

Sojourners Club Inducts Officers

Mrs. Marshall Farmer Takes Over President's Chair at Ceremony Conducted Wednesday

At a simple but beautiful ceremony conducted Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the Sojourners club at the Willard hotel, new officers were installed and retiring officers were honored. New members and guests were introduced and welcomed.

Mrs. Dwight Gilchrist presented the president's bell and a lovely corsage to Mrs. Marshall Farmer, incoming president; Mrs. Russell Peterson presented her books and a corsage to the new secretary, Mrs. C. H. Palran Jr., and Mrs. Archie Beckwith presented the treasurer's books and a corsage to Mrs. C. A. Lundy, the new treasurer, on behalf of Mrs. John Peters, retiring treasurer.

The retiring president, Mrs. Gilchrist, presented corsages to the officers who have served with her and to the committee chairmen, including Mrs. H. D. Hamacher, calling committee; Mrs. Matt Rauw, hospitality; Mrs. Archie Beckwith, registrar and publicity and Mrs. S. D. Earhart, historian. Mrs. R. L. Kent, chairman of by-laws, and Mrs. Fred Hamilton were unable to attend. Mrs. C. S. Elliot received a beautiful corsage from the club in appreciation of her interest and help as founder of the Klamath Falls Sojourners.

The new president named the following committee chairmen: Mrs. Dale Smith, by-laws; Mrs. Tom Orr Jr., publicity; Mrs. C. S. Elliot, calling committee; Mrs. Glenn Jones, hospitality; Mrs. Hans Norland, historian, and Mrs. William B. Yates, registrar.

Mrs. Wilson of the chamber of commerce gave a short talk on the purpose of Sojourners and thanked the club for its cooperation in making newcomers welcome and helping them get acquainted. The chamber of commerce sponsors the Sojourners in this city.

The meeting was adjourned for bridge, twelve tables being in play with honors going to Mrs. Marvin Thomas of Tulelake, high; Mrs. Ralph Stearns, second and Mrs. Joe Materie, low. Tea was served by the retiring officers.

MRS. BARNHART HOSTESS TO HAPPY HOUR CLUB

Members of the Happy Hour club were entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Dayton Barnhart at her home on North Eighth street. Mrs. Bee Templar of Sacramento, daughter of Mrs. Albert Langer, was a guest at the meeting, and members attending were Mrs. Langer, Mrs. J. J. Keller, Mrs. George Biehn, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. Maude Hosley, Mrs. Ed Propet, Mrs. H. J. Savidge, Mrs. Sydney Evans, Mrs. George Humphrey, Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz, Mrs. R. G. Molschenbacher, Mrs. Carl Sandell, Louise Barnhart, Mary and Marie Barnhart.

The next meeting of the club on June the twenty-fourth will be held at the home of Mrs. Sydney Evans at Sunset ranch.

MRS. SCHUPP HONORED AT FAREWELL PARTY

Mrs. O. E. Schupp was guest of honor at a no-hostess surprise farewell party Wednesday evening, June the eleventh, when a group of friends called at her home on Alameda street.

Contract bridge was the diversion of the evening with prizes awarded to Mrs. Schupp and Mrs. Glenn Hewitt. Mrs. Schupp, who is leaving soon for Berkeley, California, was presented with a lovely gift from the group.

Miss Schupp Leaves for East

Miss Dorothy Schupp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Schupp of 321 Alameda street, left the first of the week by train for Lansing, Michigan where she will take delivery on a new car and from there will enjoy a vacation trip into Canada and along the eastern coast and through the south, spending the remainder of the summer at Berkeley, California. Mrs. Schupp and daughter, Patty, will leave soon for Berkeley where Patty, who graduated from Klamath Union high school this spring, will complete her education at Armstrong's business college.

Daggett Girls Return from School

Marijane and Caroline Daggett, daughters of Mrs. Claude H. Daggett of Pacific Terrace, returned home Friday from Armstrong's business college in Berkeley, to spend the summer months with their mother here and at their cabin at Lake o' the Woods. Mrs. Daggett will take an apartment on Esplanade street for the summer. The girls will return to Armstrong's in September.

