.

Herb Cochran's eight-piece band furnished music throughout the evening. On the program were the Motley twins, Dale and Gale, who did a patriotic tap dance and Miss June Michelson who read the Pep Pepper prophecy entitled, "Girls, Show Them Your Red and White Supporters," or "Where Will We All Be Fifty Years From Now?"

Miss Patty Schupp, retiring Pep Pepper president, acted as toastmistress. Also at the head table were Principal and Miss Catherine Tomison, co-advisor; Mrs. O. E. Schupp, Miss Betty Knowlton, treasurer; and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Sweetman.

Miss Jean Wiesendanger was given the beautiful gold cup for being the outstanding Pep Pepper for the year. She has accumulated more points, during the year, than any other girl on record.

Miss Patty Schupp was presented with a piece of airline luggage, Miss Dorothy Schupp received an attractive clock and Miss Catherine Tomison a pair of figurines.

Officers, new and old, were introduced to the group. Miss Doris Weinberg is the incoming president; Miss Gloria Peterstetter, vice-president; Miss Louise Howie, secretary; and Miss Audrey Reed, treasurer. Old officers include: Miss Patty Schupp, president; Miss June Michelson, vice-president first term; and Miss Marjean Fennell, vice-president second term; Miss Frances Foster, secretary; and Miss Betty Knowlton, treasurer.

Miss Jerry Ann Denchle was social chairman in charge of the whole affair. There were one hundred and twenty-one guests present at this, the fifteenth annual Pep Peppers banquet.
