

Betrothed is Miss Marijane Daggett, (standing), here for the summer with her sister, Miss Caroline, daughters of Mrs. Claude Daggett.

SOCIETY

.. By LOIS STEWART ..

Mrs. Fred Schallock entertained at one of the loveliest of the summer parties Wednesday afternoon from three o'clock until six o'clock and those who called during tea hours learned of the betrothal of Miss Marijane Daggett to Mr. George C. Flitercraft of Klamath Falls, now stationed at Puerto Rico.

The affair was given at the Schallock home on Pacific Terrace and greeting the guests were two sub-debs, Marilyn Bell of Santa Maria, California, and Miss Joy Kent, Miss Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holmes O. Bell, is spending the summer with her grandparents, the Schallocks.

News of the engagement was told the guests at the tea table by hearts which bore the names, "Marijane and George," and placed on the beautifully decorated cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. A center arrangement of roses and sweet-peas on a peach organdy cloth, was flanked on either side by tall blue candles. On lacy blue napkins the betrothal news was repeated, the lettering done in silver.

Pouring at the tea table were Miss Lisbeth Ann Daggett of Prineville, cousin of the bride-elect, and Miss Phyllis Foster. Presiding at the punch bowl were Miss Virginia Bubbs, Miss Mary Jane Eyerly, and Miss Rosemary Sloan.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Junior Daggett and Mrs. Hiram Mersereau, aunt and cousin of the bride-elect, Mrs. Melvin McCollum, and Miss Daggett's mother, Mrs. Claude Daggett.

For her announcement party, Marijane chose a delphinium blue taffeta frock with which she wore crystal jewelry.

The bride-elect is home for the summer months from school in California. She is the daughter of Mrs. Daggett and the late Mr. Claude Daggett, pioneer residents of this city. Mr. Flitercraft is well known here and at the present time is stationed with the United States weather bureau in Puerto Rico. No date has been set for the wedding.

Receiving at the Schallock tea were two charming subdebs, Marilyn Bell (left) and Joy Kent.

Assisting at the announcement tea, left to right, Miss Virginia Bubbs, Miss Mary Jane Eyerly, Miss Caroline Daggett, the honor guest, Marijane, Mrs. Melvin McCollum, and Miss Lisbeth Ann Daggett.

Mrs. Claude Daggett (left), chatting with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Junior Daggett of Prineville, and Mrs. Alvin Earnest Macartney, at the right.

Lisbeth Ann Daggett, seated on the floor, and Mrs. Melvin McCollum, at the extreme right chatting with guests. At the left, Mrs. Robert J. O'Sullivan, and seated, Mrs. Hiram Mersereau, Miss Helen Lois Winningham, Miss Dorothy Horn of Seattle, and Mrs. Fred Kon-schot.

