

Birthday Luncheon Given at Tulelake

Community Guild Presents Interesting Variety at Party Given Thursday in Church

TULELAKE—From January to December, tables for each month of the year vied with each other for distinctive motifs at the annual birthday luncheon of the Tulelake Community guild held Thursday in the annex of the Presbyterian church. About one hundred guests gathered from all parts of the south end of the Klamath basin were greeted by Mrs. A. E. Ryckman, president.

Flying down a snowy mountain side on skis, a petite young girl in ski clothes sped toward a mountain lake for the month of January. The February table was centered with an attractive Valentine arrangement while March was a unique arrangement of Tulelake potatoes covered with an arrangement of clover. Potato chips in Irish baskets were used as favors.

Wee organ and umbrellas were placed motifs at the April table and a tiny Easter child in pastel gowns tripped through a garden as the center theme.

May and June tables bloomed with spring and summer flowers and a patriotic note, an American flag fashioned from flowers graced the July table. Small figures of girls and boys in sport togs wandered about a typical summer resort for the August theme with September flaunting the autumn colors and October and November falling in line with holiday trimmings indicative of the time of year.

Crimson holly berries and red ribbons and tapers centered the December table, the holly coming recently from Washington.

Program numbers were presented for each month of the year with the vote of honor going to the June number, a Tom Thumb wedding. Three-year-old Nancy Young, in traditional white, was the blushing bride of four-year-old Donnie Boyd who had for his best man the debutant Bobbie Ager, also just four.

Darlene MacRostie, just about three, was the flower girl and the minister was the solemn R. D. Aikens.

Preceding the service Barbara Young sang "I Love You Truly" with Shirley Main at the piano. Mrs. F. S. Terry played the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Franklin Ernst was program chairman.

Among the guests were Mrs. Hugh L. Bronson, Klamath Falls, charter member of the guild who offered the history of the organization.

The luncheon is the high light of the social year for the guild.

MEMBERS OF SOCIAL CLUB ENTERTAINED

Members of the Eastern Star Social club were entertained at the Masonic temple Tuesday afternoon, July first, by Mrs. Frank Ira White, Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz, Mrs. Carleton Hornbrook and Mrs. Jacob Held.

Five tables of bridge were in play with honors received by Mrs. Clara Sherman for high, Mrs. George Barth for low, and Mrs. Earl Templar received the special prize. A clever patriotic motif decorated the table on this occasion.

Weddings Solemnized

Thompson Home Scenones of Double Ceremonies

In an impressive wedding ceremony read at half past two o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday, June the twenty-eighth, two young couples pledged their vows when Miss Eleanor Jeanne Thompson became the bride of Mr. Marion Edgar, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edgar of Gilchrist, and Miss Ellen Margaret Harter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Harter of Bonetrail, North Dakota, became the bride of Mr. Kendall Dean Thompson. The ceremony was read at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Thompson, 3546 South Sixth street, parents of Miss Jeanne and Mr. Kendall Thompson.

The double wedding service was solemnized before the spacious living room windows in the presence of members of the families and a few close friends. The Rev. L. K. Johnson of the Klamath Lutheran church officiated.

There were no attendants. Miss Thompson was charming in a smart navy blue wool suit with navy and white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and roses. The "something old" worn by Miss Thompson was a blouse fashioned from a sheer and beautiful white lace worn by her mother in her honeymoon days.

Miss Harter was lovely in an afternoon dress of French blue crepe. Her accessories were blue and white with corsage of sweet peas and roses. For "something old" she carried exquisite hand made Irish crochet gloves in white.

At the reception that immediately followed the ceremony, the two brides assisted by the bridegrooms, cut the first pieces from a large wedding cake baked by Mrs. A. C. Forristal, aunt of the Thompson young people. Assisting with the serving of cake and punch and in passing the bride's books were Mrs. A. C. Forristal, Mrs. Roy Burnett and Mrs. Walter H. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar left for a short trip before going to Gilchrist, where they will make their home. Mr. Edgar is in the employ of the Gilchrist Timber company. Mr. Thompson, a postal clerk in Klamath Falls post office recently purchased a home at 2253 Reclamation avenue where the young couple are at home to their friends.

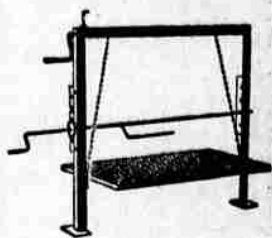

Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet in the KC hall Monday evening, July the seventh, at eight o'clock. Following the business hour, there will be entertainment and refreshments served by the committee, Mrs. Amelia Jacobsen and Mrs. Mary Blackstone.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pauley of Roseway drive are enjoying a ten-day motor trip to Seattle, Washington and Mt. Rainier.
