

Miss Heidrich Will Wed in Church Rites

Trinity Episcopal Church in Bend To Be Scene of Wedding Sunday Afternoon, June the Eighth

June weddings featured the month's social calendar and none promised to be lovelier than that of Miss Roberta Jane Heidrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis C. Heidrich of Sprague River, when she becomes the bride of Mr. Burrell R. Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb of Dallas, Oregon, in a ceremony to be read Sunday afternoon, June the eighth, at three o'clock in Trinity Episcopal church. The Rev. George Bolster will officiate.

Just before the ceremony Mrs. Flora Heidrich of Redmond will sing, "At Dawning," and the traditional Lohengrin's processional, and Mendelssohn's recessional have been chosen by the bride. The altar will be banked with summer flowers and many white candles will be used in the church.

Miss Heidrich has chosen a dressmaker's suit of cactus green with which she will wear a shoulder corsage of brown orchids, a large brown straw picture hat and brown accessories.

Miss Ruth Dunning of Klamath Falls will be the bride's only attendant, and she will wear a pastel green summer costume suit, black picture hat, and a white blossom corsage.

Mr. Jack Ray of this city will be the best man.

Ushers will be the bride's two brothers, William and Curtis Heidrich Jr., of Sprague River.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Roberts of Redmond, with whom Miss Heidrich has made her home for the past two years during the time she taught in the Redmond high school. Mrs. J. R. Roberts of Redmond has been asked to pour at the bride's table which will be in all white, with white candles, white sweet peas and a silver service. The bride will cut the first piece of her three-tiered cake and it will be served by the three young Klamath Falls matrons who has asked to assist, Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, (Margaret Waters), Mrs. Robert P. Ellington Jr., and Mrs. Lane Warren.

Receiving with the bridal party will be parents of the young couple. Mrs. Heidrich has chosen a navy blue sheer afternoon suit with white accessories and a corsage of rosebuds, and Mrs. Webb will wear a summer costume suit with roses.

Miss Heidrich is a graduate of Oregon State college where she is affiliated with Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Webb also attended Oregon State college where he majored in pharmacy. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, and is in business in Vancouver, Washington, where the young couple will reside.

Planning to motor north from here to attend the ceremony are many well-known Klamath folks including Mrs. Henry Funk and Mrs. Marion Hanks, aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gowan of Bonanza, Mrs. John Hessig, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Ellington Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren, all of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Heidrich of Bonanza, and members of the bride's family.

MISS GALLAGHER TO MAKE TRIP TO CONFERENCE

Of interest to her many friends is the journey which Miss Patricia Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Robert Olds of Riverside, will enjoy during the early summer months. Patricia will be met by her mother in Walla Walla, Washington, early next week and will leave Whitman college on Saturday for Beck Falls Lake, Pennsylvania, where she goes as a delegate to the Motor Board conference. Patricia is president of Mortar Board at Whitman.

En route east Patricia will be the guest of a sorority sister in Evanston, Illinois, and will visit following the conference with another sorority sister in Concord, Massachusetts. While on the east coast she will visit also with Miss Maxine Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson, who is in New Haven, Connecticut, and plans brief stays in Philadelphia, Boston, New York City and Washington, D. C., before returning to the west coast by way of New Orleans and San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. King of 601 Alameda street have as their houseguests this summer their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Calhoun of Laramie, Wyoming. The Calhouns visited here during the Christmas holidays and made many friends who welcome their return.

Miss Hough Weds June 1

Well Known Klamath Teacher Bride of Sherman Carter

On Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, June the first, Miss Ola Mae Hough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hough of Dunsmuir, became the bride of Mr. Sherman Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Carter of Roseville, California. The service was read in the bride's home in the Hunt apartments by the Rev. Arthur Charles Bates of the First Christian church.

The bride wore a smart navy blue costume suit with a shoulder corsage of gardenias. Her attendant was her aunt, Mrs. Myrtle Duffy, and Mr. John Pastega was the best man.

Following the service dinner was served with covers laid for eleven about a prettily arranged centerpiece of spring flowers.

The bride has taught music in Roosevelt school for the past five years and is well known in teaching circles here. She is a graduate of the Eastern Oregon College of Education. Mr. Carter is with the Southern Pacific company here where the young couple will reside.

