

Summer Tea Given Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Van Vactor Entertain for Three Klamath Falls Visitors at Adams Home

One of the most delightful of summer parties was the tea given Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. Cecil Adams on Del Moro street, when Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor entertained for three Klamath Falls visitors, Mrs. Theodore R. Gillenwaters of Westwood Village, Mrs. Byron L. Shollenberger of Allentown, Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Lawrence E. Norrie of South Pasadena.

Particularly lovely was the tea table arrangement of summer garden flowers done by Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., who used blue delphinium, blue larkspur, pink rosebuds and stock. Presiding at the punchbowl between three and four o'clock was Mrs. Bosworth, with Mrs. Miller E. Cooper serving from four o'clock until five.

The hostesses were assisted about the rooms by Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore, Mrs. Lloyd J. Goble, Mrs. Claude H. Davis, Mrs. Joseph Peake, Mrs. Kenneth G. Klahn and Mrs. John Martin.

During the afternoon Mrs. Gillenwaters graciously sang three numbers, "Blue Danube Waltz," "Estrellita" and "Cuckoo," accompanied at the novachord by Miss Marie Obenchain. Mrs. Gillenwaters has studied in southern California since leaving Klamath Falls and her many friends delighted in hearing her sing this group of songs.

Sixty guests called during the tea hours to greet Mrs. Norrie, Mrs. Gillenwaters and Mrs. Shollenberger.

Youngsters Feted

Theatre Party and Ice-Cream Feature Afternoon

Mrs. Byron L. Shollenberger, of Allentown, Pennsylvania, who is here with her two children, Janet and David, entertained with a prettily appointed party for children of old friends on Friday afternoon.

The guests were first entertained with a theatre party at The Pelican, later going to the Pelican party room where they feasted on ice cream and little cakes which, incidentally, held individual candles in honor of the birthday anniversary on that day of Robert Van Vactor.

Mrs. Shollenberger was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor, and Mrs. George H. Adler.

Janet and David's little guests included Barton, Jean and Paul Adams, Robert Van Vactor, Madelon, George and Sheila Adler, Angus and Sara Stewart, Margaret Flock, Ted, Jimmy and Mary Case, Mary and Donnie Havens, Ann and Eddie Gillenwaters, Rodney, Marcella and Rosemary Murray, Larry and Roger Klahn, Robert and David Bosworth, Dickie Arnold, Alice and Bobbie Mead, Jimmy Peake, Joan and Tommy Moore, Frances and Ralph Stearns, and Jean Fehnländer.

MRS. MOE IS HONORED ON ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Henry N. Moe was surprised Thursday afternoon on the occasion of her birthday anniversary when a no-hostess party was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. William Baldwin in Merrill.

A picnic luncheon was served in the Baldwin garden followed by an afternoon of cards. Honoring Mrs. Moe were Mrs. W. C. Dalton of Malin, Mrs. William Grove of Merrill, Mrs. Claude H. Daggett, Mrs. Charles I. Roberts, Mrs. Oscar Shive, Mrs. George H. Merryman, Mrs. Peter A. Albertson, Mrs. Guy Hancock, Mrs. W. O. Smith, and Miss Nora Sullivan, and the hostess, Mrs. Baldwin.

Budds Leave on Summer Holiday

Mrs. John Budd and two young sons, John and Bill, have gone to Minnesota where they will spend the remainder of the summer at the lake home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Budd. Prior to their departure on Tuesday morning Mr. and Mrs. John Harris Jr., entertained at breakfast for the Budds. Mr. Budd will join his family in several weeks.

Friends were delighted to see Mr. and Mrs. Byron L. Hardenbrook on their return to Klamath Falls after an absence in Portland at which time Mr. Hardenbrook submitted to a major operation treatment. They are spending several weeks at Sunset Inn, Gold Beach, leaving Friday for the coast.

Birthday Observed

Jean Wiesendanger Honor Guest at Friday Party

The younger set was particularly busy this weekend what with swimming parties, picnics and suppers galore. A gay affair was that of Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger entertained at their home, 2032 Earle street, for their daughter, Jean, who was to be seventeen on Saturday.

