the strafing of the Nazi Luftwaffe, while German and Finnish armies rolled across the U. S. S. R. from Finland in a new drive toward Leningrad, Russia's second biggest city.

A German war bulletin asserted the red armies were falling back east of Lwow, in former Poland, and east of German-captured Minsk, the capital of white Russia, and were retreating toward Estonia.

"Units of the Hungarian army advancing from the Carpathian passes into Galicia joined the German army on schedule," the Nazi communique said.

LONDON, July 2 (AP)—American fliers in the Eagle squadron were credited with bagging three of a total of 17 German planes claimed by the RAF today in a series of daylight raids on northern France.

Strong RAF forces smashed across the channel late this morning and squadrons of fighters and bombers still were streaking over northern France during the afternoon, following up a night attack in which British bombers were said to have straddled the dock of a German battleship at Brest.

The RAF acknowledged that two bombers and seven fighters were lost in the daylight sweeps, the first large scale offensive against occupied France in which the American Eagle squadron was reported taking part.

LONDON, July 2 (AP)—Measures taken by the German army in Norway suggest that big troop movements are under way in the northern part of the country, according to authoritative Norwegian sources in London.

They said that a state of emergency had been declared by the Germans throughout northern Norway with freight traffic on the railroads considerably reduced.

(This might be in connection with the invasion of Russia from Finland; it might be preparation for an attempt to invade England.)

U. S. Marines in London to Guard American Embassy

LONDON, July 2 (AP)—Arrival of 51 United States marines under the command of Captain John B. Hill to take over guard duties at the United States embassy was announced officially today.

The marines are to be quartered outside London for a few days, it was said, and then transferred to billets near the embassy to relieve armed London Bobbies who have been guarding the diplomatic headquarters.

The marines arrived yesterday at a British port. Survivors of the former Dutch steamer Maarsden, which was sunk while taking marines and American Red Cross nurses to England, are expected here shortly.

To Army School

—Kennell-Ellis, First Sergeant George Kinney, young Klamath Falls national guardmen, this week left for Fort Monroe, Va., to attend an artillery officers' candidates' school. He was the only man selected from Fort Stevens, Ore., where he is stationed, to attend the school.

Lindy Flays U. S. Alliance With Russia

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2 (UP)—Charles A. Lindbergh warned last night against any step that might lead the United States into an alliance with Russia.

"I would a hundred times rather see my country ally herself with England, or even with Germany with all her faults," the famous flier said in a nationwide broadcast from San Francisco's Civic auditorium, "than with the cruelty, the Godlessness and the barbarism that exists in Soviet Russia."

"An alliance between the United States and Russia should be opposed by every American, by every Christian, and by every humanitarian in this country."

Speaking under auspices of the America First committee, Lindbergh, one of America's leading isolationists, reiterated his charge that interventionists were deliberately confusing the American people to draw the United States into the war.

U. S. Senator Worth Clark, (D-Ida.), and Lillian Gish, screen and stage actress, also addressed the meeting.

Lindbergh said Russia and Germany would have had it in two years ago "had it not been for the interventionist interference of England and France."

"Instead of pushing her (Germany) on to Russia," Lindbergh said, "they (Anglo-French interventionists) drew the German onslaught to their own countries... and brought the defeat of France and the devastation of England."

"The United States," Lindbergh told his audience, "is at the crossroad in its history. The war party advocates that we give up the independence our forefathers won, and that we merge our destiny again with the nations of the old world, taking on our shoulders all the wars and quarrels and problems that have been theirs for a thousand years."

Reserved Seats Selling Fast for Buckaroo Show

Reserved seats were going like "hot cakes," according to O. D. Matthews, president of Klamath Buckaroo Days. Due to the fact more than 1900 soldiers will be in Klamath Falls "over the Fourth," it is wise for townspeople to make their reservations early, Matthews stated.

Among those who have reserved seats are W. E. Lamm of Modoc Point who has taken a box for each of the three days, R. R. Macartney, another box holder, Hugh Campbell, Dr. J. M. Hilton, the A. J. Voyes, Charles Drew of Merrill, and members of the Ellingson-Wiesendanger party which will include 12 rodeo fans on July 4.

merely that "a decision was taken at an imperial conference held this morning on important national policies to meet the current international situation."

Matsuoka offered this amplification: "It goes without saying that the situation arising from the German-Soviet war can not be met with such a simple idea as to think of it merely as the outbreak of war between Germany and the Soviet."

"We therefore intend to watch the development of the situation with the greatest care and preparations in which we can place our confidence as well as with firm determination. We must at the same time pay constant attention not only to developments surrounding the war but to the situation over the world as well as the trend of individual powers and the state of affairs among them."

