

Lions Dinner Party Event of Tuesday

Installation of New Officers Takes Place at Cal-Ore Dinner and Dancing Party

More than one hundred Lions and Lionesses enjoyed a gala party at Cal-Ore tavern Tuesday evening when the annual installation of officers was observed by both groups. Past District Governor Leland Knox of Medford, with Mrs. Knox, were installing officers.

The patriotic theme of red, white and blue, was used effectively in the decorations. Flowers of those shades, miniature American flags, and red and blue streamers against the white linen background of the table, made it one of the most attractive parties given by the organization. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Otto were in charge, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hooker and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Thompson.

Installed as officers of the Lions club were, Mr. Clarence Humble, president; Mr. John Cusick, vice president; Mr. Everett Vanderpool, secretary; Mr. Clifford Voight, Lion tamer, and Mr. Roland Wright, tall twister. New directors, Mr. Myrie Adams, and Mr. Allen Otto.

Lioness officers are, Mrs. Paul Skeen, president; Mrs. Ed Robinson, vice president; Mrs. Matt Finnigan, secretary; Mrs. Carl Mason, and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger, new directors.

Past president's pins were presented to Mrs. Ted Shoop and Mr. Walter Wiesendanger who ended their year's work as heads of Lioness and Lions clubs. Gifts were also presented from the two groups.

A floor show was presented by the Muldovan school, Gloria Sladin in a Lion's tap dance, and Barbara Moore in a waltz. Eddie Burrows gave several vocal numbers.

Master of ceremonies was Mr. Otto, and the meeting was opened by the retiring president, Mr. Wiesendanger.

An interesting report was given on the district convention at Baker by Mr. Paul Skeen. Mrs. Wiesendanger and Mr. Dale Smith received awards.

KENO MATRON HONOR GUEST ON BIRTHDAY

Elva Stone Weds Sunday

Ceremony Read June Fifteenth at Bride's Home

Miss Elva Mae Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Stone, became the bride of Mr. Walter Verne McGuire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. McGuire, in a pretty home wedding on Sunday afternoon, June the fifteenth. Rev. Hugh Bronson officiated.

The bride was attired in a light blue traveling suit and wore a corsage of rose buds and gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lois Stone. The bride is a native of Kansas where she received her early education which was completed in Klamath Falls where she has made her home with her parents in recent years.

The groom is a native of Oregon, his parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. McGuire now making their home in Medford, and he has received his formal education in this state. He and his bride will make their home in Klamath Falls. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Warren G. McGuire.

Following the wedding ceremony which was read by the Rev. Hugh Bronson, a wedding luncheon was given in honor of the young people with places for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Verne McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Book, Miss Phyllis Book, Miss Sylvia Book, Miss Peggy Book, Miss Karmyl Smith, Mr. Clifford Stone, Mr. Lee Smith, and Mr. Terry Smith.

CONTRACT CLUB ENTERTAINED BY MRS. RAY JONES

The Thursday Contract club met the afternoon of June the twenty-sixth when Mrs. Ray Jones entertained at her home on Lincoln street. Cards followed the luncheon hour and honors at the close of play were awarded to Mrs. Pearl Yorkland, high; Mrs. Stella Dryden, second high and Mrs. Arthur Bradford, traveling.

Mrs. Helen Anderson and Mrs. Arthur Bradford were guests for the afternoon, and other members present were Mrs. Clara McPherrin, Mrs. Bertha Hewitt, Mrs. Myrtle Dunham and the hostess.

The club will meet on Friday afternoon, July the eleventh, at the home of Mrs. McPherrin in St. Francis park.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harris Jr., and two children, Mary Kay and Jackie, and Mrs. Alfred S. Wilcox of Portland, enjoyed a motor trip to Medford Saturday, returning through Crater Lake national park.

HOUSE GUEST IN KLAMATH

Miss Ruth Kelley, of Howard, South Dakota, is spending two months in Klamath Falls as the guest of Miss Joyce Sample (right), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sample of this city. The Samples have recently returned from an interesting motor trip through the middle west and enjoyed stops at the various national parks.

Spring Tournament Play Ends Friday

Winners in Blind Handicap Game Announced as Season Closes at Reames Golf Club

The spring season ended at Reames Golf and Country club for the women's auxiliary when the blind handicap tournament, luncheon and cards planned for Friday brought to a close all activities until early September.

Partners for the blind handicap were drawn and following a morning of play winners were Mrs. William Grove and Mrs. William Dinsmore.

