

City Briefs

Visitors—Friends were greeting Mr. and Mrs. Junior Daggett, two daughters, Mrs. Hiram Mersereau and son, "Sandy", and Miss Lisbeth Ann Daggett, who were here Tuesday and Wednesday from their homes in Prineville. Lisbeth Ann is remaining for the holidays as the guest of the E. M. Bubb family on High street. The Daggetts and Mersereaus left Wednesday afternoon for their summer home at Lake Odell where Hiram Mersereau will join his family during the Fourth of July weekend.

Library Closed—Patrons of the city library are advised the building will be closed all day July 4, and will be open from 2 p. m. to 9 p. m. only on Saturday and Sunday for the purpose of reading and returning books. No books will be loaned at this time.

Returns Home—Mrs. Gordon S. Gore has returned from the Woodland Clinic hospital where she recently submitted to major surgery. Her sister, Mrs. Ora Williams, nurse from Martinez, Calif., is caring for Mrs. Gore who will be confined to her bed for another 10 days.

In Merrill—Margaret Beltschen, resident of Fargo, N. D., has spent the past week visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Bogue at their home near Merrill. Miss Beltschen will leave Saturday for her home where she is a physical education instructor in the Fargo high school. She will make the trip east by way of California and Mexico.

Passes Examination—Robert B. Chilcote, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Chilcote, was among those who passed the recent certified public accountant examination in Portland, according to word received here. Young Chilcote is now employed in the accounting department of the Vega Aircraft company near Los Angeles.

On Vacation—Mrs. Frank Evans is enjoying a vacation from her duties at Moe's store. She is anticipating a visit from her three grandchildren, Gary, Jon and Jimmy Chezem, who will arrive for the Fourth of July holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Chezem of Canby, Ore. The Evans live at 1740 Wall street.

Expected Here—Friends of Mrs. Nellie J. Hansberry, former resident of Klamath Falls, will be interested to learn she is expected here to visit relatives and friends the latter part of this month. Mrs. Hansberry has been making her home in Ocean Park, Calif.

To Eugene—Mrs. Harry A. Lindemood and daughters Ethel, are spending the next week or 10 days in Eugene before returning to their home in Weyerhaeuser. Mr. Lindemood's funeral was held in the valley city this past Tuesday.

Dismissed—Mrs. Esther Latches returned to her home in Chilquin Tuesday afternoon after receiving medical treatment at Klamath Valley hospital for injuries received in an accident early Sunday morning.

No Dance—Due to the holiday weekend, there will be no dance at Midland Grange this Saturday. However, the dances will continue every other Saturday in the future.

Returns Home—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perrin and son, Bill, have returned from an interesting motor trip which took them to the east coast. They arrived home Saturday night after an absence of the past four weeks.

Visit Here—Mrs. J. A. Ulrich and young son, John Armand Jr., are visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ulrich on Conger avenue. The Ulrichs are now at Crater Lake national park.

Leave Hospital—Mrs. A. R. Frink and infant daughter left Klamath Valley hospital Tuesday for their home, 1748 Fargo street.

On Vacation—Julian Abbott, foreman of the Oregon state highway department shops in Altamont, is on vacation this week.

Recovering—Lloyd Prock of Moty and Van Dyke, is recovering from a severe attack of mumps at his home on Second and Grant streets.

To Dunsmuir—The Rev. Thomas Cuddy of Dunsmuir, Calif., returned home Tuesday night after visiting in Klamath Falls for the day.

Extra Dry? Try Wieland's Extra Pale Extra wet! Extra good!

Manuel Visits—Friends were greeting Mr. and Mrs. Larry Manuel who spent several days this week in Klamath Falls. Manuel is the former secretary of the Grants Pass chamber of commerce and was called back to active service in the navy. He is now a first class hospital corpsman on the USS Fuller. Manuel is recovering from a serious attack of pneumonia and has been in the San Diego base hospital for a time. He is now on sick leave and with Mrs. Manuel left Wednesday for Grants Pass to visit for a day or two before reporting for duty in San Diego Monday morning.

