Salem Girl Betrothed

Lieut. Roy Edgerton of Klamath Falls to Marry Miss Evenson

From Salem comes news of the betrothal of Miss Shirley Evenson, attractive capital city maid, to Lieutenant Roy C. Edgerton who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Edgerton of this city. Following is the story from the Capital Journal:

One of Salem's most charming maids, Miss Shirley Evenson, this afternoon announced her betrothal to Lieut. Roy C. Edgerton, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Edgerton of Klamath Falls.

The exciting announcement was made at an "at home" given by Mrs. J. B. Bywater, Mrs. Nora Ball of Portland and Miss Evenson at the home of Mrs. Bywater in West Superior street. Calling hours were from four to six o'clock.

Greeting guests at the door was Miss Mary Ellen Bywater. Miss Phyllis Adams of Silverton presented cards, bearing the names of the couple, to those who called. No date has been set for the wedding but it will be an event of early September.

Mrs. Bywater, Mrs. Ball, mother of the bride-elect, and Miss Evenson were in the receiving line. Miss Evenson wore a dainty gown of white net and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Ball was in black chiffon and lace with a corsage of pink flowers and Mrs. Bywater's gown was of green silk jersey. She wore a corsage of gardenias.

The serving table was handsome with a centerpiece of gladioli, poppies, sweet peas and snapdragons. The buffet was graced with a lovely arrangement of calla lilies.

Presiding at the urns were Mrs. Rudolph Ernst Kleinsorge of Silverton, Mrs. Earl J. Adams of Silverton, Mrs. A. C. F. Perry and Miss Beryl Holt. Serving were Miss Harriet Kleinsorge of Silverton, Mrs. Roger Kellogg, Miss Margaret Simms, Miss Mary Ellen Hammond, Miss Ruth Peck, Miss Sally McLellan, Miss Ruth Starrett, Miss Helen Langille, Mrs. Robert Rieder and Mrs. Harry V. Carson Jr.

Miss Charlotte McClary invited guests into the dining room and assisting in the living room were Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, Miss Jane Ann Evenson of Portland and Mrs. Claude Marion Johns of Salem.

Miss Evenson attended Silverton schools and Mt. Angel Junior college. An active member of Spinsters, she has served as secretary and vice president of the organization.

Lieut. Edgerton attended Oregon State college and was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity there. He is now attending the Field Artillery school at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and the couple will live there following their marriage.