Showers Honor Bride

Parties Given in Sprague River for Roberta Heidrich

SPRAGUE RIVER—Two social events of importance were held here last week in honor of Miss Roberta Heidrich, who became the bride of Mr. Beryl Webb of Dallas, Oregon in Trinity Episcopal church of Bend on June the eighth.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. C. A. Fuller was hostess to a shower given at her home at which a beautiful crystal service was given to Miss Heidrich by the guests. Numerous household gifts such as handy kitchen items were also given. Early in the afternoon refreshments were served after which the guests enjoyed an afternoon of bridge. Those attending the affair were: Mrs. Edmund Gowan and Marjorie Heidrich of Bonanza, Mrs. Victor Orling and Mrs. Knute Youngren of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Roland Pargo, Mrs. Harry Short, Mrs. J. Paul Fuller, Mrs. Art Fuller, Mrs. Curtis Heidrich, Roberta Heidrich and the hostess, Mrs. C. A. Fuller.

On the evening of the same day a shower and social was given Miss Heidrich at the Heidrich home by Mrs. Ivan Pankey, Mrs. A. L. Book and Miss Mildred Shipman. An evening of visiting, card playing and the presentation of a floor lamp to the coming bride were the chief features. Those in attendance were: Mrs. Ethel Pankey, Mrs. A. L. Book, Miss Mildred Shipman, Mrs. Gene Merritt, Mrs. Ben Wolford, Miss Pauline Grane, Mrs. Eben Riley, Mrs. Fred Pauly, Mrs. John Goddard, Mrs. Earl Richardson, Mrs. Carlos Seright, Mrs. Tom Cauffman, Mrs. Marjorie Heidrich, Mrs. Blanche Gowan, Mrs. Joe Young, Mrs. Harry Short, Mrs. Bob Passolt, Mrs. Curtis Heidrich and guest of honor, Miss Roberta Heidrich.

Past Presidents To Entertain BPW

Past presidents of the Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's club will be hostesses Monday evening at the regular half past six o'clock dinner to be served in the Willard hotel. Installation of officers will take place.

WEDS IN JUNE CEREMONY

Mrs. John David Totton Jr., the former Joan Kranenburg Rohr, was married Sunday afternoon, June the eighth, in a simple ceremony read at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kranenburg of North Third street. The Tottons have returned from a wedding trip to the coast and are now at home on Lavey street.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Ceremony Read at Bride's Home Sunday

Joan Kranenburg Rohr Becomes Mrs. John David Totton Jr., in Service June the Eighth

In a simple yet beautiful ceremony read at one o'clock Sunday afternoon, June the eighth, Joan Kranenburg Rohr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kranenburg, became the bride of Mr. John David Totton Jr., at the Kranenburg home, 535 North Third street. The service took place in the living room windows with the Rev. Arthur Charles Bates of the First Christian church officiating. Garden flowers were used throughout the rooms.

The bride wore a smart navy blue costume suit of sheer cloth with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

The couple was unattended. Following the service luncheon was served from a prettily appointed table centered with a bowl of white sweet peas and snapdragons. Tall white candles in crystal candlesticks were placed at either side of the bride's and groom's cakes which were baked by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Earl Greear of Chilquin. After the cakes were cut they were served by Mrs. Oliver Riley, cousin of the bride.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Dick Kranenburg and Mrs. Nettie Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. Totton left by motor for a week's stay on the Oregon and California coast and upon their return will be at home on Lavey street.

Mr. Totton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John David Totton of Crescent avenue and is a member of the Oregon State highway department office.

SOCIAL CLUB HOLDS SECOND OF PARTY SERIES

The Rebekah Social club met in the IOOF hall Wednesday afternoon when the second in the series of pinocle parties was held, with four tables in play. Dessert was served by Mrs. Mary Curtis and Mrs. Stella Dryden.

High score was received by Mrs. Bessie Peterson, second high by Mrs. Myrtle Hart and the special prize by Mrs. Julia Wohlander. The third in the series will be held Wednesday, June the twenty-fifth, at two o'clock.

GUESTS VISIT CABIN AT LAKE O' WOODS

A group of friends honored Mr. and Mrs. Henri Conradi at their cabin at Lake o' the Woods Sunday, the occasion also being in observance of Mrs. Conradi's birthday.

Italian dinner was served at four o'clock to Dr. and Mrs. Miller E. Cooper and son, Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. James Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brownlee, Miss Ingrid Friman, Miss Gertrude Tolle and Sol King.

Graduate Nurses will meet Thursday evening, June the nineteenth, at eight o'clock, in the health office at Eighth and Pine streets, at which time there will be a report of delegates to the state convention held recently in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ward are now in New York City where they are enjoying a brief stay before returning home in several weeks over the southern route with a stop planned in New Orleans. They took delivery of a new car in Detroit, Michigan.

Guests in Klamath Falls this week include Miss Ivy Whorwood and Miss Audrey Richings, both of Stamford, Connecticut, who arrived Wednesday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fairall, (Ethel Fenwick), 1976 Auburn street.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Drew and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drew returned from Portland this past weekend after attending several days of the Rose festival. Mrs. Frank Drew has been in the north for several weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Moore.

