End-of-Season Program To Be Given by Mrs. Voye At Church Saturday Evening

The annual end-of-the-season recital given by voice students of Mrs. A. J. Voye promises to be unusually interesting this spring with the presentation of a number of the younger students at the First Presbyterian church this evening (Saturday) at a quarter to eight o'clock.

Those who are appearing in their first recital after instruction of only a few months are Miss Ruthie Schultz of Tulelake, eleven years old; Miss Patricia Brown, a fourteen-year-old soprano; Miss Marianne Lion of fifteen, a mezzo-soprano; Miss Patty Gentry of Tulelake, aged fifteen, a contralto; Miss Betty Merrill, a seventeen-year-old soprano; Conrad Schultz of Tulelake, sixteen, a baritone; Herman Turnbaugh of Tulelake, seventeen-year-old tenor; Keith Gentry, seventeen, also of Tulelake, who sings bass; Charles Currier, seventeen, bass, who has appeared on a number of programs here this past year.

Other new talent on this program, always widely attended by music lovers of the city, will include Mrs. Allison Osborn of Tulelake, a lyric soprano; Mrs. Lind of Tulelake, a soprano; Mrs. Herbert Dennis, mezzo-soprano and Miss Marie Obenchain, lyric soprano.

Students of Mrs. Voye who have appeared previously and are received more enthusiastically each time are Mrs. Rollin Cram, coloratura soprano; Mrs. M. E. Cooper, contralto; Mrs. Jerome Henry, mezzo-soprano, and Mrs. Muriel Garich, mezzo-soprano.

What promise to be outstanding numbers of the evening are two songs by an octette of women's voices, from the opera "I Know It's Love," written by Mrs. Ray Michels—"Wind in the Trees" and "The Cowboy Song."

Among other selections on the program will be Schubert's "Ave Maria," by Miss Lion; Massenet's "Elegy" by Miss Brown; "Viva Dante" from the opera "La Tosca" by Mrs. Garich; "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from "Samson and Delilah" by Mrs. Cooper; Bishop's "Lo, Hear the Gentle Lark" by Mrs. Cram; and a duet from "The Firefly" opera by Friml to be sung by Herman Turnbaugh and Conrad Schultz.