Supper was served in the garden followed by games. Guests honoring Jean were Miss Virginia Ellen Smith, Miss Betty Lee Merrill, Miss June Van, Miss Frances Foster, Miss Barbara Beane, Miss Suzanne and June Michelson, Miss Anna Mueller, Miss Roberta Tucker, Miss Allie Lee Dean, Miss Deanne Hamilton, Miss Bonnie Robin, Miss William Lehto, Miss Merlon Albrecht, Miss Virginia Howard, Miss Virginia Kennedy, Miss Marys Steinseifer, Miss Johanne Siemens, Miss Jeannette Bayless, Miss Marjorie Elliott, Miss Mary Jane Drake, Miss Wanda Shaw, and Mrs. Floyd Larsen.

CABLEGRAM RECEIVED FROM LONDON

The local unit, Bundles for Britain, received a cablegram this week from London thanking the Klamath Falls group for the generous contributions of $1000, $500 of which has gone toward the support of the hospital maintained in London by Oregon women, the other $500 used toward the purchase of a mobile kitchen.

Appreciation was expressed to Mr. Charles Griffith of this city for a cash donation to be used for the purchase of yarn. Any women wishing to knit for Bundles for Britain may obtain yarn at the offices of Mrs. Robert Odell on North Eighth street. Several fine pieces of knit articles have been received this week and will be forwarded to the Portland office for shipment to England.

EASTERN VISITORS

David and Janet Bussard, son and daughter of Mrs. Byron L. Shollenberger of Allentown, Pennsylvania, are renewing old friendships among the very young people of town. David and Janet entertained with a theatre party Friday for playmates.

—Comart.

BETROTHAL ANNOUNCED

Miss Sybil Bowne, daughter of Mrs. Francis J. Bowne, announced her betrothal at a lovely summer tea on Thursday afternoon.

Kennell-Ellis.

Sybil Bowne Joins Bride-Elect Ranks

Summer Tea Given at Bowne Residence on High Street at Four o'Clock Thursday Afternoon

At a lovely all white tea word of the betrothal of Miss Sybil Bowne, daughter of Mrs. Francis J. Bowne and the late Mr. Bowne, was told to friends on Thursday afternoon when seventy-five guests called during the hours of four to six o'clock at the home of the bride-elect's mother on High street.

Names of the young couple, printed in silver on small white tea napkins, also gave the date of the wedding as August the thirty-first, when Miss Bowne will become the bride of Mr. John Richard Waymire Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Richard Waymire of Seattle. The ceremony will be read at the home of Miss Bowne's uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. George Harris Merryman on Pacific Terrace.

Miss Bowne received the guests with her mother. She wore an eyelet frock of white pique and a corsage of crimson carnations. Pouring tea and punch were Mrs. Henry Gerber and Mrs. Walter Bowne, the table centered with a pretty arrangement of white carnations, Japanese lilies and gypsophylla with tall white candles at either side. White gladioli were used in the living room and salmon pink gladioli on the porch.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George H. Merryman Sr., Miss Jane Bowne, Miss Stella Bowne and Miss Phyllis Collier. The bride-elect, member of a pioneer Klamath county family, attended school at the University of Washington, Seattle from where she was graduated in June of last year. This past year she has made her home in this city. Mr. Waymire is in business in Seattle where the young couple will reside.

WIVES MEET TO ORGANIZE JULY SEVENTH

Wives of junior chamber of commerce members, deciding to become an organization to cooperate with the men's group, met July the seventh at the home of Mrs. Martin Swanson at which time officers were named.

Mrs. Joseph Bally will serve as president; Mrs. John Harris Jr., vice president; Mrs. Charles Packer, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Ralph L. Stearns, Mrs. Louis Williams, and Mrs. George H. Merryman Jr., board of directors.

First accomplishment of the group was serving luncheon at the regatta last Sunday. The women will meet the first Monday of each month.

BIRTHDAYS OBSERVED AT MILLS RANCH

Three birthdays were observed Saturday afternoon when Mrs. DeLos Mills entertained at her home in Spring Lake for her daughter, Marcia, who was four, David Reeder, whose third birthday occurred on that day, and for little "Penney" Prock, who reached the age of one year—all on July nineteenth.

