

Marjean Finnell Bride in Ceremony

All White Used at Pretty Wedding Solemnized in First Christian Church Sunday

Against a setting of white gladioli, lilies and the lights from many tall white candles, Miss Marjean Finnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Finnell of 1017 Melrose street, exchanged vows with Mr. Floyd Larson, son of Mr. Charles Larson of Crescent avenue in a ceremony read at high noon Sunday, June the twenty-ninth, in the First Christian church. The Rev. Gottfred Anderson of the First Covenant church, read the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Harry Welch of Pittville, California. She was lovely in traditional white satin, her gown fashioned with a shirred square throat, puffed sleeves fitting tightly at the wrist, a snug bodice and short train. Her veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls, and she carried a cluster of white lilies. Her only jewelry was a triple strand of pearls.

Miss Marie Obenchain at the organ played Lohengrin's processional, and Mendelssohn's recessional.

Matron-of-honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Harry Welch, and the bridesmaids included another sister, Mrs. Lewis Botens Jr., Miss Jane Durbin and Miss Mary Ellen Hotchkiss. Their gowns were identical, Mrs. Welch wearing a delphinium blue taffeta, square neck, puffed sleeves and full skirt, a matching picture hat with huge ribbon bow, Mrs. Botens wore yellow taffeta, Miss Durbin was in white, and Miss Hotchkiss in candy pink. All carried bouquets of lovely summer flowers.

The best man was Mr. Clifford Phelps. Ushers were the three brothers of the groom, Mr. Stephen, Stanley and Jerry Larson.

A reception followed in the church parlors and guests included the seventy five persons invited to the wedding. The bride's cake centered a prettily appointed table where pink roses and white sweet peas were used. After the bride cut the first piece of cake the serving was done by Mrs. William Hendrickson. Pouring at the punch table were the bride's aunt, Miss Jessie Caldwell, and two assistants, Miss Edna Kahl and Mrs. Grover Yantis.

Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Larson left on an extended honeymoon which will take them through Yellowstone national park and other points of interest. They will motor home the latter part of the month and reside on California avenue. For traveling the bride chose a white sharkskin suit with black accessories and a large picture hat of felt. On her shoulder she wore a single lavender orchid.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Finnell wore a navy blue chiffon frock with white accessories and a navy blue straw hat. Her flowers were roses. She received with members of the wedding party.

The bride was an outstanding member of the June graduating class of Klamath Union high school. The groom is affiliated with the Kesterson Lumber company.

A wedding trip of three days spent in Sacramento and other points was enjoyed before retiring to Klamath Falls where the young people will reside at 4511 Boardman avenue.

The bride was graduated from Klamath Union high school with the class of 1939, and Mr. Lee was graduated from Gaston high school in 1933. The groom is the son of Mrs. Charles Werth of Shasta Way.

Betrothal Told At Tulelake Lunch

Virginia Lea Hooper To Become Bride of Lieutenant Robert Fensler in Mid-August Rites

TULELAKE—Miniature scrolls tied with pink ribbons carried news of the approaching marriage of Miss Virginia Lea Hooper, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Hooper, to Lt. Robert W. Fensler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark W. Fensler, also of Tulelake. The announcement was made at a delightfully arranged half past one o'clock luncheon given at the Hooper home Sunday, June the twenty-ninth. The wedding will be an event of mid-August.

The buffet table, covered with lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of pink and white columbine and pink tapers and each guest was presented with a corsage of pink rosebuds. Luncheon was served at small tables.

The bride-elect is one of the most charming of the younger set here and Lieutenant Fensler has recently been assigned to Phoenix, Arizona as a flying instructor.

Both are graduates of the Tulelake high school, Miss Hooper finishing in 1940 and later attending Oregon State college where she was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta sorority. The groom-elect was graduated in 1936, later attending Oregon State college and in the past year and a half he has taken intensive training in army aeronautics. He is a member of Theta Chi fraternity.

They will make their home in Phoenix following the wedding.

Assisting Mrs. Hooper were Mrs. Fensler and Mrs. Frank E. Mosebar with Mrs. Fensler awarding honors in games that followed the luncheon to Mrs. George Frey, Mrs. L. J. Horton of Langell Valley and Miss Betty Burros of Tulelake.

