Our Home Town

Before Need Arises

It is becoming a wide-spread custom, all over America today, for individuals and family groups to inspect Funeral Homes, to check up on the facilities offered, to gain some familiarity with funeral costs—all BEFORE any emergency arises.

Now this is sound common sense, just as it is the making of a will or the appointment of an executor. It is a precaution which is sure to avoid confusion and uncertainty at some future time—one never knows when—and that may well result in the saving of considerable money.

We, in this Funeral Home, are always glad to welcome you on such a visit of inspection, pleased at the opportunity to explain our service procedure, proud to show our facilities and to go over our casket stocks and prices with you.

Thus we may surely establish firmly in your mind the facts that the service offered here is as fine as can be conceived, that the prices here in effect are capable of saving you a substantial sum.

There is no need to make advance appointment for such a visit. Drop in whenever the mood strikes you. And do not feel, please, that your informal call places you under any obligation. "Stop and Visit Memory Garden."

Next Monday Mr. Whitlock of the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home will comment on "The Volunteer Fireman."

Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Ladner and daughter, LaDessa, have returned from a seven weeks' motor trip through the United States. Their first stop of interest was Boulder dam. C. and New York City, returning west by way of Rochester, Minn., where they made an interesting tour of Mayo's clinic, and on to the Black Hills, Yellowstone national park and the Columbia River highway.

Appreciation—Earl C. Reynolds, secretary of Klamath county chamber of commerce, Monday received a warm letter of appreciation from Captain Ellsworth C. French, public relations officer, headquarters Ninth Army Corp, Fort Lewis, in which the community was offered the thanks of the entire troops for the entertainment given the men on their recent stay in Klamath Falls en route north after summer maneuvers at Hunter Liggett military reservation.

Leave on Journey—Mrs. Gordon Ledingham and daughter, Janet, left Klamath Falls Monday to visit relatives in New York. They are traveling east over the Canadian Pacific and have arranged for stop-overs in Victoria and Vancouver B. C., Lake Louise and Banff in the Canadian Rockies. RAILS ATTRACT MOST PLAY IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, July 14 (AP)—Buyers turned to the rails in today's stock market when most other departments made only indifferent response to tempting bids.

Aircrafts had the play for a time in the forenoon. Steels and specialties did moderately well at intervals. Gains of fractions to a point or so were sprinkled over the list at the close although losers were plentiful and numerous issues unchanged.

Transfers of 550,000 shares were smaller than any full session last week.

Rails achieved a degree of popularity as more notice was taken of favorable carrier earnings reports and traffic prospects. Business developments aided individual stocks in other divisions.

Southern railway and Atlantic Coast Line posted new peaks for the year. Supported were Santa Fe, Pennsylvania, Great Northern, Chesapeake and Ohio, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Consolidated Aircraft, Sperry, U. S. Gypsum, N. Y. Shipbuilding, U. S. Rubber and Socony Vacuum.

Douglas Aircraft was backward, along with Du Pont, Pepsi-Cola, General Motors, Chrysler, Anaconda and J. I. Case.

Bonds were steady.

SELLING CAUSES WHEAT TO DROP

CHICAGO, July 14 (AP)—Selling stimulated by heavy terminal market receipts of wheat, reports of increasing congestion at some points and substantial increase in domestic visible supplies caused wheat prices to retreat more than a cent a bushel today.

Chicago had 503 cars, largest volume of the season. Domestic visible supply increased almost 20,000,000 bushels the past week to 157,573,000 compared with 112,964,000 a year ago. Weakness at Minneapolis associated with large receipts of old grain there, including government stocks, affected the Chicago market. German claims of progress in Russia also was a weakening factor.

Corn prices showed only small reactions, being strengthened by reports that arrangements have been made to send more than 2,000,000 bushels of government corn to Great Britain.

Wheat closed 1-1/2c lower than Saturday, July 13. 1-1/2c, September 75 1/2c, July 73 1/2c, September 75 1/2c, 1-1/2c lower.