Cards followed and winners for last week were announced as Mrs. John Martin and Miss Ada Christopher, north and south, Mrs. Lafayette Stephens and Mrs. Earl Weimer, east and west. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. John Shaw, Mrs. James Bush, and Mrs. Mair Reymers. They presided over a punch bowl before luncheon was served. An excellent attendance was noted Friday.

Women of Reames are advised that despite the fact the spring schedule is over, they may play during the summer and turn in their scores as awards will be made for five-game scores during the months of July and August.

KLAMATH FOLKS FALL VICTIMS TO AILMENT

If the names of patients, both old and young, appeared under the list of those down with the mumps it would read like a who's-who in Klamath Falls.

Not only the youngsters, but the oldsters as well, have fallen victim to the latest onslaught of the jowl-puffing ailment and to some it hasn't been the least bit funny what with doctor calls a-plenty, packs and prescriptions.

The last in a series of four card parties being sponsored by the Royal Neighbors of America will be held Wednesday afternoon, July the second, at a quarter past one o'clock at the IOOF hall. Members and friends are invited to attend.

A regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America is announced for Wednesday evening at the IOOF hall at eight o'clock. There will be no initiation as formerly scheduled.

Complimenting the recent bride were Miss DeLorraine Markwardt, Miss Miriam Allen, Miss Jewell Fagan, Miss Fern Janssen, Miss Wanda Albert, Miss Pat Zimmerman, Miss Lona Martin and Miss Arlene Allen, all of Chilquien.

An afternoon of sewing for the Red Cross and neighborhood tea will be held at the home of Miss Mary Eckstein, 2338 Garden avenue on Wednesday, July the second, at two o'clock. This is a project of the Congregational Community circle.

Tulelake Girl Weds

Well Known Maid Married to Palo Alto Resident

Of interest to the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tillotson of Tulelake, well known residents of that section, is announcement of the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Agnes Tillotson, to Mr. Kenneth W. Roberts of Palo Alto on June the eighteenth. The following is from the Tulelake Reporter:

Just three days after they graduated from Stanford University, Miss Elizabeth Agnes Tillotson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tillotson, of Tulelake, and Kenneth W. Roberts of Palo Alto, were united in marriage at the Stanford Memorial chapel. The wedding rites, celebrated at high noon Wednesday, June 18, were read by Dr. D. Elton Trueblood, university chaplain, and Dr. Warren D. Allen played the wedding music.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Edna Folsom of Carson City, a classmate of the bride, sang a song which she composed especially for Miss Tillotson, and for which Dr. Allen wrote the music.

The ceremony was simple and informal, both bride and bridegroom being unattended. The bride wore a white eyelet pique frock; large white, halo style hat and a corsage of white orchids.

Besides the immediate families of the contracting parties, only a small group of relatives and school friends were present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Tillotson went to Palo Alto a week before to be present at Commencement exercises, and attended the wedding.

Immediately after the ceremony the newlyweds left for Carmel to spend their honeymoon, and upon their return will be at home at 1332 Shattuck avenue, Berkeley, where they will reside for a time. Mr. Roberts has accepted a position with the Pabco Paint company of Oakland.

Both bride and groom received AB degrees at Commencement exercises held in the open air theatre at Stanford Sunday, June 15. The bride's course was in the division of education and graphic arts. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roberts of Palo Alto. His brother Howard and sister Muriel, are also students at Stanford. At the university Mr. Roberts has won Phi Beta Kappa honors and has been house manager of his fraternity, Alpha Sigma Phi.

SHOWER GIVEN WEDNESDAY FOR MRS. BURKLAND

Mrs. Don Burkland was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles M. Reynolds on White avenue. Mrs. A. G. Pearson assisted as hostess. The afternoon was spent in Red Cross sewing after which gifts from a table prettily decorated with baby-breath were presented the guest of honor. Snapdragons and other summer flowers were used about the room.

Friends honoring Mrs. Burkland were Mrs. J. C. Marin, Mrs. M. E. Bagley, Mrs. S. R. Berry, Mrs. A. W. Hammel, Miss Marjorie Redmond, Mrs. H. A. Staus, Mrs. Margaret Flick of Gunnison, Colorado, Mrs. W. L. Larson, Mrs. H. J. McGilvray, Mrs. W. C. Little, Mrs. Etna Gentry, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. Z. W. Dixon, Mrs. W. R. Nelson, Mrs. Nace Redmond, Mrs. J. J. Pex and daughter, Janice, Miss Charlene Reynolds and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kuykendall are receiving congratulations over the birth of a son, their first boy and second child. The baby arrived at Klamath Valley hospital June the twenty-fourth and has been named John William. Mrs. Kuykendall is the former Alisa Massey, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George A. Massey.