Others invited were Lyle Mills, David's mother and brother, Mrs. Dick Reeder and Stephen, and "Penney's" mamma and big brother, Mrs. Lloyd Prock and Jack.

Gerry Igl Has Birthday

Master Gerry Igl, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl of North Third street, reached the ripe old age of six years on Friday, July the eighteenth, and a group of playmates were invited to the Igl home for traditional birthday cake and ice cream.

Miss Margery Archer, fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Archer of Tucson, Arizona, arrived here Thursday evening to spend the remainder of the summer holidays with her three cousins, Rodney, Marcella and Rosemary Murray, children of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray.

Parties During Week

Mrs. Shollenberger Feted at Numerous Summer Affairs

Mrs. Byron L. Shollenberger, who has been here for ten days as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Doremus, has been the inspiration for a number of affairs during her summer visit.

Mrs. Hiram F. Murdoch entertained for Mrs. Shollenberger and a group of old friends at luncheon on Thursday at the Pelican cafe. Bridge followed at Mrs. Murdoch's apartment where high score was held by Mrs. George Auxier Myers, second by Mrs. Lloyd J. Goble, and the guest award to Mrs. Shollenberger. Others present were Mrs. John H. Martin, Mrs. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, and the hostess, Mrs. Murdoch.

Mrs. Henri Conradi has asked a few friends for luncheon on Tuesday at one o'clock for Mrs. Shollenberger.

Wednesday evening of this coming week Dr. and Mrs. Miller E. Cooper have asked a group of ten for a barbecue supper in their garden.

Mrs. George H. Adler invited a group of children for luncheon on Friday of last week and guests included Robert and David Bosworth, Jimmy Carter, Janet and David Bussard, Robert Van Vactor, Mrs. Shollenberger, Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor and the three Adler children.

Mrs. Lloyd J. Goble entertained with a game of bridge for Mrs. Shollenberger, one afternoon last week, and on Wednesday Mrs. Wilbur Arnold was hostess at a small picnic for Mrs. Shollenberger and her two children.

YOUNGER SET ENTERTAINED ON WEDNESDAY

The younger set was entertained at a prettily appointed bridge party Wednesday evening at the H. E. Hauger home on Pacific Terrace when Misses Jean and Betty Hauger and Kay Dunbar asked in a group of friends for bridge and punch.

High score in cards was held by Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, traveling by Miss Stella Bowne, who is home for the summer from Mills college in Oakland, and low score went to Mrs. Robert Parcher Ellingson Jr.

Guests included Miss Marjane Daggett, Miss Caroline Daggett, Miss Eleanor Collier, Miss Phyllis Collier, Miss Audrey Edwards, Miss Margaret West, Miss Jolene Woodruff, Miss Helen Moore, Miss Betty Reymers, Miss Stella Bowne, Miss Helen Lois Winningham, Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, Mrs. Robert Parcher Ellingson Jr., Mrs. Richard P. L., and Mrs. Lane Warren.

VISITORS HONORED AT GARDEN SUPPER

Dr. and Mrs. Miller E. Cooper entertained with a barbecue supper in the garden of their home, 1962 Melrose street, honoring visitors from the south.

Supper was served to Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, Mrs. Theodore R. Gillenwaters and children, Ann and Eddie, all of Westwood Village, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsby, Miss Sue Ramsby, and Master Nolan Cooper.

VISITOR

JoAnne Garber, young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Garber of Oswego, Oregon, is visiting this week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Robert Hough, 1021 McKinley street.

—Kennell-Ellis.

VISITS IN KLAMATH

Miss June Namitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Namitz of 316 Pacific Terrace, spent the past weekend in Klamath Falls visiting at the home of her parents, Miss Namitz, who resides in Portland, is a former University of Oregon student and has many college friends here. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

—Gladys Gilbert.

Late Afternoon Tea Compliments Visitor

Betty Hauger Inspiration for Summer Party at R. C. Woodruff Residence Friday

Miss Betty Hauger, home from studying at the Tacoma General hospital in Tacoma, Washington, was the inspiration for a delightful tea given Friday afternoon from five o'clock until seven o'clock when Miss Jolene and Patricia Woodruff entertained at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Woodruff of Auburn and Mesa.

