Club Elects New Officers

Mrs. Buck Named President of Toastmistresses for Term

New officers were elected by the Toastmistress club at the meeting held Monday evening, July the fourteenth, at Mrs. Nord's tea room, with Mrs. Paul Buck presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. Walter F. Brown.

Those elected to serve for the coming six months were Mrs. Paul Buck, president; Mrs. W. R. Boyd, vice president; Mrs. Emmett Chidester, secretary; Mrs. Russell Peterson, treasurer; Mrs. J. I. Beard, program chairman; Mrs. W. H. Hibbard, critic and coach; Mrs. Carl Schubert, sergeant-at-arms.

The by-laws were read by the president and thoroughly discussed, and changes or corrections were voted upon. Among suggestions offered for the improvement of the club was the idea of new officers, to be appointed, to see that all preparations were made for the smooth operation of the meetings. Also, more extemporaneous speaking was advocated, as well as the earlier arrival of the members to promote sociability.

Officers will be installed at the next meeting to be held on Monday, July the twenty-eighth, which will be the final meeting until fall as the club will vacation during the month of August.

Hostess to Merry Mixers

LUNCHEON PLANNED BY STUDY GROUP

Members of the garden study group of the Klamath Falls Women's Library club will enjoy a paper bag luncheon at half past twelve o'clock in the club rooms at the library on Monday, July the twenty-eighth. At half past one o'clock a short business session will be held by the executive board.

At two o'clock the regular program as planned by the program committee, Mrs. C. W. Hornbrook and Mrs. G. A. Krause, will be a weed show. Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. J. W. Porter and Mrs. J. F. King will have charge of the staging of the show and urge all members of the study group to submit entries. This program is open to the public and should be very interesting with entries made by Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Mrs. Krause and also by members of the class which they are now conducting in weed and flower arranging.

During the first week in September the garden study group will present Mrs. Eunice Curtis of Seattle, who is an authority on horticulture and flower arranging, in two lectures. The first to be, "Design Value of Plant Material," and the second, "Holiday Tables and Traditional Wreaths in Variety." Mrs. Curtis will give laboratory lessons to a class of ten during the week proceeding the fall flower show. These lessons will be held in the mornings and a small fee will be charged.

Mrs. Effie Rose Hemstreet of Portland, who has many friends among the residents of Klamath Falls, left for her home Tuesday afternoon after spending several days with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones of High street. During her stay Mrs. Hemstreet motored to Diamond lake and Union creek, Crater lake and for two days visited in the Rogue River valley where she and Mrs. Jones spent their girlhood years.

Visiting in the city this past week were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Halliwell of Sacramento, California, who were guests of Mrs. Halliwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Chastain, at their home on North Third street. Mrs. Halliwell, a member of one of Klamath Falls' well-known families, has many friends here who greet her return each year.

A summer visitor in Klamath Falls is Mrs. Pauline Roenicke of Portland who is the houseguest of her son and family, Dr. and Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke.

Mr. and Mrs. Tillotson and Mrs. Tillotson's sister, Mrs. Vera Stephenson, are expected home this weekend from a fortnight's stay in El Segundo, California, and Pasadena.

FRIENDS TOLD ROSE BUNDY TO WED IN AUGUST

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bundy announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Rose Bundy, to Mr. William Ridgway of Bradenton, Florida, on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Palmer Gunderson, sister of the bride-elect. The wedding will be an event of late August.

The betrothal was revealed by tiny white scrolls tied with pink ribbon and rosebuds. The tables were lovely with a pink and white floral motif and candlelight.

Those receiving the announcement included Mrs. Walter Nichols, Mrs. James Kennerly, Mrs. Daniel Anderson and Miss Kathrin Ridgway. Hostesses for the occasion were Miss Grace Bundy and Mrs. Palmer Gunderson.