Nile Holds Final Meet

Plans Announced for First Meet in Fall Following Vacation

Covers were laid for fifteen members of the Klamath Falls Nile club at the no-hostess luncheon and meeting held Tuesday afternoon, June the third, at the Elk hotel.

A particularly lovely arrangement of pink snapdragons and white sweet peas centered the luncheon table, and clusters of these flowers and fern extended the length of the table.

Hostesses for the afternoon of cards were Mrs. Eugene Larsen, Mrs. Sydney Abbott, Mrs. Ted Shoop and Mrs. J. C. O'Neill, and awards at the close of play went to Mrs. John Kenoffel, Mrs. V. J. Josephson and Mrs. Marshall Cornett.

This was the club's final meeting until fall when members will get together on the second Tuesday of September, instead of the first Tuesday which is the regular meeting date. Officers will preside as hostesses at the September meeting, including Mrs. Gus Anderson, president; Mrs. Wilbur Arnold, vice president; Mrs. J. H. Carter, secretary, and Mrs. Harry Panning, publicity.

TOASTMISTRESS CLUB MEETS MONDAY NIGHT

The Toastmistress club met at Mrs. Nord's Tea Room Monday evening, June the ninth, and Mrs. John David Totton in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Kirby of 607 High street, will be graduated this weekend from the University of Washington in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Kirby and family left Thursday for the north to attend commencement festivities. Miss Kirby is a major in social science, member of Sigma Kappa sorority and last year president of her house, as well as treasurer of Associated Women Students on the campus.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Mrs. Emmet Chidester acted as toastmistress of the evening. Mrs. William Boyd spoke on "My Garden" and told of a garden of her childhood. Mrs. G. Logan Black described gardens she had known. Mrs. Paul K. Buck spoke on gardens. Mrs. Helen Mueller gave an interesting description of a pioneer home on a timber claim. Mrs. J. I. Beard chose for her subject, "Set Yourself a Pretty Table," and told of the behind the scenes preparation necessary for gracious living. Mrs. Myrtle Hibbard talked on "Why I Love My Home." Members of the group criticized each talk.

Mrs. Archie Beckwith was initiated into membership. Guests of the evening included Mrs. Sydney Evans and Mrs. Carl Schubert.

NANCY DREW OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Little Nancy Drew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Greer Drew of 1914 Lowell street, observed her second birthday anniversary on Friday, June the thirteenth, when her mother invited a group of neighborhood playmates to share birthday cake at three o'clock.

Guests were Johnny Coppage, Betty Shaw, Mary Jane Howard, Donna Beckwith, Barbara and Tommy Horne, and mothers of the children.

Washington Folks Visit Lake o' Woods

Weekend guests at the summer home of Dr. and Mrs. Leslie W. Peate at Lake o' Woods were Dr. and Mrs. Sterling V. Mead, and Dr. and Mrs. Otto Wendt, all of Washington, D. C. They are on the west coast to attend the wedding of Sterling Garrett Mead, son of Dr. and Mrs. Mead, and Miss Lela Grace Henderson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ray Henderson of Medford. The ceremony will take place in St. Mark's Episcopal church at four o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June the eighteenth.

Bethel Installs Officers Thursday

Mary Lou Johnson Becomes Honored Queen As Janice Bubb Retires From Office

Sixteen members of Job's Daughters were inducted into their new offices in the Klamath Bethel at a candlelight ceremony held Thursday evening, June the twelfth, at the Masonic temple, and Miss Janice Bubb was honored as retiring queen, turning her office over to Miss Mary Lou Johnson who will serve as queen for the coming term, assisted by Miss Merlon Albrecht as senior princess and Miss Mary Jane Drake as junior princess.

GRADUATE

Miss Betty Kirby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kirby of 607 High street, will be graduated this weekend from the University of Washington in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Kirby and family left Thursday for the north to attend commencement festivities. Miss Kirby is a major in social science, member of Sigma Kappa sorority and last year president of her house, as well as treasurer of Associated Women Students on the campus.

—Kennell-Ellis.

FIVE GROUPS OF WOMEN'S SOCIETY HOLD MEETINGS

Five of the groups of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church held their monthly meetings on Thursday afternoon.

Members of group two were entertained at the home of Mrs. E. J. Schnebeck, 428 Jefferson street, when dessert was served at half past one o'clock, followed by the business and social hour. Mrs. G. W. Glicerist was hostess to group four at a half past one o'clock dessert at her home, 315 Grant street, and Mrs. C. G. Reymers entertained group five at a similar affair at her home, 1915 Huron street.

