

WHITAKER'S OPENS HERE ON SATURDAY

The big new Whitaker's Grocery on Klamath avenue at Twelfth street is in readiness for the grand opening Saturday when its doors will swing open for Klamath Falls shoppers.

J. C. Whitaker expresses himself as satisfied with the efforts of the contractor, M. W. Cherry, and the sub-contractors who handled construction of the building.

The store is situated in one of the shopping centers of the city and offers easy approach from any direction. A big, roomy parking lot has been laid out for use of customers.

Whitaker has chosen a staff of experienced clerks for the purpose of helping shoppers with their purchases. Those on the staff are: Russell Fairchild, Bob Bruse and Melvin Kable, who will take care of the grocery part of the business, and Ed W. Miller and Charles Howard, who will operate the big meat market located in the store.

Whitaker hopes that the townspeople will visit his new place of business during the opening, to view the building and let it speak for itself. Complete lines of fresh vegetables, canned goods and meats are in stock.

Whitaker, who started the first self-service grocery store in Klamath Falls years ago, says he stands on his past reputation as a grocer in opening for Klamath Falls its newest up-to-date groceteria.

Rynerson to Speak At AFL Loggers' Convention Here

C. M. Rynerson, member of the state industrial accident commission, will be one of the principal speakers at the big AFL Loggers convention here Sunday, August 3, it was announced Thursday.

The convocation, sponsored by the Klamath district council of the Lumber and Sawmill Workers union, will be called to order at 10 a. m. in the Labor temple.

Hospitalization, log scaling, living conditions, wage scale, and seasonality forums will be held during the day.

Also on the speaker roster will be an official representative of the LSU northwest council and several loggers from the Puget Sound and Blue Mountain areas.

A special edition of the Union Register, AFL journal, is being made up for the occasion.

Meanwhile AFL organizational and contract activity pushed ahead on several fronts. According to Chief Organizer Joe Boyd, negotiations toward union contracts are in various stages at 13 different places throughout the Klamath district.

Copco Employees Plan Annual Picnic

Athletics and just sittin' around with free ice cream, coffee and lemonade will feature the annual picnic of the Klamath division of the California Oregon Power company next Sunday at the Fort Klamath gravel pit.

Employees and their friends have been invited to attend.

In the athletic line there will be softball, swimming, horse-shoes and tug o' war and prizes to the winners. In the sittin' around line there'll be plenty of shade trees.

USE OUR BIG PARKING LOT

After months of planning and building, Mrs. Whitaker and I are happy to announce the opening of our new Groceteria. We chose the location and built the large parking lot to make your shopping hours most convenient. The spacious modern building was created to house an extra complete stock of high quality groceries. You'll find our cash prices consistently low. We hope you like it!
