Marriage Solemnized

Eleanor Smith Weds Klamath Teacher at Reed Chapel

Miss Eleanor Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Smith of Miles City, Montana, was united in marriage at a late June ceremony in Reed College chapel, Portland, Oregon, to Mr. H. Donald Setterberg with Rev. Grimes officiating in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives of the young couple.

The bride wore white satin with the floor-length skirt ending in a long train. A long veil was fastened to her hair by a coronet of seed pearls. For something old, she wore a gold locket of her mother, edged with amethysts and diamonds. Sprays of calla lilies formed her arm bouquet. Her cousin, Miss Marcia Lewis, acted as maid of honor and wore a dress of pale pink net fashioned with puffed sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt. On her hair was a Juliette cap of seed pearls and roses, carnations and pink larkspur formed the bouquet that she carried. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Bailey, Miss Evelyn Kallio, Miss M.ry Kuyilaas and Miss Ethel Fahlen. Each carried similar bouquets or roses, carnations and larkspur.

Mr. Gordon Setterberg, brother of the bridegroom, attended as best man, and ushers were Mr. Morrell Setterberg, Mr. Lewis Miller, Mr. John Carter and Mr. Lloyd Pennington.

Baskets of gladiolus, Regal lilies, palms and candelabra decorated the chapel. Previous to the entrance of the bridal party, Mr. Schewman played "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning." Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Mr. Stanley Hansen.

A wedding supper at Lloyd's followed the ceremony where places were set for thirty guests, after which the young couple left for a wedding trip along the Oregon coast.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. E. E. Lewis of Des Moines, Iowa, aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shinn, Juanita Shinn and Charles Shinn Jr., of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Setterberg will make their home in this city where Mr. Setterberg is a teacher at Altamont Junior high school.

Attractive Lakeview Maid Becomes Bride

Phyllis Adams Weds Ralph D. Buell in Saturday Morning Ceremony July the Fifth

LAKEVIEW—A wedding of considerable interest in this community took place Saturday morning, July the fifth, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Adams Sr., when their daughter, Phyllis, became the bride of Mr. Ralph D. Buell of Seattle, Washington. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Sam Lonsider played Brahms Waltz. Mrs. Carl Williams played the piano accompaniment.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the wedding party took their places at an improvised altar which was banked with blue delphinium and salmon pink gladiolus. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Rev. J. M. B. Gill read the single ring service.

The bride wore a costume suit of light weight wool in a soft shade of blue with navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Mrs. Robert S. Adams, Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore beige with brown accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias. Mr. Frank Lincoln Buell, brother of the bridegroom, of Wenatchee, Washington, was best man.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon and was affiliated with Chi Omega sorority. For the past two years she has been employed by the Oregon Mutual Life Insurance company in Portland. The groom is a graduate of Whitman college and was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. He is employed by the Personal Finance company at Seattle.

Out of town guests for the occasion were Mrs. Lincoln Buell, mother of the groom, of Seattle; Mr. Frank Buell of Wenatchee, Washington; Mr. John McPherson of Craig, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reymers and Betty Jane of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cameron of Willow Ranch, California. Following a short wedding trip along the Oregon coast the young couple will make their home in Seattle.