BIRTHDAY

It is easy to remember Bonnie Jean's birthday anniversary as it falls on July the fourth. She will be one year old on that day. Bonnie Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Thompson of this city.

Auxiliary Elects

Mrs. Floyd Henriot Named President of Legion Group

The American Legion auxiliary at their regular meeting on June the seventeenth elected the following officers for the year beginning July the first: Mrs. Floyd Henriot, president; Mrs. J. H. Gallagher, first vice president; Mrs. Carl Schubert, second vice president; Miss Clarice Forness, secretary and treasurer; (Miss Forness was a Junior auxiliary president for the past year and is the first Junior member to hold office in the senior auxiliary); Mrs. Robert McGehehey, historian; Mrs. Donald Peck, chaplain. Outgoing president, Mrs. S. F. Konnie, will be Junior past president.

Delegates to the state convention to be held in Eugene are Mrs. Konnie, Mrs. Henriot, Mrs. Gallagher, Mrs. Schubert and Mrs. Effie Paul. Certificates will be awarded to all members finishing the American Red Cross staff assistance course under supervision of the auxiliary members by Mrs. Howard Boyd of the American Red Cross.

Installation of officers will be held at the American Legion hall Tuesday evening, July the first. Installing officer will be state treasurer, Mrs. Earl J. Templar. Mrs. Konnie is chairman of the program committee and Mrs. Calvin Hunt is chairman of the refreshment committee. All auxiliary and Legion members are requested to be present.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

FORT KLAMATH — William Roy Zumburn, son and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zumburn of Fort Klamath, celebrated his second birthday on Friday, June the thirteenth, and had no bad luck of any kind during the day in spite of the supposedly unlucky date. Little "Bubbe" received many lovely gifts and a birthday cake with two candles was cut in his honor.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED AT FORT KLAMATH

Ingram Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Montgomery, celebrated his sixth birthday Tuesday, June the twenty-fourth, by inviting the boys of his kindergarten class to a party. Present were David Weatherford, John Cusick, Richard Swanson, Maxwell Lenz, Jerry Lee Arnett, Ernest Dennis, William Budd, Edgar Tomlin, Jackie Hall and Ingram Montgomery, also John Budd and Ingram's four brothers Arthur, Donald, Sammie and David.

State Regent Pays Visit to Eulalona

Mrs. Howard P. Arnest of Portland Visits Local Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution

Four state officers of the Oregon Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, were present at the special meeting of Eulalona chapter, held Friday evening June the twentieth, at the Elk hotel. These were: Mrs. Howard P. Arnest, state regent; Mrs. William Horstall, state vice regent; Mrs. U. G. Smith, state chairman of approved schools; Mrs. E. K. Scott, state chairman of national defense; Mrs. A. L. Berkeley, state corresponding secretary. Other out of town guests were: Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Micell from the Roseburg chapter.

Brief talks were made by the visitors. Mrs. Scott talked about the dangers of subversive literature; Mrs. Smith told of the approved schools supported by the National Society; Mrs. Arnest gave a complete report of the outstanding events of the Continental Congress, held at Washington, D. C. during the week of April the nineteenth.

Mrs. Arnest was among the Oregonians present when the Oregon Bell was dedicated at Valley Forge Memorial Carillon. She also visited Tamassee school, which is entirely supported by the DAR and is in North Carolina. The National Society, according to Mrs. Arnest, is emphasizing the importance of a better understanding of South American countries, and chapters in Oregon and all other states are asked to make this study an outstanding feature of their programs for this coming year.

Mrs. Irene Foster, chapter regent, presided at the meeting. Donald Eitrem, pupil at Mills school, member of Junior American Citizens, received a medal for good citizenship from the hands of the state regent. His mother was present to witness the presentation.

The state officers left Saturday morning for Lakeview where a new chapter was organized at the Schimck Museum, which is to be the chapter house. Mrs. Lora T. Conn is the regent for the new chapter; Mrs. Lulu Schimck, vice regent; Mrs. Mildred Ferrall, registrar; Mrs. Cora B. Follett, historian; Mrs. Thula Rogers, chaplain; Mrs. Beatrice Calderwood, secretary; Mrs. Janice Alger, treasurer; Mrs. Eva Lutz, librarian. The organization starts with fourteen members and six applications pending before the National Society.

Members of Eulalona chapter who were at the Lakeview meeting were: Mrs. G. Logan Black, Mrs. Robert Odell, Mrs. William Owsley and Mrs. Irene Foster. Mrs. Arnest will pay an official visit to Eulalona chapter at the first meeting after summer vacation, September the eighth. Members of the Lakeview chapter will be guests of Eulalona chapter at this fall meeting.
