

Younger Set Entertain

Dancing Party at Pelican On Saturday Evening

A delightful affair of this evening, Saturday, is that planned by a group of the younger set when Miss Adelle Zamsky, Miss Norma Garland, Miss Sue Swanson and Miss Barbara Bell entertain with a buffet supper and dancing party in the party room of The Pelican.

Patrons will be Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Zamsky and hours are from eight o'clock until midnight.

Bidden to the affair are Miss Marylee Erlandson, Miss Fay Steinseifer, Miss Patty Fleet, Miss Phyllis Collier, Miss Betty Reyners, Miss Stella Bowne, Miss Jay Dunbar, Miss Betty Dunivan, Miss Barbara Jacobs and Mr. Gordon Erlandson, Mr. Ivan Kandra, Mr. Eldridge Anderson, Mr. Rex Hiatt, Mr. Ben Hastings, Mr. John Selby, Mr. Lee Metz, Mr. Dick Igl, Mr. Bob Kent, Mr. James Burness, Mr. Jack Meyers, Mr. Robert Jester and Mr. Joseph Kennedy.

CLASSES TO CONTINUE FOR STUDENTS

The interesting flower arrangement class conducted in a series of ten lessons this summer by Mrs. G. A. Krause and Mrs. E. D. Lamb at the home of the latter, ended its course of study Wednesday of this week but due to the great amount of interest shown, the classes will continue on Mondays and Wednesdays for several weeks.

Members of the class include Mrs. Syd Evans, Mrs. Will Wood, Mrs. J. P. Wells, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. Harold Hilton, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, Miss Adra Goeller, Mrs. Ralph M. Stearns, Mrs. J. F. King, Mrs. Shelby Calhoun, Mrs. A. G. Proctor and Mrs. J. Somy.

Both women have done considerable studying of flower arrangement. Mrs. Krause with a well known Japanese teacher in Los Angeles, Mrs. William McCullough of Altadena, California, and Gregory Conway of Los Angeles, Mrs. Lamb attended the Schaeffer school of art in San Francisco last summer and has had special training for several years, this information being passed on generously by both Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Krause to those interested in the study.

Enjoying the Fourth of July holidays at their summer home at Harbor on the Oregon coast were Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany and Miss Catherine Gaylord. Their guest was Mrs. Clara Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Read have as their guests this summer, Mrs. Read's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Farquharson, formerly of Eugene. They will leave late in August to make their permanent home in California.

Mrs. Prentice Yeomans and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bertram were among the people from Klamath Falls that were guests at the Plaza hotel while staying in San Francisco recently.

MRS. RICHARD LUEHRS

Mrs. Luehrs is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bowman of Merrill and was married July the sixth in the Merrill Presbyterian church.

Merrill Girl Chooses Pink Marquisette for Wedding Dress in July the Sixth Ceremony

MERRILL—At one of the loveliest weddings of the summer, Mary Jane Andersen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bowman of Merrill became the bride at two o'clock Sunday, July the sixth in the Merrill Presbyterian church. Mr. Luehrs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Luehrs of Ontario, Oregon. The double ring service was read in the Merrill Presbyterian church by Reverend Lawrence H. Mitchellmore in the presence of relatives and friends of the young couple.

Tall baskets of pink and white gladioli graced the chancel.

The bride, gowned in a floor length shell pink marquisette dress made with fitted bodice and full skirt, carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds and white tuberoses. She wore a garland of white sweet peas in her hair.

Her sisters, Miss Louise Bowman and Miss Velma Jean Bowman wore identical gowns of ice blue chiffon made floor length with insertions of blue lace. Both carried arm bouquets of pink carnations.

Mr. Jerry Butler of Eugene was best man.

Mrs. Claud Moreland played the traditional wedding marches.

Following the ceremony guests were received in the reception room of the church. The refreshment table was centered with a crystal bowl of pink sweet peas and roses and matching crystal taper holders, gifts of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Rose Bowman and the late Mr. C. Bowman, on their fortieth wedding anniversary. The beautiful hand made ecru lace cloth used also on the table was loaned by Mrs. Melvin A. Bowman, aunt of the bride.

The tiered white wedding cake, circled by pink rosebuds, was topped by a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Luehrs cut the first piece and the confection was served by both grandmothers of the bride, Mrs. Bowman of Merrill, and Mrs. George Wright of Central Point. Assisting also were Miss Pauline Clemens, Miss Georgia Liskey and Miss Phyllis Liskey, all gowned in pale yellow and pink frocks.

For traveling Mrs. Luehrs chose a blue and white summer ensemble, the dress in blue and accessories in both colors.

Following a brief trip Mr. and Mrs. Luehrs will be at home in the R. H. Anderson residence.

Geneva Lyman Bride In Church Rites June The Twenty-first

Miss Geneva Lyman, daughter of Mrs. Delphine Lyman of this city, and Lieutenant Walter Jendrzewski, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jendrzewski of Hermiston, Oregon, were married June the twenty-first in a ten o'clock morning service in St. Mary's Catholic church in Boise, Idaho.

The bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Brandt of Boise, attended the couple. Later a wedding breakfast was served at the Brandt home.

A redingote of sand tone was chosen by the bride as her wedding costume, a lavender orchid corsage worn on the shoulder.

After a brief visit at the home of the groom's parents in Hermiston, and a short stay in Portland, Lt. and Mrs. Jendrzewski returned to Klamath Falls, the groom leaving July the first to report for duty at Fort Lewis, Washington. He has served as assistant Klamath county agent here for the past three years following his graduation from Oregon State college.

On June the twenty-fifth, women employees of the California Oregon Power company complimented Mrs. Jendrzewski with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. C. Jester on Earle street.

Visitors in Klamath Falls this week include Mrs. Carroll Foster of Seattle, Washington, and Mrs. Edward Rogers of Spokane, who arrived Wednesday evening to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hamm of Congress avenue. Mrs. Hamm and Mrs. Foster are sisters, daughters of Mrs. Rogers.

COUPLE WED ON JULY THE FOURTH AT PENDLETON

A wedding of interest to Klamath Falls residents took place on Friday, July the fourth, at four o'clock in the Presbyterian church at Pendleton, when June Johnson Mayhew, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Johnson of Portland, became the bride of Mr. David White, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. White of this city.

The bride was lovely in a dress of white and black net, with black accessories and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. William Dell, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a sheer black dress and a single orchid at the shoulder.

Mr. Elmer DeWitt acted as best man for the bridegroom. Following the ceremony, a dinner for the wedding party was held at the home of the bride's sister, 118 Southeast Tenth street, in Pendleton.

After July the seventh, Mr. and Mrs. White will be at home at 1516 Mitchell street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ray of the Audley apartments had as their guest this past week, Miss Marjorie Kelley of Portland. Miss Kelley enjoyed several days of the rodeo here, returning to her home Thursday.
