GEOLOGY CLUB AT LAKEVIEW FORMED

LAKEVIEW—Eighteen persons signed up to belong to a geology club, the organization of which was begun the evening of May 28 in Lakeview. Meetings were set for the second and fourth Mondays of each month, and the first of a series of field trips, a hunt for nodules up Dry creek on June 1, was scheduled. Carl Williams was elected president, Henry Saries, secretary and Walt Dykeman, treasurer. Horace Arment was appointed chairman of a committee to draft by-laws and adopt a name for the club.

Carl Williams outlined briefly the club's course of study, for which the text will be "Down to Earth," by Cronels and Krumbeln. S. G. and E. B. Hull of Twin Falls displayed specimens of agate and other semi-precious gems at the meeting, which was held in the laboratory of the high school in Lakeview.

Search for Lake Separates Couple In Summit Area

CASCADE SUMMIT—A bride and groom of six weeks became separated in the forest several miles southwest of here Sunday while on an exploring trip for a lake called "Midnight lake." Mr. and Mrs. Zumstein started out from Cruzate Sunday morning in search of the lake. Mrs. Zumstein, becoming tired from the trek through the forest which was through several inches of snow and over logs, sat down on a log to rest while her husband went on in search of the lake.

Zumstein became lost while searching for the lake and was unable to locate the place where he had left his wife.

Zumstein made his way to Cascade Summit where he organized a searching party of several men who scoured the woods in search of the bride. The party was led by Roy Temple who brought along a horn which could be heard for several miles. The party became alarmed for the safety of the missing woman when cougar tracks were seen near those of hers.

After realizing Zumstein was lost, Mrs. Zumstein started out for civilization to get a searching party started looking for him. After several hours of making her way through the forest, over logs, through creeks and swamps, Mrs. Zumstein reached Abernethy none the worse for the ordeal except that her clothes were in tatters.

Mrs. Zumstein was brought to Cascade Summit by automobile and learned her husband was heading a searching party out looking for her.

Roy Temple and Harry Conner, after learning Mrs. Zumstein was safe, returned to the Diamond peak area to get the husband, who was still looking for his bride.

PESTS NUMEROUS AT GOOSE LAKE

LAKEVIEW—A disadvantage of mild winters is being demonstrated in northern Goose lake valley this spring: there are more insects than usual, for there hasn't been enough freezing weather to kill off the usual number. Yellow jackets and black beetles, also known as stink bugs, have been pests almost all winter. Thursday a species of black ant five-eighths of an inch long included houses and other buildings in its path of migration. If last week's hot days encouraged the emergence of insects, no doubt the weekend's rainstorm and Monday night's frost were at least an inconvenience to them.

Insects, however, were not the only ones to be inconvenienced by the rain and hail Sunday. Fishermen on Thomas creek up in the hills between Cottonwood reservoir and Dairy creek were caught by the storm. At least one car slid off the road, and everyone had to drive carefully. It doesn't take much rain to make mountain roads slippery, and Sunday there was a regular cloudburst, preceded and accompanied by thunder and lightning.

West Side

WESTSIDE—Camas is in bloom in Lake county. Particularly eye-arresting are a field on the south side of the highway just west of Lakeview and a field north of the Floyd Reed home. Most of the flowers are blue, but an occasional plant has white blooms. A large yellow daisy is in bloom also in, among other places, a valley near the headwaters of Thomas creek on the road to Dairy creek.

The Westside grange has made plans for another benefit dance for the 4-H scholarships at the hall this Saturday night, May 31. Mrs. Jim Bernard has been appointed ticket chairman.

Rainy weather Sunday interfered with the baseball game scheduled between the East Side and Westside grange teams. A team of CCC boys from up Drews canyon want to play the local team on the Westside diamond this Sunday, June 1.

G. D. Stockburger, secretary of the Westside cemetery association, reports that after the work done at cleanup day last Saturday only a few graves are without markers. A number of graves, however, are without identification. The small number who attended cleanup day report that there were "lots of cats" at the noon meal at the hall.

Charles Kemper of Long Beach has entered into an agreement with the Lakeview Oil company to resume drilling operations within two weeks on the test well site where the derrick now stands.

The grading done by Berke brothers on the section of new road west of Maddock's has been accepted. Construction of a bridge across Cottonwood creek has been started.

