

PRIZES OFFERED FOR SHEEP, SWINE

Three more national breed associations have offered special prizes totaling $295 extra cash for sheep and swine breeders winning at the 80th Oregon state fair at Salem September 1 to 7. All are in addition to regular premium money.

The Hampshire Swine Registry association has offered $50 divided $30 to grand champion barrow over all breeds if it is a Hampshire with registered sire and dam; and $20 for the grand champion pen of barrows under like conditions.

The largest single breed special money of all the long list offered for the 1941 fair is the $225 put up by the American Hampshire Sheep association. It will pay $75 for the best pen of three ram lambs, $37.50 each for best pen of three ewe lambs and get of sire; and $75 for five horn ram lambs. The latter is something entirely new in fair competition. The National Suffolk Sheep association will add $20 to prize money for the best pen of three Suffolk ram lambs.

Elks Auxiliary Entertained at Lakeview Meet

LAKEVIEW — The Lakeview Elks lodge gave a luncheon to the members of the Elks auxiliary Saturday at the Hotel Lakeview. Following the luncheon the members went to the club-rooms for pinocle and bridge. High score for the afternoon in bridge was won by Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick, with second high going to Mrs. Myrtle Duke. Mrs. Farris Gifford was awarded the prize for high score in pinocle and Mrs. James Van Kuelen Jr. was awarded second prize.

A short business meeting was held immediately after, at which time the new officers were elected to serve for the coming year. Those elected were Mrs. J. Eric Bennett, president; Mrs. Forrest E. Cooper, vice president and Mrs. Max Weaver, secretary-treasurer. The next regular meeting of the auxiliary will be held September 6.

STRIKE AVERTED
SAN DIEGO, Calif., June 12 (UP)—Officials of the AFL machinists union and the Consolidated Aircraft corporation tonight signed a working contract that ended possibility of a strike in the huge plant that is rushing production of $700,000,000 worth of bombers.

Molded Dishes for Warm Days Will Please Family Appetites

This molded macaroni loaf is a balanced meal in itself.

Molded cold dishes please the hot weather appetite. They can be made to combine essential nutrients at low cost, yet present a "party" appearance and brighten up the appetite.

And they have this hot weather advantage: They can be made during the earlier and cooler hours of the day, placed in the refrigerator and served at meal-time without further ado.

MOLDED MACARONI LOAF

(Serves 6)
One envelope plain unflavored gelatin, 1 cup cold water, 1 cup hot water, 1 cup grated American cheese, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 tablespoon onion juice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon parsley, finely chopped, 1 1/2 cups cooked macaroni, cut in small pieces, or whole macaroni, 1 cup Russian dressing or mayonnaise, 1 cup chopped celery.

Soften gelatin in cold water and dissolve in hot water. Add cheese and let stand until cheese is melted, stirring constantly. Add lemon juice, onion juice, salt and parsley. Cool and when mixture begins to thicken, fold in macaroni, celery and Russian dressing. Pour into loaf pan which has been rinsed out in cold water or rubbed with mineral oil first, and chill. When firm, unmold onto platter and garnish with lettuce or chickory. Serve with extra dressing.

HAM LOAF WITH MASHED SWEET POTATO FROSTING

(Serves 6 to 8)
HAM LOAF: 1 lb. ground fresh pork (lean), 1 lb. ground smoked ham, 1 egg, slightly beaten, 1 cup milk, 1 cup bread or cracker crumbs.
POTATO FROSTING: 6 to 8 boiled sweet potatoes, 2 tablespoons butter, milk, salt and pepper to taste, 6-8 marshmallows.

Combine the meat loaf ingredients, blend well and pack lightly into a loaf pan. Bake at 350 degrees F., or a moderate oven, for 1 1/2 hours. Remove from baking pan and place on serving platter. Remove skins from boiled sweet potatoes and mash. Add butter, seasoning and enough milk to make mixture light and fluffy. Spread this mixture over the meat loaf as you would frost a cake. Arrange marshmallows on top; return to moderate oven (350 degrees F.) or place under broiler. Heat until marshmallows are slightly browned. Serve at once.

MENU
BREAKFAST: Pineapple and lime juice, creamed codfish on toast, toast, currant jelly, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Green pea soup with thin noodles, hard rolls, rhubarb tarts, cheese, tea, milk.
DINNER: Hot tomato bouillon in cups, molded macaroni loaf, lettuce, sliced tomatoes, hot biscuits, bananaes and raspberries, chocolate cup cakes, coffee, milk.
