

Sailors Offer Reds Free Passage Home

CONDON, Ore., June 25 (AP)—James Harvey Thomas, 22, sailor, will be given a preliminary hearing within the next few days in the death of Douglas Smith, 26, Seattle. Smith was shot to death en route from Idaho to the bedside of his desperately ill mother, Mrs. Freeman Smith, in Aberdeen. His body was discovered in a roadside ditch near Arlington, Ore., about the same time Thomas was arrested at Nepelem, Wash., and charged with forging Smith's name to gasoline credit slips.

Discovery of the body and arrest of Thomas ended a search that reached into three states. Thomas was brought to Arlington yesterday by Sheriff Casey Walker of Whitman county. He admitted quarreling with Smith, from whom he had thumbed a ride. He also admitted shooting at Smith once in evicting him from the car, Washington State Patrolman Fred Hofferber said yesterday. Gilliam County Attorney D.

R. Parker said he was delaying the hearing until Dr. Joseph Beeman of the state crime detection laboratory, completed an autopsy on Smith's body. Thomas is in the county jail here.

SEARCH CONTINUES
SALEM, June 25 (AP)—Weary searchers combed the Silver Falls district a third day for 10-year-old Betty McCullough today. The girl disappeared Sunday morning. Waist-high brush and a dense growth of ferns made search difficult.

The term of office of the president of France was for seven years.
