

Pelicans Take Second By Slapping Albany Nine, 11-8

Locals Drop Saturday Exhibition Tilt, 7-0

By BOB GLENNON
Klamath Falls took over second place in Oregon State league second half standings by dumping the Albany Alcos, 11-8, in a free-hitting, loosely-played baseball contest at Central field in Albany Sunday afternoon. The Pelicans now have won two and lost one and are right behind the first-place Silverton Red Sox, who are undefeated with three consecutive loop victories.

The Bigbills suffered a 7-0 whitewashing Saturday night on the same field as Dick Johnson, young Albany hurler, set them down with only five hits in an exhibition affair that had no bearing on the league standings.

Defense Cracks
Albany's defense cracked wide open in the first frame of the Sunday clash, erring four times to allow the Pelicans to tally two runs on not a solitary hit. However, in the second inning the Klamath batsmen punched out three hits off Hurler Oscar "Red" Miller to actually earn a run.

In the third and fourth stanzas six more hits rattled off the bats of the Klamathites to give the visitors five more runs. The Alcos, too, were doing some slugging of their own in the same four-inning stretch off Pitcher Clyde Carlstrom, tallying seven counters on seven hits including homers by Third Baseman Alex McDonald and Shortstop Bobby Morris.

Owens Swats
In the last of the fifth Johnny Owens, huge Alco catcher, swatted a long homer over the left field fence to tie the score, 8-8, and complete the run-making for the home club.

Paul Crapo, southpaw-hitting first baseman, was responsible for the winning run for the Pelicans as he lofted one of Miller's pitches over the right field wall in the sixth for his second hit of the ball game. It was the only circuit blow of 14 hits for the winners compared to three homers out of 14 safeties for the losing nine.

Steve Jansoa, new Klamath moundsman, worked the last two innings for the Klamath team, allowing no runs on three hits. The Albany outfit nipped Carlstrom for 11 hits in the seven innings he was on the hillock.

In the first of the ninth the Klamaths manufactured two markers on hits by Lloyd, Gross and Mahoney and an Alco to go ahead by three runs, a comfortable margin. The Alcos got two men on in the last of the ninth but were unable to cross the plate.

Three Apiece
Center Fielder Jack Mahoney and Shortstop Jack Lloyd paced the Bigbills with three hits apiece in the Sunday engagement. Mahoney collected two hits in the Saturday tilt to amass an aggregate of five in nine trips to the platter over the weekend. Three of the blows were bunts which he laid down and beat out.

Mahoney also turned in a nice job in the outfield, handling 10 chances without a bobbler in the two contests. Manager Ernie Bishop, second sacker, played his usual sterling game at the keystone base Sunday, taking five chances in stride and batting out two hits in five tries. He started two double plays, getting the initial putout in each case.

Silverton's Red Sox continued to dominate State league baseball play yesterday (Sunday) by squeezing out a tenth inning win over the Eugene Athletics, 5 to 4, at Silverton.

Granato's single in the tenth scored Richards with the winning run.

Albany shook off its state tournament doldrums Saturday night to spank Klamath Falls, 7 to 0, in an exhibition game, but fell right back to erring ways, losing the Sunday league game, 11 to 8, to the Pelicans.

Hills Creek scored twice in the tenth inning to defeat Toledo, 6 to 4.

In an exhibition game Saturday night, Bend trounced Medford, 8 to 3.

The St. Louis Cardinals are on their way back west today to open a long home stand against the eastern clubs, and there is a good chance they will take complete charge of the National league race before they are again routed out of Sportsman's park.

They left that impression as they completed a smashing tour of the seaboard with a double defeat of the Boston Braves yesterday by scores of 4 to 2 and 7 to 3. That made it seven victories in their past nine games, indicating that Billy Southworth's boys finally were rolling.

Brooklyn, by doing no better than breaking even against Pittsburgh yesterday, saw its lead sliced to a game and a half, with a long road trip ahead. The Dodgers have played only 500 ball in their past 10 contests at home, and their pitching staff is showing alarming signs of falling apart.

Whit Wyatt, the team's ace, lost his third straight start when the Pirates beat him, 5 to 1, in the nightcap. Fred Fitzsimmons, reliable veteran, was struck on the arm by a batted ball and forced to retire early in the first tilt, which Curt Davis went on to win, 5 to 1. Kirby Higbe, another of the Dodgers' "Big Three," is in a hospital with a bad appendix and will not accompany the club west.

The Cincinnati Reds, who haven't yet lost hope of winning their third straight flag climbed within two percentage points of third place by thumping the Phillies twice, 7 to 1 and 3 to 2. Paul Derringer broke a five-game losing streak in the first, in which he left 12 Phillies stranded.

The New York Giants won the first from Chicago, 7 to 5, Carl Hubbell scoring his ninth victory, but the Cubs came back to take the second, 7 to 4, behind Vernie Olsen.

The Yankees exploded for six runs in the 17th inning to win a 12 to 6 decision over Detroit at Briggs stadium. Deadlocked 6-6 at the end of nine frames, they battled four hours and five minutes before the blow-off.