LUNCHEON GUESTS TOLD OF BETROTHAL

Joan Kranenburg Rohr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kranenburg of North Third street, announced her betrothal to Mr. John David Totton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John David Totton of Crescent avenue, at an informal luncheon given for members of both families and a few close friends Friday at one o'clock, May the thirtieth. The marriage will take place at the home of Mrs. Rohr's parents at one o'clock Sunday afternoon, June the eighth.

The news was told after guests were seated at a prettily appointed table where covers were laid for Mrs. Dick Hayden, Mrs. Dean Houston, Mrs. J. D. Totton, Mrs. Emmert Fossum, Mrs. John Fossum, Mrs. Henry Kranenburg, Mrs. Lou Harkins of Salem, Mrs. Oliver Riley, Mrs. Earl Greear of Chillicothe, and Miss Nettie Fowler, Miss Mary Harmon, and Mrs. Rohr.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ray are expected home this weekend following a motor trip to Washington. They will stop in Bend Sunday to attend the wedding of Miss Roberta Heidrich and Mr. Burrell R. Webb. Mr. Ray will be best man.

MRS. SHERMAN CARTER

Mrs. Carter is the former Ola Mae Hough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hough of Dunsmuir, and her marriage took place Sunday afternoon, June the first.

HOME IN PORTLAND

Friends regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Yarnes and their young son, Charles, who left Wednesday to reside in Portland. Mrs. Yarnes and "Buddy" are pictured here.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Local Youth Weds Connecticut Maid

Ensign Scharfenstein and Miss O'Connell Exchange Vows in Church Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Hazel Veronica O'Connell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael L. O'Connell, to Ensign Charles F. Scharfenstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Scharfenstein of Klamath Falls, Oregon, took place at St. Joseph's church, New London, Connecticut, Monday, May the nineteenth, at five o'clock. Rev. Denis A. O'Brien officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William L. Corcoran of New York city.

The bride's gown of white lace over satin was designed with a peplum. Her fingertip veil of net and lace was draped from a halo of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. She was attended by her sister, Miss Barbara Carolyn O'Connell as maid of honor, wearing blue lace over starched marquisette and Juliet cap of blue net. She carried pink roses and sweet peas.

Beverly Ann O'Connell was her sister's flower girl. She wore blue lace over starched marquisette with bonnet to match and carried a colonial bouquet of pink flowers. Thomas Corcoran, nephew of the bride, carried the ring on a satin pillow.

Talmage Scharfenstein was his brother's best man. The ushers included Ensigns George W. Girdler, Robert Catlin Gould, Bernhard R. Henry, James W. Kincaid, Victor A. G. Schmidt, classmates of the bridegroom and Cadet L. W. S. Renshaw.

The church was decorated with palms and white flowers and the pews were tied with white satin ribbons and small white flowers. A white carpet was laid for the bridal procession, which left the church under the arches of the ushers. Mendelssohn and Wagner wedding marches and incidental organ music was played by Miss Helen Ganey.

A reception at the Mohican hotel followed the ceremony. A buffet supper was served to more than one hundred guests and the bride cut her cake with her husband's sword in traditional manner. Decorations for the bride's table were those used by the bridegroom's parents at their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary celebration. Mrs. Carolyn J. Backus, grandmother of the bride, greeted the guests in the ballroom. Mrs. Backus wore a blue ensemble for the occasion and Mrs. Scharfenstein wore dusty pink silk jersey with blue accessories for her son's wedding.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, Ensign and Mrs. Scharfenstein will be at home in Savannah, Georgia. The bride received her education at Williams Memorial Institute, New London, and is a graduate of Connecticut college, class of 1940.

The marriage took place on the afternoon of the day Ensign Scharfenstein was graduated with honors from the United States coast guard academy in New London, Connecticut. His parents and brother, Talmage, motored to the east coast to attend the ceremonies, and returned here last Sunday after an interesting trip which took them into eastern Canada, and home through the south.

TOASTMISTRESSES CLUB TO MEET MONDAY EVENING

The regular dinner meeting of the Toastmistress club will be held Monday evening June the ninth, at Mrs. Nord's tea room at 8:30 o'clock when Mrs. Emmett Childester will preside as toastmistress.

