

Virginia Fick Weds In Church Ceremony

St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Medford Scene of Beautiful Summer Wedding Service

One of the loveliest weddings of early June took place in St. Mark's Episcopal church on Saturday afternoon, June the fourteenth, when Miss Virginia Fick and Mr. John C. LeMire, both of Klamath Falls, were married at five o'clock. The following is taken from the Medford Mail-Tribune.

Wedded here yesterday afternoon at five o'clock in St. Mark's Episcopal church, were Miss Virginia Fick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Fick, 808 Newtown street and John LeMire, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. LeMire of Klamath Falls.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was attired in a full skirted eggshell satin wedding gown fashioned with a train, long sleeves, and a deep collar of seed pearls and button back. Completing her costume was a long veil caught in place with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of lilies of the valley centered with an orchid and complemented with satin streamers.

Her attendant, Mrs. James Busch of Klamath Falls, chose a floor-length gown of blue with matching hat and a nosegay of pastel flowers. Best man was Samuel Mushen, Jr., also of Klamath Falls.

Ushers included Walter Eschebeck, Bert Schmidt and Fred Smith of Klamath Falls and Bruce Williams, cousin of the bride, of Salem.

The bride's mother chose a rose silk crepe gown with matching hat and navy accessories and a corsage of gardenias surrounded by rosebuds and summer flowers.

The service was preceded by Miss Barbara Williams, cousin of the bride, singing "I Love You Truly" and "Because." She was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. H. E. Marsh who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Friends and relatives greeted the couple at the Fick home following the ceremony. The service table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake which was cut by the bride. Lilies of the valley and freesia completed the arrangement. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Busch and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Murray Marley of this city, Mrs. Sam Mushen, Klamath Falls, Miss Lorene Bradford, cousin of the bride, of Eugene and Miss Williams of Salem.

Out-of-town guests attending the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Williams and family, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Runyan, Mr. and Mrs. James Busch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Packer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thom, son, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Thomas, all of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Courtney of Roseburg, and Miss Lorene Bradford of Eugene.

For her going away outfit Mrs. LeMire chose a navy blue jersey dress with blue and white candy stripe skirt, blue accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following a wedding trip south the couple will return to Klamath Falls and make their home in the Roosevelt apartments. Mrs. LeMire has been teacher in Klamath Falls for the past five years after graduating from the University of Washington. Mr. LeMire is employed at the First National bank in Klamath Falls.

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN MONDAY NIGHT

One of the cleverest parties of the year, given by Wednesday club members of St. Paul's Episcopal church was that of Wednesday evening in the parish house when retiring officers entertained with a "beach" party and several hours of bridge.

Salad was served at eight o'clock at tables centered with sandpails holding summer flowers and placed on white sand beaches. Guests came in beach attire. Hostesses were Mrs. John Coppage, Mrs. Frank Drew and Mrs. David Bullis.

High score in cards went to Mrs. Percy Webb, low to Mrs. Harold Shaffer. The next meeting of Wednesday club will be held in September.

BREAKFAST RIDE PLANNED BY POSSE

An early breakfast ride is being planned by the Sheriff's Posse for Sunday morning. Riders will leave the Sunset ranch at half past six o'clock, and continue to Holcomb Springs on the top of Hogsback mountain. A chef will have breakfast prepared.

Members of the Posse and their wives and guests will take part in the ride and at least forty are expected to be on hand.

Ceremony In Spokane

Former Klamath Girl Married in Church Services

The following story from the Medford Mail-Tribune is of interest to friends of the John C. Boyle family, now making their home in the valley but formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boyle, 1019 South Oakdale avenue, announce the marriage of their daughter, Gertrude, to Howard L. Rutherford, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Rutherford of Great Falls, Mont.

The ceremony was read June 9 at 9:30 a. m. in the First Presbyterian church of Spokane with Dr. Paul Calhoun officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of waterfall green gabardine with toast brown accessories and a corsage of cluster gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Cornelius B. Collins, as matron of honor. Cornelius B. Collins acted as best man.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony for members of the two families in the Green room of the Davenport hotel.

After a short wedding trip to Glacier National park, the couple will make their home in Great Falls, Mont. Mrs. Rutherford is a graduate of Southern Oregon College of Education. Mr. Rutherford, a graduate of the University of Montana, is special agent for the Great American Insurance company for Montana.

LOCAL WOMAN VISITS MEDFORD HOME RECENTLY

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbury, 7 Eastwood drive are Mr. Newbury's two nieces, Nancy Elizabeth Newbury and Rosanne Newbury of Walnut Creek, California, who will visit here for two weeks. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newbury.

