

City Briefs

To Speak—Interest has been aroused among members of the Klamath Falls Rotary club over the Friday noon luncheon meeting at which time Captain A. A. Nicholson, personnel director of The Texas company, will be the principal speaker. His subject will be, "America Must Remain America." An excellent attendance of Rotarians is expected, according to President R. D. Miller. Captain Nicholson has given talks on "The American Way of Life," to chambers of commerce, civic and service clubs, national foremen's associations, boards of trade, and manufacturers' associations, in all the large cities of the United States. Alfred Collier will serve as chairman of the day.

From Nogales—Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Smith and young son of Nogales, Ariz., are visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Kittredge, 802 Eldorado street. The Smiths and Kittredges left Wednesday morning for the MC ranch at Adel, Lake county, where they will spend several days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kittredge and family. Smith is a prominent cattle operator in Arizona and old Mexico.

Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gralapp returned recently from La Grande, their former home, where Gralapp officially turned over the superintendency of La Grande schools to Fred Patton, formerly superintendent of St. Helens, Ore., schools. Gralapp stated he was now "at home working steadily on the 1941-42 schedule for Klamath Union high school."

Plan Trip—Mr. and Mrs. John Coppage and young son, Johnny, plan to leave Thursday for Lewiston, Ida., to be with Mrs. Coppage's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. King. They will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Coppage of Minneapolis who are driving west to visit their son and family here. After a visit in Seattle the Coppage families will return to Klamath Falls.

From Colorado—Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Woodruff and young daughter, Judith Ann, returned Sunday evening from Greeley, Colo., where Woodruff attended the summer session of Colorado State College of Education. Woodruff will resume his work as vice principal and dean of boys at Klamath Union high school.

Returns—Dorothy Bailey, member of the Klamath Union high school teaching staff, has returned from a vacation of several months and will remain in Klamath Falls. Miss Bailey taught health in the school last year, and will assume duties of physical education as well on the coming year's program.

To Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Potter and son, Robert, left Wednesday morning for their home in Portland after visiting in Klamath Falls with Mrs. Potter's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnston of North Eleventh street.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. Otto Clawson and two sons, Harry and Robert, have returned from a week's vacation spent camping at Lake o' the Woods. Clawson is an employee of the Oregon State highway department shops.

To Lakeview—Elizabeth Louise Mushen, visiting at the home of her brother, S. A. Mushen, from her home in San Francisco, left Wednesday morning for a stay of several days in Lakeview, her former home.

In Medford—Members of the Klamath Falls office of the Production Credit association drove to Medford Tuesday at noon to meet with the Medford office group and inspectors and to attend a school conducted by J. W. Bradley, secretary of the Production Credit corporation of Spokane. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Lee McMullen and daughter, Frances Lee, McMullen serving as secretary-treasurer of KPCA; R. J. Michaels, assistant; Mrs. Sam Ritchie, bookkeeper; Mrs. John Scott, stenographer; William Cunningham, Henley and Lewis Botens, Keno, both KPCA inspectors. The party returned Tuesday night.

Assisting—Sally Buckner is assisting in the office of City School Superintendent J. Percy Wells during the leave of absence granted Mrs. Arlet Edsall who will resume her position October 1. Miss Buckner has served as secretary to principals of Fremont and Roosevelt schools the past three years.

On Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Harnsberger of Shasta way, accompanied by their two children, left this week on a vacation trip which will take them to the Rogue River valley and Salem. Harnsberger is a mechanic employed in the state highway shops.

Have Operations—Leola, 14, and Charlotte, 13, daughters of Mrs. Jennie M. Varnum of Fionesta, Calif., submitted to operations Tuesday at Klamath Valley hospital for the removal of their appendicites. They were reported recovering nicely by hospital attendants.

Expected Home—Mrs. Dorothy Huffman, senior nurse at the Klamath county health unit, is expected to return this week from Seattle where she has spent the past month studying advanced health work at the University of Washington.

Plans Vacation—Norval H. Jones, superintendent of the Oregon State highway department shops in Altamont, plans to leave this weekend for a week's vacation which he will spend with Mrs. Jones in Medford.

In Wheel Chair—Thurmon "Bud" Wilson, Indian officer, is now able to sit up in a wheel chair for several hours at a time according to Klamath Valley hospital authorities. Wilson is recovering from gunshot wounds received in line of duty.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stuart of Altamont, with their family have returned from a vacation trip which took them to Seaside where they visited friends and relatives. Stuart is a state highway employee.

Expected Back—Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Walters were expected to return Thursday from a motor trip which took them to Portland, Seattle, Vancouver and Victoria.

Improving—Walter Campbell, well known Injry receiver recovering from injuries received several weeks ago at his home, is permitted visitors at Hillside hospital.

Injured Man Better—Gilbert Lien, an employe of Ellingson mill who received a gunshot wound in the hip a month ago, was reported improved Wednesday at Klamath Valley hospital.

Grass Fire—The city fire department was called to a vacant lot 430 Adams street, at 10:48 a. m. Tuesday to extinguish a grass fire.
