

Miss Martin Weds S. W. Groesbeck

Informal Ceremony Solemnized in California City Last Friday Afternoon

A simple, informal wedding solemnized Friday afternoon, June the twentieth, at three o'clock in the manse of the First Presbyterian church at San Luis Obispo, California, united Miss Florence Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. William Martin of Walla Walla, Washington, and Mr. Stewart W. Groesbeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck of Klamath Falls. The marriage service was read by Rev. Frederick J. Hart.

The young couple was attended by the groom's parents who motored south for the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Whitman college and the Hanna-Burnett Music school at Walla Walla. She was prominent in student affairs at Whitman, affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, Mortar Board honorary, Delta Sigma Rho, debating organization, and Mu Phi Epsilon, music honorary. Since completing a year in the graduate school of business at Stanford university, Mrs. Groesbeck, a statistician, has held the position of internal auditor in the office of the Emporium at San Francisco. Both she and her husband have received their student pilot licenses in flying.

After completing his high school course here and two years at Whitman college, Stewart Groesbeck attended the University of California where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Following graduation he accepted a position with the California state highway department as a junior engineer and is located at San Luis Obispo for the present where he and his bride will make their home.

ALOHA TO DISCONTINUE SUMMER MEET

Aloha chapter No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, will discontinue meetings during July and August, as is the usual custom. At the meeting held Tuesday evening reports of grand chapter proceedings were made by Mrs. Oliver Spiker, worthy matron; Mrs. Charlotte Martin, associate matron; Mr. Leroy Erdmann, associate patron; Mrs. Walter F. Brown, member of Cascade Crest chapter, Chiloquin.

Mrs. Spiker told especially of the greater spirit of friendliness shown the up-state members. Mr. Erdmann told of the part Masonry is playing in the United Service Organization work of national defense. He spoke especially of the funds that are being raised to provide entertainment for soldiers who are Masons, as well as the sums Masons are contributing toward the welfare of all soldiers in the United States army.

Mrs. Jack Evans, clever monologist, entertained with comic stories and readings. Refreshments were served.

FAIRALLS COMPLIMENTED WEDNESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fairall, (Ethel Fenwick) were complimented by members of the Gaiety club and their husbands Wednesday evening when they surprised them at their home on Auburn street.

A Dutch supper was served later in the evening to Mr. and Mrs. Fairall, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl, Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lavienik, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hosking, Mr. and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Henriot, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur K. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kessler.

A silver tea set was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Fairall whose marriage in Sacred Heart church was an event of late May.

SOCIETY MEETS ON THURSDAY AT METHODIST CHURCH

A meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service was held in the parlors of the First Methodist church Thursday, preceded by a morning study session at ten o'clock, under the direction of Mrs. Paul Edwards when a review of the book, "China in Methodist World Missions" was completed.

Following a paper bag luncheon, the afternoon meeting opened at two o'clock with Mrs. Rachel Good in charge of devotions. Mrs. A. R. Hanson spoke on "Our Stewardship for Christian Citizenship," and a short report was given on the annual conference in Eugene last week. Music on the program was provided by Mrs. Edwin Schnebeck who entertained with a solo, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Glickson's group.

Club Discusses Timely Topic

Delegates Leaving for International Meet in Hollywood

Mrs. G. Logan Black in discussing the subject of "Do We Need a Mass Army?", at the meeting of the Toastmistress club on Monday evening at Mrs. Nord's tea room, stated that Germany's forces of 150,000 men, in cooperation with airplanes, defeated France's army of five million, an old-style mass army.

Mrs. Emmett Chidister in her talk told of the progress of war equipment, and third featured speaker spoke of "The Army of Today." These talks were followed by two-minute talks by the other members, and all discussed the article in a recent issue of the Reader's Digest. Mrs. Helen Mueller presided during this part of the program.

The topic of birth control was discussed at the dinner table, with all members presenting their views informally. Mrs. Russell Peterson presided as dinner chairman. Each member also presented an interesting fact in response to roll call.