Group six met with Mrs. A. R. Hanson at 1147 Crescent avenue when an afternoon tea was enjoyed, and members of group seven were entertained at the home of Mrs. Lucille Austin on Anderson road.

MRS. REYNOLDS ENTERTAINS FOR YOUNG DAUGHTER

Mrs. Charles M. Reynolds entertained a group of little friends in honor of the fifth birthday of her daughter, Joan Charlene, on Saturday afternoon, June the seventh, at her home on White avenue.

Games were played and favors of balloons and bonbons were presented each guest. Refreshments were served on the lawn at the close of the afternoon to Jana Lee Runnels, Alice Johnson, Jeannette Burrows, Eleanor Webber, Ethel, Evelyn, Christine and Norma Jean Nelson, Lois Larson and the guest of honor.

Mrs. Emil Dreher of Prineville, former resident of this city, spent the early part of the week as the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Miller of Roseway Drive. Mrs. Dreher was complimented at a no-hostess luncheon given at the Pelican Wednesday at one o'clock before her departure for Prineville.

Filling the other offices of the Bethel are Miss Betty Buchanan, guide; Miss Barbara Moore, marshal; Miss Wanda Shaw, chaplain; Miss Joy Kent, treasurer; Miss Lois Hankins, first messenger; Miss Marian Campbell, second messenger; Miss Barbara Schultz, third messenger; Miss Mary Ellen Long, fourth messenger; Miss Ann Mueller, fifth messenger; Miss Marlyce Steinseifer, recorder; Miss Jean Underwood, musician; Miss Nadine Palmerton, junior custodian and Miss Barbara Palmer, senior custodian.

Miss Betty Merrill and Miss June Van acted as installing guide and marshal; Miss Dorthea Ellington as installing recorder; Miss Jean Wiesen-danger and Miss Barbara Robin as installing junior and senior custodian and Miss Betty Yaden as installing musician.

During the ceremony, witnessed by relatives and friends, Miss Jean Underwood and Miss Joy Kent entertained with piano solos.

A number of gifts were presented to the new honored queen, and the retiring queen's 'jewel,' hidden in a colonial bouquet, was presented to Miss Bubb. Gifts were also presented to the junior and senior princesses.

A formal dance in the downstairs hall followed the installation, where an attractive garden setting was arranged with flowers, imitation grass and garden furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson and Mr. A. M. Throne have returned from an interesting motor trip which took them to Springfield, O., where they took delivery on two motors. They returned home through Salt Lake City and Reno, while in Chicago they attended the closing night of "Life With Father," which ended a successful two-year run there.

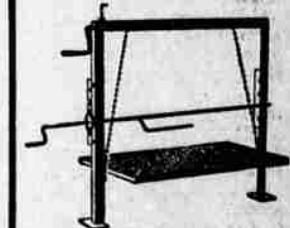

The Thimble club of Neighbors of Woodcraft met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ellen Ely on Nevada street with Mrs. C. O. Dryden as hostess. Four tables of pinocle were in play following a short business meeting. Those receiving awards were Mrs. Lee Kennedy, Mrs. J. H. Dunham and Mrs. Roland Thompson. Mrs. O. E. Schupp was presented with a farewell gift from the group.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ely on Tuesday, June the twenty-fourth, at two o'clock.

IN YOUR OWN GARDEN!

Have More Fun This Summer Than Ever Before

With THE SOUTHERN BARBECUE-GRILL

The Guide to Perfect Barbecuing

Set in a brick barbecue pit, which you can build yourself, this Southern Barbecue-Grill, with Spit, will bring to your garden the pleasures of outdoor trips...

Features Are:
• Small fire needed.
• Instant heat regulation.
• Removable grill.
Size 18x30-in., complete with Spit $16.75

IN STOCK - SOLD BY

HOME LUMBER & SUPPLY CO.

1224 E. 5th Phone 2146 SEE US FOR OTHER OUTDOOR FIRE-PLACE EQUIPMENT.

THREE ATTRACTIVE OFFICERS

The three highest ranking officers of the Klamath Bethel, Job's Daughters, among those installed in a formal ceremony Thursday evening at the Masonic temple, are Miss Mary Lou Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson, as honored queen; Miss Merlon Albrecht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Albrecht, as senior princess and Miss Mary Jane Drake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Drake, as junior princess.

—Kennell-Ellis pictures.

Whatever you do...
Wherever you go...
wear Play Clothes
from
THE TOWN SHOP
Priced to Fit Every Budget