Invited to the announcement party were Mrs. Lida Fensler, grandmother of Lieutenant Fensler, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mrs. William S. Edwards, Mrs. Isabella Hamilton, Mrs. Merton J. Brown, Mrs. M. L. Sutton, Mrs. George Frey, Mrs. Pat McGinley, Mrs. Floyd A. Boyd, Mrs. Tom Kadous, Mrs. Hans Nelson, Mrs. George Reiben, Mrs. P. C. Bergeman, Mrs. Lawrence J. Horton, Mrs. Connie Baure of Fort Klamath, Mrs. John Hooper, Midland, Miss Bette Campbell, Miss Mildred Edwards, Miss Nola Edwards, Miss Ardyce Brown, Miss Betty Burroff, Miss Jean Anderson, Miss June Brown, sorority sister of the bride-elect who will be maid-of-honor and Miss Joan Horton.

Another lovely affair honoring Mrs. Hurkett who has been the guest for the past several weeks of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Strong of 1045 Pacific Terrace, was given on Wednesday afternoon, July the second, when Mrs. J. H. Poppy presided as hostess at a one o'clock bridge luncheon at her home, 625 Roseway drive.

An effective motif of red, white and blue was used, and those receiving honors in bridge were Mrs. W. C. Strong for high and Mrs. Harry Wayne for second high. Mrs. Lillian Hagman received a special prize and Mrs. Hurkett a guest prize.

Bidding farewell to Mrs. Hurkett on this occasion were Mrs. Carl Steinseifer, Mrs. Harry Wayne, Mrs. W. C. Strong, Mrs. Harry Peltz, Mrs. V. J. Josephson, Mrs. Oscar Peyton, Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, Mrs. Lillian Hagman, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. Lee McMullen and the hostess.

SEATTLE GIRL VISITS IN KLAMATH

A delightful visitor here this past week was Miss Dorothy Horn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Horn Jr., of Seattle, who has been the guest of Mrs. Fred Kenschot of Earle street. Miss Horn was a member of Mrs. Kenschot's wedding party this spring.

On Wednesday Mrs. Kenschot entertained at luncheon for her guest, covers laid for Mrs. Melvin McCollum, Miss Lillian Davis, Miss Peggy Rakestraw, and Miss Horn.

ATTENDS HOUSE PARTY AT BECKMAN

Miss Patricia Gallagher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Olds of Riverside, has enjoyed the post-convention house party of Mortar Board at Beekman Tower hotel in New York City, and is spending the weekend of the Fourth in New Haven, Connecticut, with another Klamath Falls maid, Miss Maxine Peterson, daughter of the Fred Petersons.

Miss Gallagher attended Mortar Board convention in Buck Hill Falls, Pennsylvania, where she took an active part in meetings. She attended from the Whitman college chapter at Walla Walla, Washington. From New Haven she plans to visit in Philadelphia and Washington, D. C., before returning home.

Mr. Jerry Ricker, accompanied by Miss Beverly Ricker and Mr. and Mrs. James Webb are spending the weekend at Wenatchee, Washington as the guests of relatives, and while there Mrs. Webb will be met by friends who will take her to Spokane, Washington for a visit of ten days. En route home, Mrs. Webb will stop at Eugene where she will be the guest of Miss Kay Daugherty at a weekend house party. Mrs. Ricker was unable to accompany her family north due to an illness of several weeks from which she is just recovering.

ISLANDERS PAY VISIT TO FRIENDS HERE

Delightful visitors in Klamath Falls this past week included Mrs. H. F. Opperman of Honolulu, Mrs. George Jennings, also of Honolulu, and her twin sons, Wellington and Clare of Midway island.

The four were guests of Mrs. Rose M. Poole and her daughter, Mrs. Prentice E. Yeomans of Conger avenue arriving Sunday evening. On Tuesday the visitors enjoyed a motor trip to Crater lake, and on Wednesday they were guests at Mrs. Poole's summer home at Lake o' the Woods.

Mrs. Opperman will return to Riverside, California, for a visit, the Jennings leaving this week for the east coast.

MRS. FERGUSON ENJOYING STAY IN VIRGINIA

Friends have enjoyed notes from Mrs. Twyla Ferguson of this city who has been on an interesting journey throughout the country for the past month. A part of the time was spent in Chicago, later Mrs. Ferguson motoring to Washington, D. C., where she has been the guest of former Klamath Falls residents.

At this time Mrs. Ferguson is in Arlington, Virginia, and letters will reach her at 1709 North Harrison street.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bolvin at their cabin at Rocky Point are Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Parrish of Portland. Mr. Parrish is editor of The Oregonian's editorial page.
