

British Recipes May Provide Real Novelty for Your Table

Here's some food with an "all aid to Britain" flavor. The British War Relief Society is distributing "Old and New British Recipes" ($1), a sturdy little volume packed with practical yet traditional recipes. Let's take a look:

YORKSHIRE BUTTERMILK BREAD

Three and one-half lbs. flour, 1 lb. moist sugar, 1 lb. lard, 1 lb. raisins, 1 1/2 lbs. currants, 1 lb. mixed peel, 1 tablespoon carbonate of soda, buttermilk. Mix all ingredients, dissolving soda in a little buttermilk to a stiff paste; then loosen it with more buttermilk, and bake in a moderate oven from 2 to 3 hours in four loaves.

FRUIT JUMBLES

One and one-half cups white sugar, 1 cup butter, 3 eggs, 1 lb. dates, stoned and cut small, 1 cup walnut meats, chopped, 3 cups flour, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 teaspoon baking soda, 1 cup boiling water.

Dissolve baking soda in boiling water. Beat butter and sugar; add beaten eggs and mix in fruit and nuts. Add flour, dissolve soda and add last. Drop on buttered tins and bake in a fairly hot oven.

STEWED OX TAIL

Two ox tails, 1 onion, 3 cloves, 1 blade mace, 1 teaspoon whole black pepper, 1 teaspoon allspice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, small bunch savory herbs, 1 tablespoon of butter and flour, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 teaspoon mushroom ketchup.

Divide the tails at the joints, wash, and put them into a stewpan with sufficient water to cover, and set them on the fire; when the water boils, remove the scum, and add the onion cut into rings, the spice, seasoning, and herbs. Cover the stewpan closely, and simmer gently until tender, which will be in about

Carson Appointed Inspector General Of Civil Defense

WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP)—F. H. La Guardia, director of civilian defense, has appointed Joseph Carson Jr., former mayor of Portland, Ore., Bernard M. Dickmann, former mayor of St. Louis, and mayor Joseph Scholz of Louisville, as inspectors general for the office of civilian defense.

Carson and Dickmann will devote full time to their new positions, officials said, and Scholz will devote as much time as possible to civilian defense during the remainder of his term as mayor.

The first task of the new officials will be to establish regional civilian defense offices. Carson is in San Francisco to establish an office there and Dickmann is to open one in Omaha, Neb.

LENIENCY JUSTIFIED
CHICAGO (AP)—Judge George L. Quilici dismissed a speeding charge when he discovered that Neil Buhle had been arrested only twice on traffic charges in the 22 years he has worked for a transfer company.
"The first time," Buhle told the court, "was about 17 years ago when I was fined for driving 16 miles an hour in my hard-rubber wheeled truck. The speed limit then was 15 miles an hour."

Water Shortage Hits Portland's Higher Areas

PORTLAND, July 18 (AP)—Dangerously low water pressure in Portland West Hills district caused by the heavy burden occasioned by the heat wave may result in major revamping of the system.

Water Bureau Manager Ben S. Morrow said he would ask the council for $500,000 to alter the water system in such places as Council Crest, Portland Heights, Kings Heights, Arlington Heights, Westover and Burlingame to meet this kind of an emergency.

The record-breaking demand for 90,000,000 gallons a day was more than the pumps could handle, storage in the higher areas was soon drained and some of the hilly regions were completely without water yesterday. Residents were urged not to sprinkle lawns for at least two days.
