

Couple Wed at Lovely Ceremony

Eschle-Soran Nuptials Solemnized Saturday Evening at Irving Dixon Home

Miss Shirley Louise Eschle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Eschle of 447 Martin street, became the bride of Mr. Stanley Soran, son of Mrs. John Soran of Caldwell, Idaho, at an impressive and beautiful ceremony Saturday evening, June the fourteenth, when the bride was given in marriage by her father at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Dixon on the Merrill highway. Rev. Victor E. Newman of St. Paul's Episcopal church officiated.

The services were read before the fireplace which was decorated by an arch of candelabra woven with maiden-hair fern and pastel sweet peas. Sprays of gladioli and rhododendrons were also used.

The bride chose for her wedding a beige suit of light wool with matching accessories. A string of pearls was her only jewelry. Rapture roses and lilies-of-the-valley formed her corsage. Miss Jean Eschle, the bride's sister, was maid of honor and wore a light blue suit and white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Eschle, mother of the bride, wore a redingote outfit of deep rose with a corsage of rosebuds and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mr. Robert Elliott acted as best man. Mrs. Elizabeth Norris played the Mendelssohn wedding march.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Irving Dixon home. Guests were served at the dining table which was centered by pastel sweet peas and a three-tiered wedding cake, cut by the bride and served by Mrs. Elliott. Presiding at the coffee table were Miss Gayle Galloway and Miss Peggy Zissos. Others assisting were Mrs. Howard Grossen, Mrs. Bruce Staub and Miss Clarice Crowson.

Guests attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Grossen, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ashland Maid Weds In Church Ceremony

Helen Beth Horne Becomes Mrs. Don Haven Evans in Service Read June the Fifteenth

The First Methodist church of Ashland was the scene of a beautiful ceremony when Miss Helen Beth Horne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Earl Horne of Ashland, and Mr. Don Haven Evans, Klamath Falls, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Evans of Chiloquin, were married at four o'clock Sunday evening, June the fifteenth. Dr. George W. Bruce read the service in the presence of relatives and friends. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The church was a lovely setting for the ceremony. Above a bank of white flowers and greenery, seven candles were arranged as a pyramid, and at either side were ribbon festooned candles connected by a broad satin ribbon. Seasonal flowers in pastel shades and white were used in additional decorations.

Mrs. Frank Davis presided at the console. Miss Lolita Pierson was soloist. Preceding the entrance of the bridal party, "O, Promise Me," "De Koven," and "Evensong," Easthope Martin, were played, and Miss Pierson sang, "At Dawning." The Lohengrin wedding music was used as the processional, and Mendelssohn's wedding march as recessional. Miss Pierson also sang "Because," and "To a Wild Rose," was played softly during the ceremony.

Miss Flora Stokoe was maid of honor and Mr. Henry Evans, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Mr. John Murphy was usher.

The bride was lovely in an aqua blue redingote with white accessories, and corsage of gardenias, and Cecil Brunner roses. The maid of honor wore a beige dress, with navy blue and beige accessories. Her corsage was of roses and sweet peas. The bride's mother was in a dusty rose afternoon dress, navy blue accessories, and corsage of roses and sweet peas. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue chiffon redingote with white accessories and roses and sweet peas used in her corsage. The bride's grandmother, Mr. Abbie Harris, was in navy blue and white redingote with black accessories and corsage of sweet peas and roses.

The reception was held at the home of the bride, 492 Allison street. The three tiered silver white wedding cake topped by an arch and tiny bride and groom was cut by the bride. Miss Maxine Wise and Miss Anita Cooke presided at the table and Mrs. Paul H. Horne, sister-in-law of the bride served. Miss Edna C. Kennedy continued the cutting of the cake. Beautiful flowers were used in room decorations.

Following the reception the couple left for a week's honeymoon on the Oregon coast. They will be at home after June the twenty-third at 2850 Bisbee street, Klamath Falls, where Mr. Evans is employed in the distributing offices of the Shell Oil company.

The bride was graduated from the Ashland schools and the Southern Oregon College of Education and has taught for the past two years at Chiloquin. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Chiloquin high school and attended the University of Oregon. He was affiliated with Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Evans of Chiloquin; Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Horne and daughters, Janice and Paula of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Otis Roper and daughter Lois of Tulelake, California; Mr. Sam Evans, Chiloquin; Miss Maxine Wise of Prineville and Mr. Henry Evans of Chiloquin. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Horne, Mrs. Abbie Harris, Miss Anita Cooke, Mrs. E. C. Stokoe, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mearan, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Brown, John Murphy, Miss Flora Stokoe, Miss Edna Kennedy, Dr. and Mrs. George W. Bruce, Mrs. Frank Davis, and Miss Lolita Pierson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Evans are holding open house on Sunday, June the twenty-second at their home in Chiloquin from four o'clock until eight o'clock, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Evans. No special invitations have been issued, but all friends both old and new are invited.

Mrs. Ed Dalmer entertained a group of little friends in honor of the twelfth birthday of her daughter, Gloria, at their home on Owen street Saturday afternoon, June the seventh. Games were played and refreshments served to Barbara Burrows, Betty Adams, Nellie Tennesson, Ida Tennesson, Beatrice Morris, Jean Fryer, Shirley Daw, Gloria and Beverly Dalmer.