The girls motored to Medford with their grandmother, Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones of Klamath Falls, accompanied by Miss Evelyn Howarth, also of Klamath Falls, who continued home after spending a day at the Newbury home. Mrs. Jones is the mother of Mr. Newbury.

—Medford Mail Tribune.

LAST SESSION OF ALOHA OES SCHEDULED

Tuesday evening, June the twenty-fourth, at eight o'clock, Aloha chapter No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet in regular session at the Masonic temple, for the last meeting before summer vacation.

Mrs. Oliver W. Spiker, worthy matron, Mrs. Charlotte Martin, associate matron, and Mr. Leroy Erdmann, associate patron, who attended the sessions of the grand lodge of the order, held in Portland last week, will make their official reports to the chapter at this meeting.

Mrs. Spiker and Mr. Arlet Edsall, worthy patron, extend a cordial invitation to all members and visiting members of the order to be present.

SLATERS PLAN TRIP TO EAST COAST

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Slater are planning an interesting trip which will take them to the east coast where Mr. Slater will attend the grand lodge of the Elks in Philadelphia. The trip will be made by plane, leaving Medford July the sixth, stopping overnight in Los Angeles, Fort Worth, Texas, and Washington, D. C., where the Slaters will enjoy several days before going to Philadelphia.

From there Mr. and Mrs. Slater will continue to New York City for a stay of several days, on to Chicago, Minneapolis, and home by way of Spokane and Portland. Mr. Slater is exalted ruler of the Klamath Falls Elks lodge. The journey will keep the Slaters absent from their home here for three weeks.

NEWS Society HERALD

By LOIS STEWART

JUNE 21, 1941

MRS. JOHN C. LE MIRE, the former Virginia Fick, was married in a ceremony read Saturday afternoon, June the fourteenth, in St. Mark's Episcopal church, Medford. The Le Mires will make their home in Klamath Falls. —Shangle Picture

MISS BARBARA ANN MORRIS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo T. Morris of Watertown, South Dakota, visiting here with her mother at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver of Auburn street. Many informal affairs have been given for the visitors during their stay. Picture by Wesley Guderian of the Herald and News.

Silver Anniversary Observed Saturday

Many To Call at R. P. Ellingson home on Pacific Terrace To Greet Well Known Residents

Many friends, both old and new, are expected to call at the Robert Parcher Ellingson home, 820 Pacific Terrace, to greet Mr. and Mrs. Ellingson on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary Saturday night after half past eight o'clock.

Visitor Honored

Mrs. Spangler Entertains for Mother During Week

One of the loveliest of early summer parties was that given Friday afternoon of last week when Mrs. William Spangler of Modoc Point complimented her mother, Mrs. N. Y. Stoddard of Portland, at a bridge luncheon at one o'clock. Rooms of the Spangler home were attractive with summer blossoms, the center arrangement on the luncheon tables of deep lavender, pink and white.

Greeting Mrs. Stoddard were Mrs. W. E. Lamm, Mrs. J. R. Ricker, Mrs. A. E. Stonehouse, Mrs. G. A. Massey, Mrs. Fred H. Cofer, Mrs. Fred Grant, Mrs. A. J. Kehoe, Mrs. Orville Elliott, Mrs. George R. Lindley, Mrs. Walter West, Mrs. O. R. Holloway, Mrs. Oscar Peyton, and Mrs. Leslie Rogers.

Mrs. Stoddard left this week for Mount Shasta, California, to visit her son, Guy.

VAN EMONS HOME FROM ATLANTIC COAST

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Van Emon of 1949 Melrose street, are enjoying a visit with their daughter and two sons, home for from the east coast and together for the first time in four and one-half years.

Miss Betty Van Emon is home from Washington, D. C., where she is affiliated with the social security department. Walter Jr., is also from Washington where he is in the personnel division of the agricultural department, and Midshipman Carl Van Emon is visiting from Annapolis from where he will be graduated December 19, 1941. The three will remain until June twenty-ninth when they will return the southern route. Much of their time here will be spent at the Van Emon summer home at Lake o' the Woods.

Also coming west with the Van Emon young people was Midshipman Paul Knapp of Auburn, Nebraska. He will remain here until all four leave by car for the east.

FAREWELL PARTY OF WEDNESDAY CLUB

Mrs. Richard Hayden entertained Monday evening at her home on Siskiyou street complimenting her sister, Mrs. Dean Houston, who leaves Sunday for Hollister, California, with her young sons, Milton, to join her family in the south.