Members may choose for their talks any one of the following topics: "My Garden, Music, or My Home," which are to be presented with suitable illustrations.

Mrs. Russell Peterson will be the dinner chairman and the dinner hour program will consist of impromptu talks by the members. Part of the evening will be devoted to study on organization and outline of a talk. The president, Mrs. Walter Brown, will preside.

Miss Ekern Weds in North

Well Known Klamath Couple Exchange Vows in Spokane

Of interest to their many friends here is announcement of the marriage on May the twenty-fifth at nine o'clock in the morning of Miss Henrietta Ekern and Mr. Gerald Clemens, both of Klamath Falls. The ceremony was read in the Central Lutheran church of Spokane, Washington, with Rev. H. O. Belgum officiating.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Christian Ekern and the late Mr. Ekern of Lake Park, Minnesota, wore an attractive dressmaker suit of navy blue with an orchid corsage. She was attended by her sister, Miss Alpha Ekern of Spokane, and Miss Christie Reiersen of that city.

Immediately following the ceremony breakfast was served in the Italian Gardens of the Davenport hotel. After a stay of several days in Spokane, Mr. and Mrs. Clemens left for Lake Park for a visit with Mrs. Ekern. Upon their return to Klamath Falls in mid-June, they will be at home at 256 Hillside avenue.

Mrs. Clemens has taught in the Fremont school for a number of years. She is a graduate of the State Teachers college in Moorhead, Minnesota, and during her residence here has made her home with her sister, Mrs. Edwin A. Thomas of Pacific Terrace.

Mr. Clemens now teaches in Mer ill and has been with both the city and county school systems as instructor in physical education. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett H. Clemens, well known residents of the Merrill district.

MANY VISIT IRIS GARDEN AT KRAUSE HOME

Mrs. G. A. Krause was hostess at her home on High street Thursday afternoon for members of the garden study group of the Klamath Falls Women's Library club and prospective members. The afternoon was set aside to enjoy the lovely iris which are now at their best in Mrs. Krause's garden.

A number of iris stalks of unusual variety, both named and unnamed, were brought by the visitors and their splendor was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Krause had small wooden sticks at the base of the many varieties in her garden in order that their names could be learned by the visitors.

VISITORS EXPECTED FROM MID-WEST

Expected here as summer visitors during the month of June are Mrs. L. T. Morris and daughter, Barbara, of Watertown, South Dakota, who will be the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver of Auburn street.

Mrs. Morris and Barbara were met Saturday morning in Portland by Clark Weaver and they will arrive here Monday. They visited here a number of years ago and old friends will enjoy their return to Klamath Falls. A part of their visit here will be spent at the Weaver summer home at Lake O' the Woods. Mr. Morris will motor west the latter part of the month to join his family.

FIVE TODAY

Janet Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foster of Prineville, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cofer of this city, observed her fifth birthday on Saturday, June the seventh, while spending several weeks here at the Cofer home.

—Kennell-Ellis.

VISITOR

Allen Eugene Priest Jr., son of Lt. and Mrs. Allen Eugene Priest of Stockton, California, has visited here with his parents at the home of his maternal grandmother and great-grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Turner and Mrs. Clara Shaw. The Priests left the latter part of the week for a visit in Pullman, Washington, and will return for a stay of several days on Monday. Lt. Priest is in the United States army medical corps.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Social Calendar

Monday, June 9

Flower class at 10 a. m. at home of Mrs. E. D. Lamb.

Oregon Mothers with Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, 2125 Auburn street, 2 p. m. Assisting hostess, Mrs. James Burness.

Toastmistress club to meet for 8:30 o'clock dinner and evening's program at Mrs. Nord's tea room.

Tuesday, June 10

Final meeting of preschool study group at home of Mrs. Dick Hessig, 410 Hillside avenue. Assisting hostess, Mrs. John Woolington.

WCTU regular meeting in Klamath Lutheran church, Cross and Crescent streets, 2 p. m. Special program.

Wednesday, June 11

Flower class at 10 a. m. at home of Mrs. E. D. Lamb.

Monday, June 16 Business and Professional Women's club meets at Willard hotel, 6:30 o'clock, for dinner and program featuring installation of officers. Past presidents in charge of program.

