

F. R. MATT, 84, EARLY PIONEER HERE, PASSES

Frank Robert Matt, 84, for the past 53 years a resident of Klamath Falls, died at the family home, 1453 Wilford avenue, at 6:55 a. m. Friday. Death followed an illness of the past three months. Mr. Matt suffered a severe fall in January and failed to recover from the injuries.

Mr. Matt and his wife, Mary Elizabeth, observed their 57th wedding anniversary on February 7 of this year. They were married in Gervais, Ore., in 1884. Mr. Matt was the son of pioneers, Joseph and Harriett Matt, who were among the French-Canadian colonists who founded the community of Gervais near Salem. The elder Matt was instrumental in bringing Oregon to statehood. Mrs. Matt, the former Mary Elizabeth Galarsneau, was born in Logansport, Indiana, but came to Oregon at an early age with her parents who crossed the plains in the early 60's.

After spending several years in Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Matt moved to Klamath county where he was employed by the federal government on irrigation jobs. Later Mr. Matt entered the furniture business, having one of the first furniture stores in the town of Linkville. His first location was on the present site of the First Federal Savings and Loan building, Sixth and Main streets. He later moved his business to the corner of Klamath and Sixth where the Richfield station now stands, and also occupied a building later just across the street on Sixth.

Twelve years ago Mr. Matt

retired from active business interests. He had made his home at the present residence for the past 29 years. Each year, on February 7, many old friends called on the Matts to wish them happiness on their wedding date. This past year the observance was limited to a few old friends and members of the family because of Mr. Matt's illness.

Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Matt, five of whom survive. They are Clarence A. Matt of Portland; Mrs. Emma Sutton of Pomona, Calif.; Mrs. Frances Harrison of this city; Mrs. Agnes Goucher of San Francisco; and Cecil B. Matt of Klamath Falls. Two daughters, Mrs. Anna Reid of Seattle, and Mrs. Nettie Monroe of Los Angeles, died in recent years. Mrs. Reid died in November, 1940. Mrs. Monroe in 1931. A son, Oliver, died in infancy.

Mr. Matt was a member of Sacred Heart church, the Third Order of St. Francis, and St. Joseph's Union. Funeral services will be held from the church at 9:30 a. m. Monday with interment in Mt. Calvary cemetery. Arrangements are being made by the Earl Whitlock Funeral home.

of the cell cage and broke through the ceiling, and crawled up into the attic. Feeling his way around there he finally crashed through another place into the closet where the city books are kept, just off the council room which he thoroughly ransacked. Finally he broke out through a front window—leaving behind his plumber's card, some small change and his derisive note. Perhaps the note was to focus the attention of the law on places north while he leisurely traveled south. Perhaps he had cause to be afraid he might be fingerprinted and have really serious charges lodged against him.

At any rate the jail is being strengthened and the damages repaired and a "warm" welcome awaits said drunk if he ever returns to the environs of Dorris.

Each of these moves, he continued, brought the United States "closer and closer to war."

"Let us present a united front," Cox said. "Let us say to the world that we are Americans and that we mean business."

Fish said that he disagreed with the argument that if selectees were released at the end of the present statutory year of training the army would be disorganized and asked if replacements could not be made in peacetime how they could be obtained "under war conditions when casualties may amount to 30 per cent or more?"

MOJAVE, Calif., Aug. 8 (AP) A man and a woman held up a filling station here early today, warned two young attendants not to notify police, then returned and kidnaped both youths within an hour.

Captain Scott of the highway patrol said the man, about 35, and woman, about 30, got $30 from a Shell filling station at 1:35 a. m. They fled in an automobile bearing an Oregon license plate.

After a statewide police alert had been broadcast, the same couple returned, stole Special Deputy Sheriff Frank Webb's automobile, kidnaped Glenn Fleming, 19, and Eddy Gardner, 19, and fled again.

Scott speculated that the thieves had heard the broadcast, returned and kidnaped the filling station attendants because they had spread an alarm. Webb's machine, in which the robbers fled with their hostages, bore California license 31A745. It's a 1937 model Terraplane tan sedan.