A center arrangement of red gladioli, and red and white carnations was quite fetching and a miniature nurse wearing a copy of Betty's uniform completed the detail. Pouring at the punch bowl were Mrs. Roy Whitlatch and Mrs. Lane Warren, and assisting the hostesses were Miss Jean Hauger, Miss Kay Dunbar, and Mrs. Woodruff.

Guests bidden to the affair were Mrs. Melvin McCollum, Mrs. Fred Kenschot, Mrs. James Kerns Jr., Mrs. Richard Post, Mrs. Robert Parcher Ellingson Jr., Misses Marjane and Caroline Daggett, Misses Marie, Carolyn and Phyllis Collier, Miss Betty Lou Drake, Miss Beverly Siemens, Miss Gayle Bratton, Miss Margaret West, Miss Marjorie Fairclough, Miss Audrey Edwards, Miss Dorothy Buchanan, Miss Helen Moore, Miss Lillian Davis, Miss Helen Lois Winningham, Miss Peggy Rakestraw, Miss Betty Reymers, Mrs. Whitlatch and Mrs. Warren, Miss Jean Hauger and Miss Kay Dunbar.

During their stay the Lamperts visited at the Grand Canyon and other points of interest, and here enjoyed several motor visits to the lakes including a drive around the rim road at Crater Lake national park. They left Sunday for the east stopping overnight at Timberline lodge and proceeding from there to Yellowstone.

Also dinner guests were Dr. and Mrs. Wright.

FINAL ORDERS RECEIVED BY DR. D. J. REES

Friends sincerely regret the departure of Dr. and Mrs. Denton J. Rees from this city. Dr. Rees having been called for service as captain in the United States army medical corps. The family will leave the latter part of July for San Francisco from where Captain Rees will sail August seventh for service in the Philippines. Mrs. Rees and young son, Denton John, will accompany him to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hibbs will occupy the Rees home on Lakeshore drive.

After a visit here of ten days, Mrs. Kathryn Pierrot left Thursday morning by train for Los Angeles where she will spend several days before taking the Streamliner for her home in Louisville, Kentucky. She visited as the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnhisel of Conger avenue. Numerous affairs were given for Mrs. Pierrot during her stay in Klamath Falls.

Miss Marilyn Bell of Santa Maria, California, who is visiting this summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schallack, spent the past week at the Charles Hovey and Mrs. Claude Daggett cabins at Lake o' the Woods. Mrs. Daggett and her two daughters, Marjane and Caroline, are spending quite a bit of the summer at their home at the lake.

Reception Planned

Arnold Gralapps Complimented at Murray Residence

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gralapp, who have recently come to Klamath Falls to make their home, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray were to entertain Saturday evening at their residence on Pacific Terrace, with an informal reception and garden party.

Mr. Gralapp has taken over his duties as superintendent of Klamath Union high school and the family resides in the Roosevelt apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray were assisted during the evening by their three children, Marcella, Rosemary and Rodney, and Joy Kent, who presided at the punch bowl. Also assisting were Mrs. George Auxier Myers, Mrs. Richard M. Smith of Tulelake, Mrs. Earl C. Reynolds, Mrs. Howard Perrin, and Mrs. Harvey A. York. Invitations were issued to seventy five.

Mrs. Oldenburg On East Coast

Friends of Mrs. Ray W. Oldenburg will be interested to learn she and her two young daughters, Jean Rae and Diane, are spending the remainder of the summer visiting with Mrs. Oldenburg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Banks of Liverpool, Nova Scotia. They will return here in time for the opening of school in September.

Your Baby's PHOTO

IN OUR NEW ULTRA-LOVELY

Silk PORTRAIT

49¢

Limited Time

YOU NEED NO APPOINTMENT

COMART

STUDIO Fine Photography 712 Main St. Telephone 2115

Treasure Kit

The "face value" of the season... eleven lovely Elizabeth Arden Preparations in a beautifully simulated alligator case.

Special value 395

Arden THE WOMAN'S STORE, INC.