

TURKS RUMOR ANOTHER NAZI PEACE OFFER

By DANA SCHMIDT
United Press Correspondent
ANKARA, Aug. 8 (UP)—A purported German peace plan, offering the liberation of Nazi-occupied western Europe and respect for the entire British empire, circulated today among diplomats who heard that the offer would be launched if and when Germany's armies strike across Russia to the Urals.

There was no confirmation that the so-called peace plan actually came from Berlin, but it was disclosed that two unidentified officials of the German foreign office had arrived in Turkey by special plane to confer with German Ambassador Baron Franz von Papen. Von Papen was reported seeking to establish contact with the British ambassador here, Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen, to persuade Britain to disassociate herself from the Russian-German war. The Germans were represented as anxious to persuade the British that the time has come to abandon a "useless" struggle between the two great "Aryan" powers.

A special German plane arrived at Istanbul airport Tuesday night with two men and three women who immediately rushed to von Papen's summer embassy residence. German officials refused to divulge the names of the individuals but said they were officials of the foreign office in Berlin.

Under the reported peace plan Germany would cease hostilities on all fronts for a time after obtaining her objectives in Russia and rely upon public opinion in the United States to force Britain to halt the war on these seven conditions:

1. A 25-year German occupation of Russia as far as the Ural mountains, meaning the occupation of Moscow, Kiev and other large centers, and a semi-autonomous Ukraine under the direction of Dr. Alfred Rosenberg, the chief administrator of German-occupied Russia.
2. A semi-autonomous Poland generally consisting of an extension of the present German-occupied Polish territory to include those parts of Eastern Poland seized by Russia in 1939.
3. British and United States recognition of Germany's right to freedom of action in eastern Europe whereby the Czechs would be given a restricted autonomy, but not reunion with the Slovaks and only Rumania, Hungary and Bulgaria would be regarded as permanently under German "protection" as they are now.
4. Parts of the territories of Yugoslavia and Greece would be given varying degrees of restricted autonomy.
5. Germany would evacuate Norway, Denmark, Holland, Belgium and France, retaining only Alsace-Lorraine which is former German territory.
6. Italy would regain Ethiopia and restore the situation existing after her 1936 conquest, would retain Libya and obtain Tunisia from France.
7. The territories of the British empire would in no way be affected by the settlement.

Some diplomatic observers in Ankara said they were convinced the Germans, having encountered heavy troubles in Russia, are now seriously worried in view of the growing British-United States power, even if they ultimately defeat the Russians.

Why Not Tie a Tin Can To Hot Weather Cooking?

During August dog-days keep your kitchen as cool as possible. Wherever nutritious valuable and good tasting canned foods fit into the budget, they may be used to cut down on preparation and cooking time. Some hot food must be in the dinner menu. On that principle, the following dog-days menus and recipes are given, using canned foods to cut down on kitchen time.

BAKED SAUERKRAUT WITH CORNED BEEF HASH (Serves 8 to 8)

One No. 24 can sauerkraut, 1 No. 2 can corned beef hash, 1 cup canned tomato juice, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 2 teaspoons prepared horseradish, 1 strip bacon.

Place sauerkraut in bottom of shallow greased casserole. Mix together corned beef hash, tomato juice, onion and horseradish, and spread over sauerkraut. Cut bacon into 1/2 inch pieces and place on top of hash mixture. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) for about 20 minutes.

Here's another low-cost, quick hot night dinner. Fried slices of canned Philadelphia scrapple, broiled tomato halves, green peas (fresh or canned), a jellied or mixed greens salad, cup custard with fruit and cream, iced coffee, milk.

Slice the canned scrapple about 1/2 inch thick. Fry quickly

WEST CALLED COLONY FOR EAST INDUSTRY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—Assistant Attorney General Thurman W. Arnold decried Wednesday what he described as a colonial system developed by eastern industry in the west.

"The west, he told a senate subcommittee, was 'not the only colony of the industrial east.' South America, Arnold said, was another, 'and the tendency in industry is not along national lines.'"

As a result, said the head of the anti-trust division in the department of justice, the fundamental problem was one of industrial colonial structures in which the west was competing with 'other colonies.'

Arnold was the last witness to appear before a senate public lands subcommittee studying western resources. The subcommittee, whose chairman, Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), has said it might hold further hearings in the west, concluded two weeks of testimony with the appearance today of Arnold and Paul H. Appleby, undersecretary of agriculture.

Appleby discussed the relationship of agricultural resources of the western states to the national defense program.

Arnold described 'the struggle between unorganized business in the west and organized business in the east.'

The great eastern corporations, he said, would develop the country 'only insofar as it obviously pays them, and each enterprise which they develop locally will be looked upon as a colony to be exploited for the mother corporation.

"The only solution in my opinion, therefore, is to encourage independent capital, local so far as possible, in order that competitive American enterprise may gamble, lose or win after the manner in which the country as a whole has developed."

TANK OUTPUT UP 1260 PER CENT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—The production of light tanks increased 1260 per cent during the second quarter of this year over the totals for the first three months of 1941, defense statistics computed Thursday.

The actual number of the 18-ton war machines produced was not disclosed, but it was learned that more than 225 a month are now being delivered.

The office of production management does not make public figures on the output of guns, tanks and powder but it was learned that it has just compiled these percentages on the increase during April, May and June over January, February and March: Machine guns, 69 per cent. Medium (27-ton) tanks, 237 per cent. Smokeless powder, 126 per cent. TNT, 46 per cent. Bombers, 45 per cent. Training planes, 40 per cent. Airplane deliveries during the first six months of the year amounted to 7423 craft, but no details have been disclosed as to the number of each type.

July airplane production figures are now being compiled by the OPM, but it was learned authoritatively that they would show very little change from the 1476 total reported for June.

PAPER MERCHANT ZELLERBACH DIES

SAN MATEO, Calif., Aug. 8 (AP)—Isadore Zellerbach, 75, chairman of the executive committee of the Crown Zellerbach corporation, died here Thursday.

He had been in a hospital but one day. Last spring, however, he was hospitalized for several weeks and had not been in good health.

Private funeral services will be held here tomorrow, followed by a memorial service in Temple Emanuel in San Francisco. Born at Moore's Flat (Nevada county), Calif., Feb. 6, 1866, Zellerbach entered the employe of his father's firm, Zellerbach and Sons, merchandisers of paper products, in 1887, and was credited with building the vast pulp and paper enterprise of which he became president in 1907.

He formerly was chairman of the state fish and game commission, and took an active interest in civic and state affairs. His home was here.

On his 75th birthday anniversary last February, Zellerbach gave a reason for his financial success the fact he had "always saved religiously." * * * by the time I was 18 I had $10,000 in the bank. I started with $4. When I had it built up to $100 I lent it to my father at 12 per cent." The executive is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jennie Zellerbach; two sons, J. D. and H. L. Zellerbach, and a daughter, Mrs. Alfred B. Saroni, all of the San Francisco bay area.

Aged Woman Has Very Busy Day

SEATTLE, Aug. 8 (AP)—For a 71-year-old woman, Mrs. Lillie Hendricks had a very, very busy day. She became a grandmother and a great-grandmother within one exciting seven-hour span.

After a grandson was born yesterday to her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Dick Hendricks, in Seattle, a great-grandson was born to the wife of her grandson, William Elliott, at Tacoma.
