PLAYGROUND EVENTS NOTABLE IN WEEK

Two hundred and five boys and girls were on hand at recreation centers to receive ice cream cones given by the Crater Lake Dairy last Friday afternoon.

Another outstanding event of last week's program was the presentation of an assembly by the children of Pelican City on Thursday. A group of boys gave an amusing skit, "The Human Ford." "A Tragedy," another comedy skit, was also given. Group singing rounded out the program.

At Mills a girls' tennis class was started with Miss Marshall as instructor. The class will meet every Wednesday at 10:30 in the triangular park across from Mills school.

The ping pong tournaments were going strong at the different centers. This is a preliminary to determine who is to play in the city championship tournament to be held at Moore park August 3.

Monday afternoon the children of Conger enjoyed a picnic at Moore park. Games were played and the grounds were explored. The afternoon's entertainment was brought to a close by a watermelon feed.

Four Young Men Join Marine Corps At Klamath Office

Robert V. Houston, son of Mrs. Beryl Houston of 317 Pine street, Klamath Falls, Wesley N. Hunter, son of James H. Hunter, of Klamath Falls, Luther L. Thornton, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Thornton of 1801 Worden street, Klamath Falls, and John Davis Pinson of Orlinda, Tenn., were all accepted for enlistment through the local marine corps recruiting office, located in room 201, Stewart-Drew building, Klamath Falls, July 29.

The office is open daily from 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. Anyone between the ages of 17 and 30 who desires further information may write or call at the above address. The length of enlistment for the regulars is for four years and for the reserves with immediate service for the duration of the emergency. Those who have registered for selective service may still enlist in the marine corps, and young men who are interested in skilled trades will find more than a score of them to be learned in the corps.

says World's Foremost Living Explorer

REAR ADMIRAL RICHARD E. BYRD, U.S.N. ret.

Most beautiful new car in America

Skyway Series Studebaker

"I LIKED the clean-lined look of my Skyway Series Studebaker, the instant I saw it," says Admiral Byrd.

"I knew at once that here was a car which frankly borrowed from the modern airplane to achieve its smooth, flowing contours—and, when I drove it a few miles, I discovered that Studebaker's engineers had put airplane brilliance of performance into this remarkable car."

Our thanks to you, Admiral Byrd, for your admirable description of the beautiful new Skyway Series Studebakers.