Wednesday, June 18

Final meeting of year for Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church, parish house, 8 p. m.

Saturday, June 21

Annual queens ball at armory to choose queen of Klamath Buckaroo Days.

Saturday, June 28

Provident Lodge No. 609, Free and Accepted Masons of Sacramento, California, to visit Klamath Lodge No. 77, AF&AM, to confer Master Mason degree on candidate.

SUMMER CLASSES TO START MONDAY

A group of women will meet to study flower arrangement in a ten-lesson course which will continue for five weeks starting next Monday morning at ten o'clock under the direction of Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb at her home on Cypress street. Lessons will be given each Monday and Wednesday mornings at that hour.

Mrs. G. A. Krause will assist with lessons during the period and will present the first lesson on Monday, giving a general foundation and emphasizing design and color which will be the theme of the course.

Summer visitors in Klamath Falls at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kempter, 1938 Manzanita street, include their daughter and son, Mrs. Phillip Wallace Jr., (Marjorie Kempter), of Burlingame, California, and Mr. Robert Kempter of Salt Lake City. Mrs. Wallace will remain for a week while her husband is on a business trip to Vancouver. Mr. Kempter is spending his vacation with his parents.

Mrs. Hugh Campbell left Friday morning for Tacoma, Washington, where she will join her young daughter, Joan, student at Annie Wright seminary in Tacoma. They will return this weekend.

Private Piano Lessons
Mrs. S. M. Carter
(Ola Mae Hough)
Inquire 530 Eldorado

Salem Girl Bride In May Ceremony

Patricia Noonan Weds Darrell Miller in St. Joseph's Catholic Church Before Families

A wedding ceremony of much interest was solemnized at eight o'clock the morning of May the twenty-sixth in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Salem, when Miss Patricia Noonan, daughter of Mrs. Freda Stacey, became the bride of Darrell Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick B. Miller of Klamath Falls. Rev. J. P. Heade officiated in the presence of the two families and intimate friends of the couple. Mixed spring flowers in pastel shades and cathedral candles graced the altar. Mrs. Raymond Barton played the wedding marches.

The bride, a lovely brunette, wore a smart green station wagon print frock with a plain green jacket, a white off-the-face hat trimmed with a waist-length veil and white gloves. She wore a corsage of orchids and carried a white prayerbook from which fell a cascade of swansons.

Miss Lee Ryan, the honor attendant, wore a black frock with a beige coat and turban. Her flowers were gardenias and red rosebuds.

George Miltonberger served as best man.

Mrs. Stacey, mother of the bride, wore a white suit with white accessories and a corsage of sweetpeas and rosebuds. Mrs. Miller, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dusty rose dress with black coat and accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and pink carnations.

A wedding breakfast followed at the Hotel Marion. Later the couple left by motor for a trip along the Oregon coast and thence to Stockton, Calif., where they will visit Lt. and Mrs. Herbert Glaisyer, Jr. (Laura Lou Hickman.) Mrs. Miller chose a dusty rose wool costume suit with a rose wool jersey jacket and pleated skirt and a navy hat and accessories for traveling. Upon the couple's return from the south they will make their home at Klamath Falls, where Mr. Miller is in business.

The bride is a graduate of Salem schools and a popular member of the younger set. Mr. Miller is a graduate of the University of Oregon law school and a member of Alpha Tau Omega—Capital Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller have returned from a wedding trip through the south and are now at home in this city. Mr. Miller is affiliated with his father in the Marshall Cornett company.

Oregon Mothers Meet on Monday

Members of Oregon Mothers will be entertained at the home of Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, 2125 Auburn street, when Mrs. Woodruff and Mrs. James Burness entertain for the group at two o'clock. Dessert will be served.

smart moderns swing to Life

the new brassiere by

Formfit

SPORTS-LIFE
DAY-LIFE
NIGHT-LIFE

Here's a brassiere that puts life in your lifeline—revives the dormant charm that is rightfully yours. Life's quilted cushions lift breasts to youthful beauty while the elastic diaphragm release assures comfort, complete freedom, no binding. Styles for every occasion—Sports-Life, Day-Life, Night-Life—and in pocket widths A, B, C and D. From $1.25

LaPointe's