Mrs. Axel Koefoed of Lakeview was hostess to ten members and three guests of the Westside Home Ec club at her home last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Roy Peterson won the stunt put on by Mrs. Koefoed, and Mrs. Homer Meyers, Mrs. L. A. Meyers, and Mrs. Clarence Sundet were guests. The hostess served refreshments after the business meeting, at which Mrs. Marvin Pardue, Mrs. F. M. Bunyard, and Mrs. Harry Crowl were appointed a committee to look after the hall when the mattresses are made this summer.

Mrs. Merle O'Neil will entertain the club June 12 at the home of her mother, Mrs. F. M. Bunyard.

The large dairy barn on the J. C. Clark ranch west of Lakeview is completed and is being painted white with a green roof. Pat Albertson took his sheep up to Yocum valley last week. A. L. Travis has his sheep down on the Koosier place near the lake.

A good flow of artesian water was struck at about 100 feet on the Merle O'Neil place. Harry Crowl, who drilled the O'Neil well, got a good well for Walt Roberts at just over 100 feet on the Roberts place.

On May 16 Mr. and Mrs. Ted DeFord and family moved to Lakeview, where they have bought a house. They are renting their home in Westside.

Mrs. Delos Price and sons are staying at the G. V. Treffinger home in the Vernon district until Mr. Price can get a house in Auburn, Washington, where he is working.

Mrs. Jim Whaley was enough improved Friday to be brought home from the hospital. Her daughter, Miss Leo Hill, is here from Washington, D. C., to take care of her.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed came over from Medford last week to spend the summer.

Mrs. Denny Dupue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Becraft, and Mrs. Bill Sundet of Klamath Falls recently brought over Bob Clark, brother of Mrs. Sundet, to stay for the summer with the Becrafts.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reed went up to Long valley Monday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dains have been up there for several weeks.

Among recent victims of the mumps are Ralph Dains, Mrs. Earl Millard, Mrs. Cecil Bacon, Florence Reed, and Andy Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kralieck have traded their property in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rand for the Rand place in Westside. They moved in several weeks ago, but are not farming the land this year, since it has been rented to Fenimore.

DIRECTORY WASHINGTON, May 28 (AP)—Senator Holman (R-Ore.) said President Roosevelt had approved a WPA allocation of $8734 for compilation of an Oregon and Washington directory showing public buildings and room numbers in which federal records are kept.

Two Fish Days Per Week Will Aid National Defense Program

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Service Staff Writer

THE American home diet has a two-ocean defense. Fish is a high-grade source of protein, and the sea is full of many kinds. Now to maintain high nutrition in the face of rising taxes and food costs, American women should serve more fish in their menus.

Public Must Help William Fellows Morgan, Jr., commissioner of markets in New York City, reminds us that during World War I we had "meatless Tuesday" as a defense measure. Mr. Morgan now is urging citizens to cooperate with him in making Tuesdays "bargain fish day," thereby adding an extra day in the week when this excellent food can be purchased at budget prices.

"I have been able to get the promise of retailers of fish, including chain stores, to turn every Tuesday into bargain fish day if the public will cooperate by using some of the many varieties of fresh fish in the market on that day," he said. "If the public will begin now to add an extra fish day to their menus, the price of fish can be reduced to amazing lows and families will be assured of an ample supply of necessary protein without a strain on their budgets."

Can Be National

What the housewives of New York can do with the help of their progressive market commissioner can be done all over the country. The local commissioner should announce through the local press and radio on Tuesday morning the price of fish in the wholesale markets. The housewives can then be guided when they go out to buy for their families. And the retailers will not be tempted to run prices up if they know that the public has been informed of wholesale prices and been urged to buy fish on Tuesday and as well on Friday. The more fish used in home menus, the lower the price will be.

Silver Lake

SILVER LAKE—Thunder showers Saturday and Sunday brought great benefit to the range and forest of northern Lake county. Sunday's heavy shower lasted more than two hours and was most opportune as the continued drought had made the danger of forest fire acute. First forest fire of the season in Fremont forest was a small blaze set by lightning on Walker rim Friday. Albert Waterhouse and Leston Linebaugh returned from that section Friday and reported the blaze quenched.

Drunken Driving Chances At Bieber

BIEBER, Calif.—For drunken driving, Harry Lee Lawton was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail at Susanville and George Harold Price was fined $100, with the alternative of fifty days in jail, by Justice W. B. Philliber, here Monday. Both pleaded guilty.

Lawton was arrested between Bieber and Nubieber, and Price on the highway crossing Big Valley mountain, by State Patrolman R. E. Cable. Price said he had a lumber mill job and enough wages coming to pay part of the fine. He was informed that