The Klamath Falls Toastmistress club was honored in a recent letter received by the president, Mrs. Walter Brown, from Mrs. Edrie Chatterley, secretary of the International Toastmistress club, inviting Mrs. W. H. Hibbard, club coach to be one of the speakers on the program at the annual convention in Hollywood on July the third, fourth, fifth and sixth. The local club will be one of the youngest represented at the international meeting, it being the first organized in Oregon. Delegates will be in attendance from all over the United States, and those planning to attend from here will leave the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Carl Schubert was received into the club as a new member. The evening's critic was Mrs. Walter Brown, and remarks were made by the coach, Mrs. W. H. Hibbard.

Mrs. R. K. Schouboe and Mrs. J. H. Poppy plan to motor to Bend this weekend where they will spend Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Schouboe is rapidly recovering from the effects of a broken arm that she suffered several weeks ago.

PORTLAND VISITOR

Visiting in Klamath Falls is Alan Zhenbauer, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Zhenbauer of Portland. Mother is the former Ruth Vannice of this city, and Alan is spending a week with his aunt, Miss Anna Metcalf of Pine street, during his parents' absence in San Francisco.

—Kennell-Ellis.

MRS. STEWART W. GROESBECK

Mrs. Stewart W. Groesbeck (Florence Martin), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. William Martin of Walla Walla, Washington, and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck of this city, whose marriage was solemnized at San Luis Obispo, California on Friday afternoon, June the twentieth. Since completing a graduate business administration course at Stanford university, Mrs. Groesbeck was a member of the office staff at the Emporium in San Francisco until her marriage.

LIONESS CLUB HAS LUNCHEON

The last meeting of the season of the Lioness club was held June the eighteenth when a no-hostess luncheon was given at Hickman's. The tables were lovely with spring flowers and each guest was presented with a corsage of rosebuds.

A very interesting report of the state convention which was held in Baker, Oregon, was given by Mrs. Paul Skeen. Those attending were Mrs. Ted Shoop, Mrs. Fred Heilbronner, Mrs. Ed Robinson, Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. Philip White, Mrs. Carl Mason, Mrs. Denton J. Rees, Mrs. H. Wheeler, Mrs. Allen Otto, Mrs. Vern Owens, Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Paul Skeen, Mrs. A. T. Penzel and the guest of honor, Mrs. Lotie Currin.

DeLaps Will Observe Day

Prominent Klamath Couple to Have Anniversary

The fifty-seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeLap will be observed by members of the family and scores of old friends on Sunday, June the twentieth, at the residence at 605 Eldorado.

Earlier in the day, at the eleven o'clock service at the First Baptist church, Mr. and Mrs. DeLap will be given special recognition by the pastor and the congregation. Mr. DeLap is one of the four living charter members of the church which he has served faithfully these many years and at the present is senior deacon.

FINAL PARTY OF SERIES HELD BY REBEKAH CLUB

The Rebekah Social club met in the IOOF hall Wednesday afternoon, June the twentieth, when a half-past one o'clock dessert was followed by the third and final of the pinchle series. Mrs. Stella Dryden and Mrs. Lucille Helfer were the committee in charge.

Prize for high was awarded to Mrs. Bessie Peterson, second high to Mrs. Kate Hogue and the special prize to Mrs. Laura Bacon. Grand prize for the series went to Mrs. Maude Shuey.

A business meeting followed cards when the following officers were elected: Mrs. Stella Dryden, president; Mrs. Frances Munsell, vice president; Mrs. Lucille Helfer, secretary, and Mrs. Cora Gehrke, treasurer. The next meeting will be held in the IOOF hall at half past one o'clock Wednesday, July the eighth.

PAST MATRONS MEET FRIDAY FOR BRIDGE LUNCHEON

About twenty-six members of the Past Matrons club, OES, enjoyed a potluck luncheon and bridge at the Masonic temple Friday afternoon when the committee in charge included Mrs. Earl Smith, Mrs. C. E. Dennis, Mrs. Oscar Peyton and Mrs. H. G. Wortley.

