

WOMEN WARNED AGAINST PAIR SEEKING LOANS

Klamath Falls women are being warned against two gypsies with a distinct Scotch "burr" who have been using names of prominent local residents in their "loan" of lines for cash in order to bring relatives still in Scotland to this country. As usual the mythical aged grandmother is brought into the picture.

Traveling in a Buick car, bearing a California license, the two Scotch women posed as refugees from their native land and invaded Lake o' the Woods area this past weekend. They stopped at various summer homes, using the names of women, one of whom they said had just purchased a $40 lace cloth.

The women gave as security for the "loans," pieces of linen and lace which they said they couldn't sell because they wanted to use them as models in teaching Americans how to make such articles. One summer resident, a Klamath Falls woman, "lent" $26 to one of the two. After putting their heads together, several residents of the lake became suspicious and one of the buyers demanded her check to be returned and was successful.

The women were said to have told lake residents that a well known Klamath Falls woman had been "so kind hearted" as to motor them to the lake and that another equally prominent matron had given names. Neither statement was true. The Bonnie Lassies had swarthy complexions, the forest office stated. They were heard to ask the way to Medford from the resort.

Undergraduate life at the University of Oregon will be depicted in a program, presented by John Cavanagh, director of the Oregon Federation tonight (Tuesday) at 8 p. m., in the Klamath Falls Willard hotel. Colored movies of undergraduate activities on the campus of the Eugene school will be shown by Cavanagh, who is being assisted in the preparation for the meeting by Jim Burness, local undergraduate federation chairman and John Houston, Klamath county alumni director.

University alumni, undergraduates, and prospective students have already been notified of the meeting. Prospective students are also invited to bring their parents.

Succeeding Roy Vernstrom as federation director, Cavanagh, ex-student body vice-president, is making a 7500 mile tour of the state visiting more than 60 communities during the course of the summer.

ated failure of the countries concerned properly to prepare against invasion," Patterson wrote. "They have in each case launched an overwhelming force against an unprepared army. We can not speculate with the security of this nation."

In view of the "known events of the last year" and particularly of the last few months, Patterson wrote, demobilization of the army at this time "would be to court disaster."

Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff, was disclosed today to have told congress that specially trained army units, instead of marines, should have occupied Iceland but were prevented from doing so because of difficulties presented by the one-year draft service rule.

Marshall made this statement in testimony given before the senate military committee July 9 in support of legislation which would permit the retention in active service of selectees and national guardsmen for longer than one year. The testimony was made public by the committee today.

Mrs. E. Dietsche received word by telegram Tuesday from her husband, Dr. Dietsche, that physicians at the Mayo hospital in Rochester, Minn., had not found injuries which he received here several weeks ago as serious as first considered. Dr. Dietsche will return home next week.

The doctor fell from his horse during a Sheriff's posse drill late in June as the horsemen were preparing for their appearance at the rodeo. Dr. Dietsche fell on his back and suffered severe pain for several weeks. When his condition was thought serious he left by plane from Medford for Rochester where it was found his kidneys had been badly damaged but that he would recover sufficiently to return by plane within a short time.

Servo, Britton Fight Tonight

NEW YORK, July 15 (U.P.)—If unbeaten Marty Servo licks Jack Britton's son, Bobby, at Hartford, Conn., Tuesday night, the Schenectady Italian is pretty sure to get a "vengeance" fight soon with Lightweight Champion Lew Jenkins at Philadelphia.

Promoter Herman Taylor of Philadelphia is negotiating the Servo-Jenkins grudge battle for late August or early September, but if Servo is beaten by young Britton of Miami, Fla.—son of the former welterweight champion—those negotiations will go "poof!"

Servo, 21-year-old cousin of former Lightweight Champion Lou Ambers, is undefeated in 44 professional bouts.

OVERTHROW OF U. S. TERMED PARTY'S PLAN

those named were "officers, leaders, active members and in control of a certain political party or organization known as the socialist workers party which party . . . would procure, induce, influence, incite, and encourage to join with them to bring about the overthrow by force of the government of the United States."

"The defendants would seek to bring about whenever the time seemed to them propitious," the indictment reads, "an armed revolution against the government of the United States. Said armed revolution would be brought about and joined in by the workers and laborers and farmers of the United States."

The indictment charges that the socialist workers party members sought to be placed in key positions in all major industries, among others the transportation, mining, lumbering, farming, shipping and manufacturing industries, "so that said party members could and would induce workers and laborers to join said party."