New Equipment Service Opens

A new service agency for adding machines, cash registers, scales, and all other small office machinery has been opened at 2937 South 6th, by E. S. "Buck" Buckner. The new shop, called the Equipment Service Company, has just moved into a new hollow tile building which has just been finished.

Buckner has been in the cash register and office machine service business for the past 28 years, with National Cash Register and others. He has been associated with Oregon Equipment until the opening of his own business.

FAILURE TO STOP BRINGS FINE OF $100

John Johansen, southend cafe operator, was fined $100 in Justice Joseph A. Mahoney's court when he pleaded guilty of a charge of failing to stop at the scene of an accident. A drunken driving charge against Johansen was dismissed.

William John Burke pleaded innocence on a charge of drunken driving on South Sixth street. The trial date has been set for 10 a. m. July 11.

Accused of driving 70 miles an hour in a 55-mile zone on South Sixth street, Alson Ralph Oglethorpe was taken into court for alleged violation of the basic rule.

William Thome was accused on the same charge, officers alleging he drove 60 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone.

In both the Oglethorpe and Thome cases, guilty pleas were entered and fines of $25 were imposed, with $10 suspended.

BROTHERS HELD ON TENNESSEE CHARGE

Freeman and Virgil Graham, brothers, were arrested late Tuesday by Sheriff Lloyd Low for Lebanon, Tennessee, authorities, who informed the sheriff the brothers are under indictment for robbery, assault and battery with intent to commit murder.

The Grahams were arrested by the sheriff in a potato field near Merrill, where they have been employed by Joe Steele. They did not resist, but when taken to the county jail declined to sign a waiver for extradition to Tennessee.

Sheriff Low said he received a letter from Lebanon authorities asserting that the Graham brothers saved their way out of the Lebanon jail, almost killed a turnkey, and escaped.

The brothers, however, declared they "bought" their way out of the jail, and in order to make it look like a bona fide escape the jailer permitted them to tie him up.

They also averred they were innocent of the robbery charges against them. The Grahams have families and have been living at Main for about six months. They will be held here for further action by Tennessee authorities.

such machines—to pinball and other gambling devices. He said the committee was advised by the treasury that penny vending machines in many cases would not take in, in the course of a year, as much as the tax originally proposed. In the case of machines vending merchandise only, the proposed tax was $5 yearly.

who arrives more than a day before the show. To these boys the ground on the Klamath arena floor is familiar even though hard landing.

Rodeo Dance

Officially the rodeo begins Thursday night when Director Elmer Hosking puts over the first of a series of three cowboy dances in the exhibit building at the fairgrounds. Dances will continue both Friday and Saturday nights.

Next on the program is the big parade slated for 10:30 o'clock sharp Friday morning, July 4. There will be a cowboy parade in which local riders will participate at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, but plans for a Sunday parade have been cancelled by the rodeo committee.

Costly Outfit

Added parade attraction is "Silver," the white Arabian stallion owned by I. H. Pomeroy of San Francisco, one of the five contractors of the San Francisco bay bridge. The silver mounted saddle which "Silver" will wear, is loaned for the Fourth of July parade by L. C. Smith, prominent Redding, Calif., attorney and breeder of Morgan and Palomino horses. The saddle is valued at $5000 and the horse at $2000, according to Buckaroo officials here. The horse is now at the C. V. Barton ranch in Poe valley and Barton will ride "Silver" in both parades. Both Pomeroy and Smith will be here for the show.

George Blanas is making preparations for an interesting parade feature with American and Greek flags as the backgrounds.

Through the compliments of Dr. Wayne MacAtee, young Dicky Buerstle, 10, of Walla Walla, Wash., will appear during the three-day show on his Shetland pony. Dickey is no mean trick rider himself and should rival Carol Henry, professional performer, with the tricks up his Shetland's nosebag.

During the Fourth of July celebration Chet Barton will exhibit a four-horse hitch, and with this event on that day, as well as the other two days of the show he will exhibit two prize stallions.

July 4th Preview Injures Five, Tears Out Side of House

TACOMA, July 2 (AP)—A Fourth of July celebration preview injured five persons, sent three of them to a hospital severely burned and bruised, and blew out a wall of the home of Glen M. Belts today.

Charles Belts, Eddie Warner and Ray Sather, all about 18 years old, appeared at the Belts' home this morning with double explosion aerial bomb, which they said they had found in an adjoining vacant house.

The boys placed the explosive in the Belts' family bathtub and played at pretending to light it. The match, however, held by young Belts accidentally touched the fuse.

Pierce county officers reported the resulting explosion blew the children through the bathroom door, severely burned Mrs. Belts, who was working in the house, and threw Glen Lee Belts, 6, out of bed in an adjoining room. One wall of the house was blown out, and the other three loosened.

Mrs. Belts, her son and young Sather, were taken to a hospital for treatment of burns and bruises.

Eagle Corps—A special meeting of the Eagles drum corps was called for 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.