Reckless Charge—Maximilian Rozum, 21, 410 South Fifth street, posted bail in police court Wednesday following his arrest on a reckless driving charge at Fifth street and Oak avenue. He was to appear Wednesday night before Police Judge Leigh Ackerman. Seven drunks appeared in court Wednesday morning and one traffic ticket was paid.

Seeks Daughter—Mrs. Mary Osborne, 24, is being sought in Klamath Falls by her father, George T. Huettl of Bend, who arrived here Wednesday. Huettl may be reached at the city police department. Mrs. Osborne is said to be employed as a domestic by a family named Complin.

To Lake—Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl and three sons, Dick, Teddy and Gerry, with Mr. and Mrs. John Houston and son, Jon, will leave early Friday morning for Lake O' the Woods where they will enjoy the holidays at their summer home. They will be joined by Henry Haas of San Francisco, former resident here and brother of Mrs. Igl and Mrs. Houston.

Caves Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Fleet and Verne, and Mrs. Mary Lewis, all of Klamath Falls, Oregon, were among the hundreds that stopped at the Oregon Caves national monument Sunday, June 29.

Cowhands Here—Arriving early for the big show are "Buck" Tiffin of Yakima, Wash., who will judge in the bronc riding the three days of Klamath Buckaroo rodeo, and Zack McWiggins, bronc buster.

No Reports—Police officers said it was the lull before the storm when no reports were filed with the desk sergeant. Only arrests made Tuesday were drunks.

Visitor—Fred Becker of Prineville, former Klamath Falls resident, is here visiting for a short time. He plans to fish on the north fork of the Sprague river this weekend.

From Suntext—Mr. and Mrs. Marion Shaver of Suntext, Ore., with their two children, Hazel and Danny, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl K. Cook. They plan to spend the Fourth of July in Bend.

On Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scroggins will leave Thursday night by motor for a two weeks' vacation which they will spend in Victoria and Vancouver, British Columbia.

On Display—Trophies offered in the big Fourth of July parade Friday morning are now on display in the windows of the United States National bank building.

To Coast—Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zamsky with Adele Zamsky and Sweeney Swansen, will leave this weekend for the northern California coast to spend the holidays.

CAVE JUNCTION, July 2 (AP)—The Illinois Valley airport will be dedicated here August 2 and 3. Committeemen are planning a celebration program.

Sweetheart on Parade!

Carol Henry, big-time trick rider and roper with her high school horse, "Sweetheart," will be among the added features at Klamath Buckaroo Days show July 4, 5 and 6 at the fairgrounds. Miss Henry has taken part in state fair shows on the Pacific coast and all topnotch rodeos. "Sweetheart" lays claim to having more tricks than any other performing rodeo horse, her bag of 65 tricks done to perfection. The only thing she asks is a lump of sugar and a good round of applause from the audience.

Elsewhere In Oregon

TOLEDO, July 2 (AP)—The Yaquina harbor improvement project probably will be included in the pending rivers and harbors bill, Rep. James Mott has informed the Toledo chamber of commerce.

HILLSBORO, July 2 (AP)—Washington county has added eight new voting precincts, bringing the total to 58.

MEDFORD, July 2 (AP)—County Agent Robert G. Fowler has estimated loss of hay, caught in the fields by recent rains, at more than 50 per cent.

ASTORIA, July 2 (AP)—The rise in milk prices spread to the Astoria area today, quarts going up 1 cent to 12 cents and pints up 1 cent to 8 cents.

MILTON-FREEWATER, July 2 (AP)—Pea growers in this area will let 10 per cent of their heavy crop dry because canneries cannot handle all the harvest.

MILL CITY, July 2 (AP)—The wild blackberry season is on, but pickers report berries are less numerous than in recent years. Berries are selling at 60 cents a gallon locally.

SEASIDE, July 2 (AP)—The site of the cairn used by the Lewis and Clark expedition to replenish a dwindling salt supply in the winter of 1805-06 has been cleared by the Lions club.

GOLD HILL, July 2 (AP)—A pavilion probably will be available for exhibits in the northwest Jackson county fair here August 23.

ASHLAND, July 2 (AP)—Physicians here propose that the city construct a 30-bed wing to the municipally-owned hospital in anticipation of a shortage of facilities which might result from location of an army cantonment in southern Oregon.
