ZION LUTHERANS WELCOME PASTOR

A welcome to Klamath Falls was given the Rev. Carl F. Nitz and family by members of the Zion Lutheran church congregation on Sunday of this past week when a reception and potluck luncheon was given in the church following the 11 o'clock service.

The Rev. Nitz, with his wife and two young sons, Theodore 3, and Wilfred, nine months, arrived Saturday to make their home in this city, the pastor accepting the call following the resignation of the Rev. George Hoffmann, for many years minister of Zion Lutheran church.

The Rev. Nitz was duly installed in the Sunday morning service by the Rev. W. F. George of Portland. The young pastor was born in Bellingham, Wash., studied and received his degree at Concordia seminary, St. Louis, Mo., largest theological seminary in the United States, and his first charge was in Aberdeen, Ida., going from there to Cornelius, Ore., where he served before accepting the local pastorate. The Rev. Nitz enters his eighth year in the ministry upon his arrival in Klamath Falls. Some 80 members of the congregation joined in welcoming the family to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Barkdoll and family of Bisbee street made a trip to Grater lake Sunday. A minor returned to work Wednesday after a three weeks' layoff. Minor's finger was cut off while he was working.

In Dunsmuir—Fred Justice of 2134 White avenue, spent Tuesday in Dunsmuir on business.

Visitor

Commissioner Donald McMillan of the Salvation Army will be present at the First Presbyterian church this Sunday morning and will speak during the 11 o'clock service. The commissioner will be accompanied by Mrs. McMillan who will attend the service also. Commissioner McMillan is territorial commander in charge of 11 western states and the island of Hawaii. He is a graduate of Harvard university and is a very able speaker. The friends of the army as well as the members of the congregation are cordially invited to hear him. It is probable that an outstanding Salvationist will deliver the address at the evening service also, but final selection of the speaker has not yet been made.

Malin Youth Enters Army Air Academy

TULARE, Calif. — Ehle H. Reber, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Reber, of Malin, has received his appointment as a flying cadet in the U. S. army air corps and has been assigned to the Rankin Aeronautical academy, Tulare, Calif., where he will spend the first 10 weeks of his eight months training course.

The Rankin academy, one of the newest of the air corps training schools, is headed by J. G. "Tex" Rankin, famous flyer, with Capt. Charles J. Daly, West Point graduate, in command of the army unit.

We are helping to resist aggression for one reason and for one reason only—to make the world safe for America and for Americans. — Paul V. McNutt, federal security administrator.
