

Recreation Day at Moore Park a Huge Success

Everybody had a good time last Sunday at Moore park, when recreation day was observed, as these pictures show. 1—Sack race. 2—Children on a slide. 3—Peanut race. 4—Balloon-blowing contest. 5—Two girls eating watermelon. 6—Awarding of prizes. 7—She won the pie-eating contest. 8—Spectators line up for a race. 9—Pie-eating contest. Table tennis, softball and other sports supplied everyone at the outing with plenty of entertainment.

City Briefs

Leaves Hospital — Mrs. F. A. Longaker of Olympia, Wash., who suffered serious injuries in an automobile accident June 12 which also cost the life of her brother, Forrest Kegley of Olympia and with whom she was traveling south, left Klamath Valley hospital Thursday night by train for Olympia. She was accompanied by her niece, Ruth Kegley, who has been here much of the time with her aunt. The accident also cost the life of Maurice Cannalanga, and John Barlow, and injured several others.

Returns Home — Beatrice Morris has returned to her home, 2061 Eberlein avenue, after visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elman Smith of Dunsuir. Her sister, Rosemary Morris, accompanied her home after spending several days in Dunsuir. The Smiths accompanied their nieces to Klamath Falls, returning to Dunsuir the next day.

Wisconsin Guests — Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hilker of Beloit, Wis., visited the early part of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kennedy, 805 Martin street. Mrs. Kennedy is an aunt of Francis Hilker. They are en route home after a vacation trip which took them through southern California. From here they will motor through Yellowstone national park.

Twins Born — Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Flynn, well known Tulake ranchers, are parents of twins born at Hillside hospital Thursday, August 7. A son was born first, weighing 5 pounds 6 ounces. Mother and children are reported doing nicely by hospital attendants.

In Hospital — Bert Mellow, two and one-half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mellow of 2143 Hope avenue, is seriously ill at Klamath Valley hospital suffering from pneumonia. The child was admitted August 6.

Improved — Mrs. Goldine Staus, who has been confined to her home for the past 10 days with an attack of illness, is able to be about for a short while each day. She resides on Wantland avenue.

From Malin — Mrs. Theresa McComb of Malin visited in Klamath Falls this week at the home of Mrs. Elsie Faught, 1223 East Main street.

Return Home — Mrs. R. I. Irwin and infant son left Klamath Valley hospital Thursday afternoon for their home, 1912 Wiard street.

Uncle Killed — Paul E. Sexton of St. Francis park, and Porter Sexton of Homedale have received word of the death of their uncle, James Sexton, who was killed instantly in an automobile accident near Riverside, Calif., August 3. His youngest son was seriously injured in the crash. Mr. Sexton is a former resident of Klamath Falls and Dunsuir and employed by the Southern Pacific railroad, transferred to the Los Angeles division several years ago.

Treats — Monday, August 11, at 3 p. m. all recreation school boys and girls are invited to go through Fluhrer's bakery. Children are to meet in front of the bakery where members of the staff will escort groups of about five children at a time through the various parts of the plant. The children will have an opportunity to see bread and pastries in the making. The different machines will be pointed out and their uses explained. Treats will be given.

To Salem — Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Corey have returned to their home in Salem after spending the past two months at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Vance of Shasta way. Mrs. Vance accompanied her parents home and will remain with them for one month.

Mrs. Borton Ill — Friends of Mrs. Harold Borton who resides near Pelican City, will regret to learn she is quite ill at the family home. She suffered a leg injury several days ago. Mrs. John Hunt, Mrs. Borton's mother, was called to her home in Idaho by the illness of another daughter. She left Monday after visiting her daughter here for several days.

Fire Call — The city fire department was called to the Black and White service station, Main and Spring streets, at 1:26 p. m. Thursday when a fire was reported burning in the retreading department. Little damage was done.