Included in the Yankees' winning assault on Al Benton and Johnny Gorica were home runs by Charley Keller and Tom Henrich and doubles by Johnny Sturm, Red Rolfe and Jo DiMaggio. DiMaggio previously had clouted a home run and a pair of doubles.

The victory increased the Yankees' lead to seven full games over the Cleveland Indians, who divided a brace with Washington. The Senators beat them, 8 to 4, in the first behind Steve Sundra, but a rash of errors in the late innings by the Washington infield enabled the Indians to take the second, 5 to 1.

The St. Louis Browns swept their second double-header in two days over Boston's diving Red Sox, 6 to 3 and 10 to 0. George McQuinn had a gay day at it at bat for the Browns busting three homers and two singles.

Veteran Ted Lyons pitched Chicago's White Sox to a 2 to 1 win in their first bout with the Philadelphia Athletics, but the A's came back to win the second, 4 to 1, in 13 innings.

Arcaro Suspended From Horse Racing

YONKERS, N. Y., July 21 (UP)—Jockey Eddie Arcaro, who rode Calumet Farm's Whirlaway to the triple crown of the American turf in the Kentucky derby, Pimlico Preakness and Belmont stakes, Saturday was suspended indefinitely by the stewards of Empire City for rough riding in the second race.

Arcaro's services probably will be lost to Calumet Farm in the Arlington classic next Saturday at Arlington park as his case was referred to the jockey club which does not meet until the early weeks of the Saratoga meeting in August.

Mioland in Lead
The gold cup started out as a one-horse affair — Mioland against the field, but it didn't stay that way long. The customers, many of whom had seen Howard's Seabiscuit and Kayak II romp to triumph in two of the past three runnings of the event, backed Mioland and his running mate, Porter's Cap, down to odds of 4-5, and then stood by in shocked surprise when their hopeful was decisively beaten and closed two and a half lengths off the pace.

Texas Golfer Wins Publinox Trophy

Bill Welch Crowned Publinox Golf Champ

By COLLIE SMALL
INDIAN CANYON COURSE, SPOKANE, Wash., July 21 (UP)
Bill Welch, tool room clerk for a Houston oil company, Saturday walloped Jack Kerns, Denver insurance agent, 6 and 5, in the 36-hole finals of the national public links golf championship.

Welch, a slow-moving Texan who plays golf like a chess game, outlasted the slender, bespectacled Kerns at the end of a gruelling week of competition over the hilly Indian Canyon course in scorching heat.

Kerns' game collapsed in the third nine of the final round, after he had held a one-up lead at lunch time.

Nine Pars
Welch was one over par on the first nine with a 36, but stood one up on Kerns. The Denver golfer rallied to square the match on the 15th and won the 16th to go into the lead.

On the first nine of the afternoon round, Welch cracked off nine straight pars and went three up as the tired Kerns blew four over par with a 39.

Turning for home with a three-hole lead and seemingly getting better as he went along, Welch reeled off the last four holes with a par and 3 straight birdies, winning the 29th, 30th and 31st to cut the match short.

Both Kerns and Welch were tournament dark-horses. Welch barely qualified when he shot a 151 with 16 others and had to play off for one of 13 remaining places in the championship bracket of 64. Kerns qualified with a mediocre 150, but later scored the tournament's biggest upset when he defeated Jimmy Clark, the Long Beach, Calif., medalist and red-hot favorite.

TONIGHT'S GAMES
7 p. m.—Pelican Bay vs. Kalpine.
8 p. m.—Knights of Columbus vs. Weyerhaeuser.

A capacity crowd of softball fans that is expected to jam Recreation field for the "free night" doubleheader program tonight likely will witness as classy an exhibition of the twilight sport that has been offered here in several years.

Four top-ranking teams of the 13-club Klamath Softball association are on the billing for a state tilt that will get underway at 7 p. m. with Kalpine and Pelican Bay squaring off against each other. Ivan Broten of the Plywoods, a national senior singles' sculling champion as Undine Boat club, Philadelphia, wins team title and Fairmont Rowing club, Philadelphia, takes eight-oared race.

Broten was the leading pitcher of the Weyerhaeuser aggregation in 1940 when the Timbermen took second place in the local softball setup while Myers, a southpaw, hurled the Knights of Columbus to the championship last year.

Second contest tonight pits the undefeated Weyerhaeuser and KC teams against each other. Both have played and won five games to date in league competition. Bill Borcher, the big Timberman who has won five straight shutouts this season for his team, is again

Requested Wins At Empire City

YONKERS, N. Y., July 21 (UP)—Requested, a fleet-footed son of Questionnaire and one of the better juveniles of the season, showed his class again Saturday by sprinting to a neck decision in the 28th running of the $5,000 Eastview stakes at Empire City.

First half of a twin-stake offering, the Eastview drew a field of seven, most of whom had eaten Requested's dust before and probably will have to eat it again if they meet. It was Requested's fifth win in his last six starts.

Yakima Takes Two From Spokane Nine

By The Associated Press
The Yakima Pippins gained a full game on the Western International league leading Spokane Indians last night by taking both ends of a doubleheader from the Tacoma Tigers in Yakima by almost identical scores. The Indians split a twin bill with Vancouver.

