MINERAL CLUB TO LEAD FIELD TRIP

The Klamath Mineral club will hold a conducted field trip to the petrified wood district of Lapham, near Quartz mountain, on Sunday, August 3.

Visitors are always welcome to attend these field trips and the club extends its invitation to anyone interested in geology or in rocks and minerals to attend.

The petrified wood of Lapham is chiefly to be found in the opalized form and some of the finest specimen and gem material to be found in the United States comes from this area. The chief aim of the field trip is to obtain some of this gem quality wood.

Expert cutters and polishers who will be in attendance, are not only willing but anxious to help beginners get the proper start on the hobby of collecting and polishing semi-precious stones.

Those attending this trip should bring their lunch and a canteen of drinking water. The caravan starts from the chamber of commerce building in Klamath Falls on Sunday promptly at 7 a. m., and takes the Lakewview highway to the Quartz Mountain service station, from where it will leave for Lapham at 9 a. m.

The caravan will stop for lunch near the Lapham ranch

PLANS COMPLETE FOR PARK EVENT

Elaborate plans have been made for an all day recreation program Sunday, August 3, at Moore park. George Conner is donating the loud speaking system for the day. Tommy Thompson of Sears Roebuck and company and Ted Medford of Safeway stores are donating the treats which are to be given to all boys and girls present. Prizes will also be in order for the winners of athletic events, so states Dave Bridge, city recreational officer.

A special concert is to be rendered by the city municipal band. Again the city officials and recreation committee of Klamath Falls urge the attendance of parents and children. Parents and children from the county are also welcome to partake in the day's program.

More than 97 per cent of all drivers involved in accidents in 1940 had a year or more of operating experience.
