

SOCIETY

By LOIS
STEWART

Miss Donna Fife (above), announced her betrothal to Mr. Robert O. Sproat of Klamath Falls, at a prettily appointed summer tea given by Mrs. Victor J. Josephson and Miss Martha Robison at the Josephson home Saturday afternoon. The wedding will be an event of mid-September at St. Paul's Episcopal church. (Kennell-Ellis).

Romance was in the air this past week and at an attractive tea given Tuesday afternoon the betrothal of Mary Frances Johnson (center) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. French Johnson of Tulelake, to Mr. Donald Rieben also of Tulelake, was announced.—Kennell-Ellis.

Miss Suzanne Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cunningham of Portland, has been a charming visitor here this past week, guest of her brother-in-law and sister, the John Shaws of Lowell street. Miss Cunningham was graduated this June from the University of Oregon and is en route home following a visit in San Francisco and Berkeley.

Mrs. Ray Witt and small daughter, Karen, and son, Peter, enjoy a visit with "Esau," during their stay at the Andrew Collier country home, Anabaglish. Mr. and Mrs. Witt and children left this weekend for the north, returning by way of Chicago to their home in Wellesley Hills, Massachusetts. En route west they enjoyed a visit in Mexico City. —Pictures by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

The cameraman snapped Ann Stevenson (right), and her cousin, Betty Everett of Arcata, California, during a visit they paid to look over "Big Boy," pride of the Andrew Collier stables. Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson, and Betty is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Addison Everett and niece of Mr. Stevenson and Mr. A. D. Addison.