Bridge was played with high score held by Mrs. Houston, second high by Mrs. Ray Ruger, and low by Mrs. William Burnett. Numerous gifts were presented to Mrs. Houston by the guests including Mrs. George William Bratton Jr., Miss Gayle Bratton, Mrs. Wendell Smith, Mrs. Ray Ruger, Mrs. Ross Dodge, Mrs. Bert Schmidt, Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mrs. David Totton, Mrs. Bernice Heideman, Mrs. William Burnett, Mrs. Ben Pernigotti, Mrs. Edward Kliever and Mrs. William Garriott.

ISLAND VISITOR ARRIVES HERE

An interesting visitor in Klamath Falls, and a former resident of this city, is Mrs. Frank Jennings of Honolulu, who arrived Monday morning to spend the summer as the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers of Pacific Terrace. A part of the next few months the Rogers and Mrs. Jennings will enjoy at their cabin at Lake o' the Woods.

During the past winter Mrs. Jennings enjoyed a lengthy stay in Old Mexico, spent two months on the Islands, several months in Arizona and one month in San Francisco before coming to Klamath Falls for the summer. She was a guest at Reames Golf and Country club Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford are enjoying a week's holiday fishing in the Wallowa-mountains lake country. They will return to spend this weekend at Odell lake.

Here on the occasion are Mr. Ellingson's mother and two sisters, Mrs. C. K. Ellingson, and Mrs. J. A. Marcott of Hawkins, Wisconsin, and Miss Luella Ellingson, who teaches in Rice Lake, Wisconsin, and also Mrs. R. P. Ellingson's sister, Mrs. E. O. Ellingson and daughter, Marilyn, of Ladysmith, Wisconsin. The family arrived by motor on Monday and will be here for several weeks, spending a part of that time at the Ellingson summer home at Lake o' the Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellingson will entertain at a family dinner at the Pelican at half past six o'clock Saturday evening and covers will be laid for eighteen members of the family and out-of-town guests. Also expected here this weekend are Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Rasmussen of McCloud, California, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Schontz of Weed, California, and Miss Olive Marcott of San Francisco.

Receiving this evening at the family home will be Mr. and Mrs. Ellingson, their children, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parcher Ellingson Jr., Miss Dorothea, Donald and Sigmund Ellingson. The hostess will wear a black sheer crepe dressmaker gown with a short black and white jacket with a shoulder corsage of brown orchids.

Summer flowers will be used throughout the rooms and on the buffet table. Asked to assist during the evening are Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger, Mrs. F. E. Drake, and Mrs. Ed Ostendorf.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ellingson is also the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Ellingson Lumber company in Hawkins, Wisconsin.

TWO PAINTINGS BY MRS. BROWN IN ART EXHIBITS

Oregon's award for outstanding activity in American Art week, an original painting "Fishing Houses in Maine" by S. Peter Wagner, an eastern artist, is on view in room 5, Kramer building, at Portland. This painting is a boldly painted watercolor of a New England fishing village.

Four national prizes of equal merit were awarded by the national executive committee of the American Artists Professional League in New York. The painting will remain permanently in the possession of the Oregon chapter. Klamath Falls received the award in the state for distinguished participation in that week.

Of interest here also is the fact that two paintings by Virginia White Brown of this city were displayed at spring exhibits in Portland, which have just closed. "Blossoms," a still-life, was one of forty paintings chosen for exhibition by the Oregon Society of Artists, and "November Morning" was included in the American Artists Professional League exhibit that closed on June the second in the Meier and Frank galleries.

20-30 CLUB SPONSORS PARTY WEDNESDAY EVE

Thirty-five members of the 20-30 club, their wives and sweethearts, enjoyed a dinner and dancing party given Wednesday evening in the Pelican party room. Speaker of the evening was Mr. Sam Lockwood.

Mr. Stewart Patty served as chairman of the informal affair, and officers were elected with the following to serve for the coming year: Tom Milne, president; Stewart Patty, vice president; Bob Jones, secretary-at-arms; Don Blackley, secretary and treasurer. Directors, Gene Hooten, Harold Eberlein, John Walker, and Charles Finch.

Music was provided by Emil Buzaid's orchestra.

Miss Stewart At Camp Namanu

After a short visit here with her mother, Mrs. Myra Cain Stewart, Miss Lettie Stewart, student at Oregon State college, left this week for Camp Namanu near Portland where she will act as swimming counselor until July the nineteenth. Throughout the latter part of July and fore part of August, Miss Stewart will be in charge of swimming at Camp Esther Applegate, Lake o' the Woods, at the Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scout encampments.