

SOCIETY

--- By LOIS STEWART

QUEEN ESTHER COLLMAN

PRINCESS WILMA OETJEN

PRINCESS DOLLIE CRISS

PRINCESS MAE LILLY

PRINCESS HARRIETT BRUNER

THE CLOUD OF DUST In the arena, the thrilling parade of horses and cowhands, professional and amateur, and the show is on! It's Klamath Buckaroo Days again and dates are close upon us—July fourth, fifth and six. Ruling over the celebration are six attractive young Klamath basin girls, every one of them from ranches not far from Klamath Falls. Chosen for their ability to ride as well as their beauty, these six will take an active part in the parades, the grand entry into the arena and represent the spirit of the Old West at functions during the coming week. Big hats off to these young Westerners!

PRINCESS ROSIE SUTY

THE QUEEN AND HER COURT—On the stairs, left to right, Queen Esther, Princess Rosie and Princess Dollie. Below, seated, Princess Wilma, and standing, left, Princess Harriett with the littlest of them all, Princess Mae.

—All pictures by Kennell-Ellis