Sal Madrid led the Pippins' assault as they won the opener 11-6, getting three hits in five trips. Walt Bliss sparked the attack in the nightcap, which they won 11-7, getting four hits in five visits to the plate.

Pete Jonas held the Indians to seven hits as the Capitanos registered a 10-3 triumph in an afternoon game in Spokane. The Indians won a brilliant mound duel in the nightcap 3-2.

George Windsor tossed fourth ball to give the Salem Senators a 7-1 victory over the Wenatchee Chiefs in Salem in the second game of a twin bill after the Chiefs had won the opener 3-1.

KLAMATH FALLS—Monday Dear Boss: I'm back, evidently, unburned and peeling from five days on the highway with the top down. Strictly in the pink, you might say.

I last wrote you from home a week ago Sunday. Pardon the delay but the time grew more tedious as the departure date approached.

Monday I plunged into the used car marts along Western avenue and finally came out with something not too old bearing four tires, a retractable roof, and an unquenchable octane thirst.

Wednesday I embarked, after several false starts, for what should have been Omaha but turned out to be Des Moines. Excellent road conditions and spotty weather through 400-odd miles on the first day.

Farmers through the broad midwest expect one of their best years. I was told. Weather conditions have been good all year and crops, especially corn, are in fine shape.

From Des Moines Thursday morning to Cheyenne that night, across all of green Nebraska, constituted my biggest single day—643 miles.

Loss, don't ever argue with Cheyenne resident about the merits of their Frontier Days show against the Pendleton Roundup. He'll get mad. The Cheyenne show, said to be the first in the west, opens Tuesday, July 22, and runs through Saturday.

Across the high plateau of old Wyoming, all over 8000 feet, I sped on Friday. From Rawlins west for 150 miles there were no more than a half-dozen turns on a beautiful four-lane highway. Multiply the Lobert cut-off by 12 and you have the idea.

There's where lone driving began to bite. Scenery was inexorably monotonous, different at first from the rolling roads of Nebraska but repetitive after the first 80 miles. To the south Colorado's snow-capped peaks were the only variety in an expanse of misshapen dun-brown buttes.

In a downpour Saturday morning I dropped some 2000 through the grim Watchatch range from Evanston, Wyo., to Salt Lake City in the Laramie valley.

On west after an hour's visit with Mary McQuaid, the United stewardess from the Mormon city to Denver two weeks ago, I rolled under clearing skies across the salt flats and desert of Utah into the brown and sage desert of Nevada.

From Winnemucca through 100-degree heat of western Nevada and northern California to here polished it off. That 40 mile stretch north of Canby was by all odds the worst in 2379 cross-country miles.

So back to a rundown alarm clock, piled-up mail, and a dusty typewriter. The vacation is over. R. O. L.

Angott Puts Chin Up in Robinson Go

By SID FEDER
PHILADELPHIA, July 21 (AP)
Sammy Angott takes on Harlem's dusky skyrocket, Ray Robinson, at Shibe park tonight, and while Sammy isn't taking any chances with his end of the world lightweight championship he's risking a whole lot with his chin.

In the 20-year-old skinny stick of dynamite, the national boxing association's 135-pound boss tangles for ten rounds or less with a kid who has risen to the top in just one year of professional punch-tossing strictly on his ability to knock 'em dead with one poke.

Around this City of Brotherly Love they're saying Sammy's years of experience and unorthodox style aren't enough, and he'll probably wind up just like any one of the 17 fellows Roundhouse Ray has put to sleep in the 20 times he has gone to the post for pay.

The other three all lost lopsided decisions to Robinson.

Big Pebble Wins Turf Classic For Rich Hollywood Gold Cup white colors of Circle M ranch to a heart-stopping triumph in the fourth running of the $75,000 Hollywood gold cup.

Obscured by the clouds of dust kicked up by the pace setters for the first mile of the long gallop that is the richest event of the summer turf season, the five-year-old son of Black Servant held his speed in reserve until he reached the final turn and then came on under a hard drive that carried him across the finish strip with a neck advantage.

Paperboy Places
In second place, and cheered by thousands of hunch players, came the W. L. Ranch's three-year-old Paperboy, while C. S. Howard's heavily favored Mioland could do no better than third with his heavy burden of 130 pounds—a load that was too great for the big Oregon-bred colt to carry when Big Pebble opened his stirring bid in the final 100 yards.

A crowd of 41,000 persons, who trooped into the long grandstand at Hollywood park as early as 9:30 a. m. for their glimpse of the fixture which earned Owner Edward S. Moore of Sheridan, Wyo., a net purse of $62,475, took the spectacular finish with mingled cheers and whistles of surprise.

With Jockey Jackie Westrop in the stirrups, Big Pebble completed the mile and quarter grind on a fast track under blue skies in a brilliant 2:02 3-5, just three fifths of a second off the track record, established by Challeon a year ago, carrying second weight of 119 pounds. He paid $12.80, $5.80 and $2.80 in the mutuels as the big crowd wagered more than $1,000,000 on the eight race card.