Mrs. H. F. Murdoch received honors for high. Mrs. L. F. Willis, low and Mrs. J. I. Beard, traveling.

Club Adjourns For Vacation

Ann Rife Pictures Tour Of Europe Previous to War

The business session of the Klamath Falls Soroptimist club Thursday noon, presided over by Mrs. Ruby Lyle, president, was the final regular meeting until after the summer vacation season, although members are planning to gather for informal luncheons.

It was voted to dispense with the annual picnic this year, inasmuch as the Soroptimists feel that funds ordinarily used for this purpose are needed elsewhere in defense work.

At last week's meeting members were taken on a trip to Europe by the guest speaker, Ann Rife of Modoc Point, who described a specially conducted tour of Europe that she enjoyed before the outbreak of the war. She was introduced by Mrs. Coral Sabo.

The speaker described many of the picturesque old castles and the cities where she especially noted the lack of skyscrapers, allowing a clear view of the city, and the quiet, well-organized traffic.

Of the entire tour she considered the city of Budapest the most beautiful, she said. Mrs. Rife saw Germany then as a well-kept, orderly country, with very little evidence of the impending war except the Jewish persecution, but she particularly noticed the serious, never-smiling faces of the militarists.

MALIN CLUB VISITS FLOCK GARDEN

Mrs. J. Fred Flock was hostess on Friday morning of last week to members of the Malin Garden club who motored to Klamath Falls to visit her garden, and enjoy the collection of costumed dolls owned by Mrs. Flock's daughter, Margaret. Later a picnic was served in Moore park.

During the afternoon the club members were guests of Mrs. W. P. Myers at Lakeshore Gardens where they were shown about. Making the trip were Mrs. Everett Jones, Mrs. John Loosely, Mrs. James Ottoman, Mrs. Teresa McComb, Mrs. Richard Hensel, Mrs. Antone Petrasek, Mrs. Edwin Petrasek, Mrs. John Reber, Mrs. Lee Quartier, Mrs. A. W. Schultz, Mrs. C. H. Johnson, Mrs. Joseph Watkins, Miss Marie Watkins, and Miss June Watkins.

OES SOCIAL CLUB TO MEET TUESDAY INSTEAD OF FRIDAY

Due to the Fourth of July holiday, the next meeting of the Eastern Star Social club is announced for Tuesday afternoon, July the first, instead of the usual Friday meeting, and will be held at the Masonic temple at the usual time.

Hostesses for the afternoon are announced as Mrs. Frank Ira White, Mrs. Carleton Hornbrook, Mrs. Jacob Heid and Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz. All visiting members of Eastern Star are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin and children, Betty Roe and Charles Jr., returned this week from a week's vacation trip to Portland and along the Oregon coast.

James F. Maguire Jr., has returned to his home in Fresno, California after visiting his father, Mr. J. F. Maguire of Pine street.

VISITORS AT VAN EMON HOME

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Van Emon, 1940 Melrose street, have their three children as their guests this June. Miss Betty Van Emon, home from Washington, D. C., is shown with her brothers, Walter Jr., also from Washington, and Midshipman Carl Van Emon of Annapolis, who will be graduated in December this year.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Compliments Guest During Past Week

Parties and Teas Given for Mrs. Lorenzo Morris By Klamath Falls Hostesses

Despite "unusual" weather in Klamath Falls, which means sunshine, thunder showers, a dash of lightning and a sprinkle of hail the social whirl has continued and a much feted visitor is Mrs. Lorenzo T. Morris of Watertown, South Dakota who is here with her daughter, Barbara Ann, as guests of the Franklin L. Weavers on Auburn street.

JUNE BRIDE

Attractive Darlene Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren, became Mrs. Gerald Chester Wolff in a ceremony read in the Chiloquin Methodist church June the twenty-fourth.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Boys Are Honored

Klamath Folks To Make Home in Northern City

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Howard Boyd, who will leave the first of July to make their home in Portland, thirty five members and guests of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company enjoyed a dinner party at Cal-Ore tavern Thursday evening.