The indictment further charges that the party would and did attempt to bring about control of the militia by workers and laborers, and "procured certain explosives, firearms and ammunition and military equipment, and were organized into military units, armed and drilled under the name of 'Union Defense Guard'."

"They accepted as ideal the formula of the Russian revolution of 1917, and certain defendants went from the twin cities to Mexico City where they received advice and counsel from Leon Trotsky."

A majority of those named are officers and active members of General Drivers union 544, of Minneapolis, Victor E. Anderson, U. S. district attorney, said.

Anderson said Cannon is the national leader of the socialist workers party, with headquarters in New York; Russell is secretary of the party and stationed at Omaha, Neb.; Goldman, New York attorney for the socialist workers party, and Hanson a former body guard for the late Leon Trotsky.

Anderson said he believes Russell is now living in Buffalo, N. Y. The others named in the indictment, all live in Minneapolis, said Anderson. Mrs. Carlson, a former employe of the state board of education, was an unsuccessful candidate for the United States senate in 1939 on the Trotskyite anti-war ticket.

Oregon Quota for Alaska Army Base Set at 20 Men

Lt. Col. B. H. Hensley, district recruiting officer, U. S. army for the state of Oregon, announced Tuesday that the Oregon district has just received a quota of 20 young men to be enlisted in the 802nd aviation engineer battalion, Elmendorf field, Alaska. Men enlisted for this assignment must have a high school education or the equivalent.

After enlistment is accomplished the successful applicants will be sent to Fort Lawton, Seattle, and then sail for Alaska soon after. The engineers comprise one of the most interesting branches of the service and advancement is exceptionally rapid. Technical schools are maintained for the enlisted men and an opportunity afforded to study such subjects as mechanical drawing and drafting, water purification, surveying, map reproduction and among other things, heavy mechanical equipment such as maintenance and operation of trucks, powered shovels, bulldozers and mobile concrete mixers.

The young man who desires to serve his country in peace and war, and who has a leaning toward constructive work and mechanism, will find in the United States engineering corps an answer to his problem of where to find his billet. All information concerning this and other opportunities in the U. S. army will be gladly supplied by Sergeant Frank J. Huhn, local army recruiting officer, 219 Post Office building, Klamath Falls.

Care Advised in Declaring Values For Stock Tax

J. W. Maloney, collector of internal revenue, announces that corporations filing capital stock tax returns for the period ended June 30, 1941, should exercise extreme care in declaring the value of the capital stock.

The collector points out that the value now declared will form the basis for the adjusted declared value for the years ending June 30, 1942, and June 30, 1943, respectively; and that there is no election to increase this value in those years as was permitted for 1939 and 1940. Therefore, an adequate declaration is essential where corporations anticipate increased earnings during the next three income-tax taxable years.

Capital stock tax returns for the period ended June 30, 1941, must be filed on or before July 31, 1941.

$200,000 Fire Wrecks Mill, Burns Homes

EUGENE, Ore., July 15 (U.P.)—Fire of unknown origin last night did $200,000 damage to the mill town of Marcola, 17 miles northeast of Eugene.

Flames consumed more than a million board feet of lumber, burned more than half of the Fischer Lumber company plant, and leveled 11 houses in the community.

Ernest M. Spicer, 65-year-old Marcola resident, died of a heart attack brought on by excitement and exertion during the fire. His home adjoining the mill burned to the ground.

The blaze broke out in the planer mill and destroyed both planers, two new drying kilns, two railroad cars, several trucks, and all stock and lumber stored in the mill.

Mill hands aided by a unit of the Eugene fire department dynamited remains of the planer to prevent spread of the flames to the sawmill section.

The mill employed 135 men and had a capacity of 100,000 board feet a day. Fred Fischer of Marcola is the owner.

NON-UNION HANDLING HIT IN AFL DEMAND

The AFL unions here have served notice on materials dealers that they are demanding 100 per cent union conditions on handling and delivery of materials to union construction jobs. Deadline for the effectiveness of the new situation passed Tuesday morning.

Union spokesmen said that jobs on which union carpenters or other craftsmen are employed will not accept lumber or other materials unless the drivers of the trucks are union men. Truck drivers for the materials houses have not been organized.

It was learned that C. A. Bundy, who has been dismantling the old Hrivt building on Main street, now has a union crew and pickets have been withdrawn.

A union spokesman said that there has been no picketing in connection with the situation of the materials handling and delivering. A picket who appeared before the Swan Lake Moulding company on South Sixth street Tuesday morning was "not authorized by the union," it was declared. This picket withdrew early Tuesday morning.

Police Court—Two drunks and nine traffic tickets made up the Tuesday morning police court report.