Covers were laid on a large table centered with bowls of spring flowers. Mr. Herschel Morris was master of ceremonies at the party and presented Mrs. Boyd with a corsage, and Mr. Boyd with a pen and pencil set. Dancing followed the dinner.

Mr. Boyd will be affiliated with the Portland office of the company, his advancement announced this past week. Regret is felt over their departure. Mrs. Boyd has served as executive secretary of the Klamath county chapter of the American Red Cross and both have been active in civic organizations in the city for the past few years.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Brown entertained with a dinner party Monday evening, June the twenty-third, at their home near Olene, in honor of their son, Barton Dennis, who celebrated his second birthday.

A pink and blue motif was used on the lace-covered table, centered by garden flowers, at which places were set for his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Setzer, the young guest of honor and host and hostess.

Mrs. E. M. Igl and Mrs. John Houston entertained with a theatre party at the Pine Tree Wednesday at one o'clock this week honoring Mrs. Morris. Later the guests were bidden to the Houston home on Pacific Terrace, where a punch was served from a prettily appointed table centered with a bowl of pink roses. Twenty were invited for the afternoon.

Mrs. Weaver has entertained informally for her house guest on several occasions. On Thursday of last week a group of old friends who met Mrs. Morris on her visit here several years ago, were asked in for tea. Mrs. Frances R. Olds presided at the tea table. Thursday afternoon of this week Mrs. Weaver invited a group in for luncheon followed by bridge. Her guests were Mrs. Morris and daughter, Barbara Ann, Mrs. Howard Barnhisel, Mrs. B. E. Hayden, Mrs. E. A. Geary, Mrs. John Harris Jr., Mrs. Frank Jenkins, and Miss Mary Jane Jenkins.

For Mrs. Morris' pleasure early last week Mrs. Lawrence Slater entertained her at luncheon, and numerous other affairs were given for the visitor.

On Wednesday of this week Mrs. Beauford E. Hayden entertained at a prettily appointed luncheon for Mrs. Morris. Covers were laid for eight guests and bridge followed.

Mrs. David R. Vandenberg and Mrs. Samuel P. Miller entertained with a supper party for Mrs. Morris on Thursday evening at the home of the latter. Bridge followed with high score held by Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, second high by Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, low by Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, and traveling by Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany. Mrs. Morris was presented with a gift from the hostesses. Three tables were in play.

Mr. Morris is expected here this coming week to join his family and they will remain until after the Fourth of July, a part of the time to be spent at the Weaver cabin at Lake O' the Woods.

MADELON ADLER PLAYS ORGAN AT HEATHMAN

Dr. and Mrs. George H. Adler and their three children, George Madelon and Shelia, returned the early part of the week from the Oregon coast where Mrs. Adler and the children have spent a two week's vacation.

In Portland the Adlers were guests at the Heathman hotel and ten-year-old Madelon played a thirty minute concert Saturday evening on the Heathman organ. It was during the dinner hour and the applause was most sincere. Madelon is the music pupil of Mrs. E. D. Johnson and those who have heard her anticipate an interesting future. Madelon received many compliments from those who enjoyed her half-hour program at the organ.

STANLEY PICNIC PLANS ANNOUNCED

Of interest to former residents of Stanley, Wisconsin, and the Stanley vicinity is announcement of the annual picnic scheduled for Sunday, July the twenty-seventh, in Moore park.

The affair will be held throughout the day with potluck luncheon, games and music. All interested persons are invited.

Mrs. Moty Party Hostess

Mrs. Norman Moty entertained Wednesday evening of this week for the pleasure of her sister, Mrs. L. V. Espey of Prineville, who is visiting here with her two children, David and Laurene. Guests were Mrs. Jack Fitzgerald, Mrs. Nate Thornton and Mrs. Kenneth Hout. Mrs. Espey and children will leave Sunday for Medford to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jens Jensen.

Mrs. Harold R. Crane of 521 Alameda street was called to Duluth, Minnesota this week end upon receiving the word of her mother's passing. Mr. Crane and two sons, Donald and Wesley, accompanied Mrs. Crane by motor to Reno and from there she took the plane east.